WHAT'S TRUEPS!

There are so many cards to play,
Bo many wiys to choose
In love and politics and war,
That forwarding our views
With ladies fair, with statemen wise, Or men of lesser bumps, Dafore we lead our strongest suits
'Tis well to know what's trumps.

Once, worshiping at beauty's shrine,
I knelt in bondage sweet,
And breathed my rows with engerness,
And offered at her feet
My soul, well stored with Cupid's wealthA lore-cemented lumn:

A lors-cemented lump;
A king of dismonds wen the trick,
My heart was not a trump.

Raving to see my rival win
Upon a single rub,
As he had played the DEUCS with me,
I followed with a ctus!
Two days within a station-bonse,
Reflecting on my sin,
I found, as others may have done,
Clubs very seldom win.

Grown wise by and experience, I ceased to deal with maids; I suvertan youthful follies off,

And turned up Jack or seable.
Yet still I find, as dust is carce,
And smaller grow the lumps.
That though the spade's an houest card,
It is not always trumps. But in the world of outside show

Where Mammon rules the throng, To ease the little joints of life, And smoothly pass along; To find an antidute for care, And stern misfortune's bamps, One card is very sure to win DIAMONDS are siwars trumps.
