For Attorney General, Hon. ANDREW K. SYESTER.

For Comptroller of the Treasury, Col. LEVIN WOOLFORD.

The Duty of Democrats. In another part of to-day's paper, will be found the proceedings of the Democratic Primary Meetings held in the respective Districts of the coun'r, on Saturday last. It is doubtful if ever before in our political history the county has been so thoroughly canvassed ention; it is certain that never before has there been awakened so general an interest among the people averywhere, and consequent active participation of the masses in the primary meetings. The spirited rivalries that distinguish this canvass brought out the vote and secured a fair expression of opinion in the selection of delegates.

To-morrow these delegates meet here is County Convention to nominate candidates for State's Attorney, House of Delegates, Orphans' Surreyor. If, as we hope and believe, they will come together in the spirit of harmony, will come together in the spirit of harmony, and, by the result of their deliberations, allay the passions and repress the resentments of competing claimants, all, who are solicitous for the success of the cause in the approaching conflict with Radicalism, will have reason for gratulation.

We anticipate that the Convention to-morrow will nominate a ticket that will receive the cordial support of every one claiming sympathy with the Democratic party of Maryland. That the personal preferences of each individual member of the party can be gratified in the selection of the candidates, is, of course, an impossibility; and, unless weare willing to yield somewhat of our individuality to the successed a common good party organization is worthless. It is natural—it is right—it is proper, that, in selecting candidates to represent the party, every man should strive to have chosen his own favorites; but, it is required from the party of the consensations. The incetting was organized by the 1811. The neceting was organized by the 1811. ISAAC YOUNG, Chairman.
Chas. E. Scholl, Secretary. In this, the last issue of our paper before t Fair, which will open on WEDNESDAY NEXT, we have the pleasure of announcing that all things are ready for the interesting oc casion. Under the management of the Executive Board the grounds have been greatly improved and beautified, the buildings and enclosure fitted up in complete order, the accommoda tions rendered more perfect, and everything that skill and judgment could devise for the convenience and pleasure of all who may at tend, has been done. The preparations throughenforment of the occasion beyond any previous exhibition held by the Society. Notwithstanding the protracted drought no apprehen slone are felt for an ample supply of water which ill be ensured by arrangements effected by the Executive Board.

The people of old Montgomery can no point to their Fair Grounds with increased pride, and truthfully boast of their beauty and perfect adaptation to the purposes for which they are designed. If there is any other spot in this broad land that can excel it in beauty of situation, or in materal or artificial arrange ment for agricultural and mechanical display and competition, we should be pleased to see

Exuberant Health

Is a blessing roochsafed to few. Even those who have been favored by nature with strong constitutions and vigorous frames are apt to neglect the precautions necessary to preserve these precious endowments. Indeed, as a rule the more healthy and robust a man is, the more liberties he is inclined to take with his own physique. It is some consolation to the naturally weak and feedle to know that they can be so invigorated and built up, by a proper use of the means which science has placed at their disposal, as to have a much better chance of long life and exemptions from disease and pain, then the most athletic of their fellows who are toolish enough to suppose themselves invulnerable, and act accordingly. It is not too much to say that more than helf the people of the civilized world need an occasional touic, to enable them to support the strain upon their bedies and minds, which the fast life of this restless age occasions. In last, a pure, wholesome, unexciting tooic is the years discheration of the busy millions, and Exuberant Health full vote of the district for the candidates re-ceiving the highest number of votes for the respective offices; adopted.

Nominations being in order, the following candidates were nominated, for State's Attor-ney, George Peter and Spencer C. Jones. For Commissioner, E. G. Duley and Jao H. Dade. a pure, wholesome, unexciting tooic is the grand desideratum of the busy millions, and they have the article in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It is a staminal medicine. i. e. it im-parts permanent strength to weak systems and urigorates delicate constitutions. Ha reputa-tion and its sales have steadily increased. Comeighty-seven.

It has been the great medical success of the present century, and it is quite certain that no proprietary medicine in this country is as widely known, or as generally used.

Ten lightning presses, running incessantly (Sundays excepted,) the whole year through, barely supply the demand for the Illustrated Almanne, in which the nature and uses of the preparation are set forth, the circulation now being over eight millions a year.
