GOING UP AND COMING DOWN.

This is a simple thing, 'tis true, And songs like these are never nice; And songs like these are never nice; And set we'll try and scatter through A pinch or two of good advice.
Then listen, pompous friend, and learn Never to boast of much renown; For Fortune's wheel is on the turn, And some go up and some come down.

Weknow a vast amount of stocks, A vast amount of stocks,
A vast amount of pride insures;
But Fate has picked so many locks,
We wouldn't like to warrant yours.
Remember, then, and never apura
The one whose hand is hard and brown;
For he is likely to go up,
And you are likely to come down.

Our lives are full of chance and change, And chance, you know, is never sure; And 'twere a doctrine new and strange, That places high are most secure. And though the fickle god may smile,

And though the fickle god may smile, And wield the sceptre and the crown, 'Tis only for a little while, Then B. goes up and A. comes down: The world for you and me, my friend, Hath something more than pounds and Then let me humbly recommend A little use of common sense.

As for the location of this newly discovered Eden, this too, is perfect. It is so high that there is no dampness and no fever and no 'monquitus; the air is dry and pure and invigorating: there is luctous fruit, good water, prize vegetables, milk from cows, buffer that does not take the skin off your tongue, and, above all, there is necessful round nature and observe

Poultry, Dairy, Seed, Flour, Teamyo, Vezeta
Tense of Speed of Horses from the District of Columbia, trotting in harness, at 2 o'clock, M.

The Committees on Cattle, Sheep, Hogs.

Poultry, Dairy, Seed, Flour, Teamyo, Vezetacome, and the whole scree, was so still and peaceful that a languly came over me, and it nodded and winked heavily in response to the dasiles that bloom along the feace and over the lawn.
