

THE SENTINEL.

ROCKVILLE, MD.

Friday Morning, June 14, 1866.

Special Convention in Baltimore.—The Radical Abolition party of Maryland held a meeting at Baltimore, on the 6th instant, in obedience to a call of the minority of the State Executive Committee, at which they passed the resolutions published below. They falsely and impudently call themselves the "Unconditional Union party," when it is known that they are doing everything in their power to prevent the Union of the States, by endorsing the tyrannical and disorganizing schemes of...

It will be noticed that, in the 5th resolution, they say that the question of negro suffrage is not at issue in the State of Maryland, when it is known to be the principal object of the leaders of their party in the North, where their political palpitae, their party papers, and their stamp editions are staffed with it. In the 6th resolution, they place "Rebel suffrage and negro suffrage" together, meaning, by the latter, those citizens whom their infamous tools refused to register, on account of their indecent opinions. Take, for instance, Samuel C. Vane, Esq., Judge of the Orphans' Court, he is classed with negroes; William Thompson, Esq., of the same Court, was deprived of his suffrage, but restored to his right by the Legislature; and Dr. Jous W. Anson, the other Judge of the Court, was written down in their book "Disloyal," by Baxter and...

It is not to be supposed that the registered voters of Maryland will listen to the propositions to repeal or modify the Registry law, which was passed in conformity with the provisions of the Constitution, and must remain in full force until such time as the registered voters of the State shall decide that the organic law shall be changed. The fact that the people of the State are "the legitimate guardians and depositaries of its power," and that the disloyal have no just right to complain of the hardship of a law which they have themselves deliberately provoked.

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Convention, that if disloyal persons should be allowed to vote, it would be a violation of the Constitution to administer the oath prescribed by the Constitution to all whose loyalty may be challenged, and in the language of the Constitution, "to exclude from voting all that are disqualified."

Resolved, That we cordially endorse the reconstruction policy of Congress, which excludes the leaders of the rebellion from all offices of profit or trust under the National Government, and places the basis of representation on the only just and honest principle, and that we will support the National Government, and no more, than a white man in Pennsylvania or Ohio.

Resolved, That the question of negro suffrage is not at issue in the State of Maryland, and is raised by the enemies of the Union party, for the purpose of dividing and distracting it, and by this means to ultimately enable rebels to vote.

Resolved, That we are pledged to the maintenance of the present Constitution of Maryland, which expressly and emphatically prohibits both Rebel suffrage and negro suffrage, and we are equally determined to uphold the Registry law, which disfranchises Rebels and excludes negroes from voting, and have no desire or intention of rescinding or abolishing either the Constitution or the Registry law.

Resolved, That we appreciate the blessings of a free republican form of government, it is a duty devolving on our individuality, as well as on our collective body, to support the United Republic, founded by our Revolutionary sires, from disruption and destruction.

THE FENIAN.

Friday Morning, June 14, 1866.

THE FENIAN.—The Fenian war seems to be over, and the men are returning to their homes, peace and tranquility, if not wisdom. It is said that the British troops followed the Fenians into the United States, and took three Fenians over into Canada, where they hang them.
