THE SENTINEL.

ROCKVILLE, MD.

Friday Morning.....January 19, 1866.

GOVERNOR SWANN'S MESSAGE.—Governor SWANN delivered a message to the Legislature, which assembled at Annapolis, on the 10th instant, in which he treats of various matters of interest to the people, and of which a synopsis will be found in this paper, as the document is too long for insertion in our columns. We shall only notice that part of his message which refers to the Registration law, as that is the most important, and is exciting the greatest interest throughout the State. The Governor assumes as true, that all who did not support the abolition measures of Mr. Lincoln, in kidnapping our legislature, imprisoning our citizens, mobbing our judges, and suppressing the right of free speech and a free press, and taking away our negroes, were traitors, and ought to be deprived of the right of suffrage. Mr. Lincoln, as abolition candidate in 1860, got only about two thousand votes in Maryland, being not one in forty of the voters of the State, and Mr. SWANN, in 1860, thought that the people here should be willing to aid the South in maintaining their constitutional rights. Now, if Mr. SWANN chose to alter his opinions or his conduct concerning these subjects, and "crook the pregnant hinges of the knee where thrift may follow fawning," it does not follow that those who retained their opinions about the abolition party were traitors. But a man who was hoisted into the mayoralty of Baltimore by the plug-uglies and blood-tubs of that city, as Mr. SWANN was, is well qualified to disgrace the right of suffrage throughout the State. He says that from ten to fifteen thousand persons went from Maryland to aid the Confederate cause; and therefore, he argues, that all who did not go, except his own followers, are traitors, and unworthy of the right of suffrage, though they paid taxes and were drafted to support the war. Mr. SWANN says, small as is the minority that rules the State, "it cannot be denied it is the fair and legitimate representation of whatever there is of loyalty among our people." We know that in our neighborhood, and doubt not it was the same elsewhere, that the Registers admitted, without hesitation, those of their own faction, and excluded honorable and respectable citizens, after they had answered, on oath, all the questions required by the disgraceful Registration law. But Mr. SWANN is the governor of a small minority of the people, and wishes to continue his power by the same minority, and, it is said, he expects to enter the United States Senate by the same fraudulent means. We hate the fiends and apologists of despotism, and hope that Mr. SWANN may be disappointed in his further aspirations; and we conclude by stating that we think he is among politicians, what his namesake is amongst the feathered tribe, a great goose.

IN ERROR.—The 16th Section of Article 2, of the new Constitution of Maryland, provides that "all civil officers appointed by the Governor and Senate, shall be nominated to the Senate within fifty days from the commencement of each regular session of the General Assembly; and their term of office, except in cases otherwise provided for in this Constitution, shall commence on the first Monday of May next ensuing their appointment," &c.

The 47th Section of Article 4, of said Constitution, provides that Justices of the Peace shall be appointed by the Governor, "by and with the advice and consent of the Senate."

The 6th Section of Article 12, provides that all officers now holding office shall continue to hold and exercise their offices until they shall be superseded pursuant to the provisions of said Constitution.

These sections show, we think, that the late Governor (Bradford) has fallen into error in issuing commissions to Justices, since he is not authorized to do so (except to fill vacancies) until his nominations are confirmed by the Senate, at a regular session. The present session of the General Assembly is not a regular, but an extra session—so that we do not see how any newly appointed Justices can enter upon the duties of their offices until May 1st, 1867. If this be so, the Justices in office previous to the late appointments can continue to exercise the duties thereof until legally superseded.

The newspapers of the State are discussing these questions, and the present Governor has been applied to for advice. As great confusion would result from the action of Magistrates, if they are not legally qualified, we would respectfully suggest that all Justices, old and new, abstain from acting as such, except those who have been re-appointed, until the issues involved are definitely settled.

☞ The President of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad has informed Mayor Wallach, of Washington city, that the road from the Point of Rocks will enter the city either on Seventh or Fourteenth streets, and this puts an end to all the speculations about its terminating at Bladensburg or other points. A letter-writer to the Baltimore Sun thinks that the air-line from New York to Washington is likely to remain in the air. We hope the bold attempt of such Treasury plunderers as Simon Cameron to override the rights of the States, and fill still fuller his bloated purse from the public funds, may be rejected. Some of this tribe of politicians are fond of quoting the opinions of Gen. Jackson, as the Devil can quote scripture for his purpose. We advise him to read Jackson's veto message on the Maysville turnpike road. But we fear that [illegible] and oaths are merely the toys and playthings of knaves and scoundrels.

☞ The Annapolis correspondent of the [illegible] Sun, under date of the 16th instant, [illegible] The arguments of counsel closed, [illegible] Honor Judge Tuck, for a new trial [illegible] contested will case of Waters vs. [illegible] removed from the Circuit Court for [illegible] county, and which has been on [illegible] for seven weeks, have been concluded [illegible] the motion held sub curia."

PUBLIC MEETING.

Pursuant to public notice, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, a respectable meeting of the conservative men of Montgomery county, without distinction of party, assembled at the Court House, in Rockville, on Tuesday last, for the purpose of appointing delegates to a State Convention, to be held in the city of Baltimore, on the 24th instant, to take into consideration the present odious Registration law of this State, and to devise such means as they may deem best calculated to insure its repeal.

On motion, Capt. EDWARD W. OWENS was called to the chair, and E. B. PRETTYMAN, Esq., appointed Secretary.

The object of the meeting having been stated by W. VEIRS BOUIC, Esq., in was, on motion of R. W. CARTER, Esq.,

Resolved, That the chair appoint a committee of five gentlemen to nominate three delegates to attend the State Convention, to be held in Baltimore city on the 24th inst.

Whereupon the chair appointed the following gentlemen as such committee: E. B. HUTTON, J. T. BENSON, J. H. GASSAWAY, ROBT. W. CARTER, and SAMUEL CASHELL, Esqs., who, after consultation, reported to the meeting the names of the following gentlemen as delegates to the State Convention: Hon. MONTGOMERY BLAIR, WM. THOMPSON, of R., and JOS. A. TANEY, Esqs.; and as alternates, NICHOLAS D. OFFUTT, LEONIDAS WILLSON, and RD. W. OWENS, Esqs.

On motion of W. VEIRS BOUIC, Esq., the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the cardinal principles of our republican government are violated by the Registration law of this State, and those provisions of the Constitution on which its advocates claim it is based, and that immediate redress ought to be granted by the Legislature.

Resolved, That we authorize and direct our delegates, this day appointed, to represent this county in the State Convention, to be held in Baltimore city, on the 24th instant, to concur in all proper and legal means likely to re-enfranchise all white citizens of this State, who have been disfranchised by the present Constitution and Registry law, as executed.

Resolved, That, relying on the resolutions passed by the Democratic Conservative party, and by the Union party, at their respective conventions in this county, last Fall, we are authorized to declare that it is the united voice of our people that the relief sought ought to be immediately granted by the Legislature.

Resolved, That if some just measure of relief to the outrage complained of be not granted by the party in power in this State, it will be well for all true friends of liberty to consider how far it may be wise to refuse to pay taxes imposed by laws, in the making of which a large majority of the people have no voice, and to resist the collection of those taxes by all proper and lawful means.

It was then, on motion,

Resolved, That a committee of five gentlemen, one from each Election District, be appointed by the chair, with power to appoint assistants, whose duty it shall be to solicit such contributions as may be necessary to defray the costs in the Mandamus case of Anderson vs. the Registers of the 4th Election District, in the several Courts, and that this meeting assume the debt so incurred.

The following gentlemen were appointed such committee: John F. D. Magruder, John T. Benson, Howard Griffith, Samuel Higgins, and Benjamin Fawcett, Esqs.

It was then, on motion of JOHN BREWER, Esq.,

Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting be tendered to the Chairman and Secretary, for the able manner in which they have discharged their several duties.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the Chairman and Secretary, and published in the "Montgomery County Sentinel," and the "Baltimore Gazette."

EDWARD W. OWENS, Ch'n.

E. B. PRETTYMAN, Sec'y.

OUR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR.—The oratorical effort of Lieutenant-Governor Cox has attracted attention abroad as well as at home, and the Philadelphia Age of the 12th inst. gives him the following first-class notice:

For ear-splitting rhetoric commend us to Cox, the newly elected Lieutenant-Governor of Maryland. He was inaugurated at Annapolis on Wednesday last, and signalized the occasion by an address to the Senate which is a perfect compendium of all the good old stock phrases which make up a first-class Buncombe speech.

It reminds us forcibly of the original compositions which we used to hear at school, read in intervals between the recitation of "Marco Bozzaris" and "On Linden when the sun was low." Little boys of ten wrote them, it is true, but it is no discredit to Cox that his style retains the freshness and florid fancy characteristic of that interesting age. Take his first sentence, and we find the following beautiful and highly euphonious phrases before we reach the first full stop. "Cloud of war"—"Nation's Sky"—"Sunlight of peace"—"Clash of arms"—"Busy hum of industry," etc. It occurs to us that we have heard some of these phrases before, but we may be mistaken.

The Age thinks it discovers that Cox is a sawbones, and suspects him to be better skilled in the art of mending shins than in that of uniting dissevered States. After quoting his surgical metaphor, it remarks:

"Following up this fine vein of medical metaphor, we wonder whether Cox is a poultice or a blister of the body politic."

☞ The bill reported to Congress, on last Tuesday, by the military committee, for the re-organization of the regular army, provides, that the army shall, hereafter, consist of five regiments of artillery—9,000 men; twelve regiments of cavalry—12,000 men, and fifty-five regiments of infantry—35,000 men; in all 56,000 men. This is much less than some people supposed, or the lovers of splendid and expensive governments desired; but, as seventeen or eighteen thousand were sufficient for all purposes before the war, no doubt, it will suffice at the present time.

GENERAL SHERMAN AND MEXICO.—A special from Columbus, Ohio, to the Cincinnati Gazette says:

"General Sherman has written a private letter to a prominent gentleman now in this city, in which he takes strong grounds against any interference in the Mexican imbroglio."

STATE CONVENTION.—The call for a State Convention to take action in regard to the Registry Law, we see by our exchanges, is being promptly responded to in different parts of the State.

THE MISSOURI TEST OATH.—The trial of F. P. Gallagher, Catholic priest of Rolla, Mo., indicted for preaching and teaching without having taken the oath of the new constitution, has been removed, on a charge of venue, to St. Louis county, and will be heard before the Criminal Court at its present term. Distinguished counsel will appear in the case, and the trial will be an interesting one.

Proceedings of Congress.

THURSDAY, Jan. 11.—There was not much of interest done in the Senate to-day beyond the introduction of bills and their reference to appropriate committees. The amendments to the bill to enlarge the powers of the freedmen's bureau were agreed to, and the further consideration of the subject postponed. Leave was granted to introduce a bill to admit the State of Colorado into the Union. The bill to regulate the elective franchise in the District of Columbia was reported back from committee. A bill was introduced changing the postal laws in several important particulars.

The House passed a bill extending the time for withdrawing goods from bonded warehouses. It provides that all goods, wares and merchandise that may remain in the public or private bonded warehouses on the 1st of April next, may be withdrawn within one year from the time of importation, and after one year from original importation, and until the expiration of three years, goods may be withdrawn for consumption, on the payment of duties and charges, with an additional duty of ten cents. The judiciary committee reported in favor of the joint resolution to transfer the counties of Jefferson and Berkeley from Virginia to West Virginia, but it was recommitted. The committee of ways and means was instructed to inquire into the expediency of exempting carriages valued at $100 from internal revenue taxes; and also of repealing the tax on paper, religious and educational books. A resolution was adopted to inquire into the expediency of the appointment of a Commission by the President to take charge of so much of the powers of the municipal government as relates to the police, sewerage, sanitary regulations, cleaning and control of the streets, &c. A debate then ensued on suffrage in the District of Columbia. Both Houses adjourned until Monday.

MONDAY, Jan. 15.—To-day, in the Senate, a bill was introduced providing for the appointment of a board of examination for all army officers, those failing to pass a satisfactory examination to be put on the retired list or dropped. Mr. Wilson introduced his bill fixing the strength and organization of the army, the main provisions of which were given last week. A resolution was offered declaring that whereas the British government has refused indemnity for damage done to American commerce by her subjects in the late war, therefore the President be requested to withdraw our minister from London, and to declare national non-intercourse between the two nations. The resolution was objected to, and was therefore not entertained.

The House by a vote of 138 to 12, laid on the table a resolution proposing to inquire into the expediency of ordering an election by the colored men of the District of Columbia, who shall decide by ballot whether or not in their opinion white men shall be allowed the right of suffrage. By a vote of 82 to 77, the judiciary committee was instructed to inquire into the expediency of so amending the act relating to the test oath as to allow attorneys to practice their profession without taking said oath, on an equal footing with all other professions. The committee on public buildings were directed to inquire as to the healthfulness of the President's house, and if found unhealthy, as to procuring grounds on which to erect a new executive mansion. The debate on the bill to extend suffrage in the district of Columbia was then resumed.

TUESDAY, Jan. 16.—In the Senate, to-day, the resolution proposing non-intercourse between the United States and Great Britain, and to withdraw our minister from London, was called up for consideration, when, on motion of Senator Johnson, of Maryland, it was laid on the table—the vote standing ayes 25, nays 12. The bill to establish a military and naval asylum for disabled officers and men of the volunteer forces, was so amended as to apply exclusively to the army, and then passed. The discussion on negro suffrage in the District of Columbia was then resumed.

The House passed the resolution authorizing the joint committee on reconstruction to send for persons and papers. A bill was reported to increase the duties on imports. The bill to incorporate the United States Mutual Protective Homestead Company was reported back from committee, with an amendment. The company is to have a capital of three millions of dollars, and its professed object is to encourage the settlement of both whites and blacks in the late rebellious States. The House occupied the remainder of the day in discussing the bill to extend suffrage to colored persons in the District of Columbia. Hon. John L. Thomas, of Md., made a speech against it.

Maryland Legislature.

THURSDAY, Jan. 11.—In the Senate, to-day, no business of any special importance was transacted.

In the House of Delegates a number of petitions were presented, the principal of which were as follows: To amend the charter of the Gaehle Piano Manufacturing Company; and the charter of the Western Maryland Railroad Company. To authorize the Maryland Fire Insurance Company to increase its capital stock and to make perpetual insurances. A memorial from Henry Jones, of St. Mary's county, asking to be restored his right of suffrage, was referred to the committee on registration. A memorial of Thomas A. Spence, contesting the election of John R. Franklin as Judge of the Twelfth Judicial District, was referred to the committee on elections. Also, the memorial of George E. Gambrill, contesting the election of Sprigg Howard as Clerk of the Circuit Court of Anne Arundel county. A message from the Senate was received, proposing the appointment of a joint committee to report a bill for the revaluation and assessment of property throughout the State. Resolutions were introduced in favor of the reconstruction policy of President Johnson. Leave was given to report a number of bills, among them bills to empower the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore to issue bonds in favor of the Western Maryland Railroad. To pay bounties to soldiers enlisted in 1861 and 1862. To allow John G. Chapman extra pay as Police Commissioner. To incorporate a multitude of companies. To renew the charter of the Western Maryland Railroad, and also various other charters of less importance.

FRIDAY, Jan. 12.—In the Senate to-day leave was given to report a large number of bills, but they are not of sufficient importance to require special note. The Senate concurred with the House in appointing a joint committee on the re-assessment of property in this State. Various changes were made in the standing committees, after which the Senate adjourned until Monday next.

In the House of Delegates a number of petitions, of minor importance, were presented. Leave was given to report innumerable bills, many of them of a private nature. The more important bills were as follows: To authorise the Commissioners of Somerset county to subscribe to ten thousand shares of the Eastern Shore Railroad Company. To compensate the County Commissioners and the Register of Baltimore city for paying bounties. To restore the rights of citizenship to persons disqualified from voting under the fourth section of the first article of the Constitution. The latter was referred to the judiciary committee. The following bills, among others, were reported: To amend the charters of the Charles Street Avenue Company and of the Washington County Railroad Company. Bills were passed to incorporate the Baltimore and Liberty Turnpike Company. To incorporate the Pocahontas Manufacturing Company. Resolutions were also adopted requesting our representatives in Congress to use their exertions to obtain the assistance of the General Government in deepening the harbor of Baltimore.

TUESDAY, Jan. 16.—The Senate, to-day, concurred in the House resolutions urging our Congressmen to induce the general government to enlarge the ship channel of the port of Baltimore. A bill was passed to incorporate the Somerset and Worcester Railroad Company. The House, by a vote of 48 to 21, adopted a resolution instructing the committee on elections, in the consideration of contested election cases, to regard as final the conclusions of the officers of registration throughout the State as to all facts which, by the constitution and laws, it is made their duty to inquire into and determine. A protracted debate ensued on the bill to repeal that portion of the code of general laws relating to negro apprentices. It was finally referred to the judiciary committee.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 17.—To-day leave was obtained in the Senate to report a bill to restore to the full rights of citizenship all persons disqualified by the constitution from voting or holding office, &c. A resolution was adopted requesting the Governor to bring at once before the Court of Appeals a test case, in order to show whether many of the newly appointed justices of the peace have qualified and are now acting in accordance with the provisions of the constitution.

The House adopted a resolution endorsing General Grant's letter against withdrawing the troops from the rebellious States. Leave was granted to report a bill in favor of adopting the eight hour system. The committee on corporations reported favorably on the bill to authorize all railroads to run passenger cars on Sundays. The bill to authorize the commissioners of Washington county to subscribe to the stock of the Western Maryland railroad was passed, as were also several other bills.

CATTLE PLAGUE.—The department of State at Washington, has received advices from our Consul at Liverpool to the effect that the cattle plague is still on the increase, both in England and Scotland. During the week ending December the 16th the number of cases reported to him was between seven and eight thousand. The disease is most alarming, and is causing the greatest anxiety and uneasiness throughout the entire kingdom. The Consul also states that some writers contend that it is a kind of small pox, but from his own reading, and from conversations among the people, he is inclined to believe that the malady is not well defined, and, as yet no certain or fixed remedy for its cure has been discovered.

White Men must Rule!

NEW YORK DAY-BOOK FOR 1866.

THE DAY-BOOK proposes to stand in the future, as in the past, upon the great doctrine that this is a WHITE MAN'S GOVERNMENT on the basis of a FEDERAL UNION, and it desires to be distinctly counted out of that class of journals which propose to surrender Democratic principles to a cowardly public clamor. It aspires to no higher honor than to be the organ of the great AGRICULTURAL CLASSES of the country against the public plunderers of all parties, who now, through banks, tariffs, taxes and free negroism, are striving to crush them. THE DAY-BOOK, or its substitute, THE CAUCASIAN, for four long and bloody years, kept the flag of State Rights and Constitutional Liberty flying at a great pecuniary sacrifice, in New York, and at a time, too, when it had no other journal to keep it company. It has not, therefore, been printed merely to make money, but has chosen rather to be right and with the people, than to court the favor of cliques and rich railroad corporations and be wrong with the few. "It might have been better off pecuniarily, but it would have been sadly bankrupt in principle had it taken any other course. It does not now mean to run a competition with shoddy Democratic or Abolition papers, supported by political funds robbed from the people, and it warns the masses that there are many so-called Democratic papers engaged in the conspiracy to mortgage the bones and sinews of the farming and industrial classes to bondholders and capitalists, and surrender the old Union and the old Constitution to the Mongrelists. It, therefore, calls upon all true men to stand by it for another year's fight with the Abolitionists, monopolists and public plunderers. The DAY-BOOK is now recognised as the LEADING DEMOCRATIC WEEKLY OF THE COUNTRY, and has THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY PUBLISHED, being the only New York paper of its class made up as a FAMILY and AGRICULTURAL Journal.

Expressly for Country Circulation.
