THE Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette says:

"The recent speech of Senator Schurz at Nashville, and his letter in reply to the Confederate soldiers' letter, have been the principal theme of conversation here during the past twenty-four hours. Republicans regard it as a bid for political preferment, and profess to consider it of but slight moment. They say it cannot affect the result in the coming Presidential canvass.

Democrats and non-partisans speak in the highest terms of the sentiments expressed by the Confederate soldiers in their letter, and in Schurz's reply thereto, and generally of the sentiments which pervade the speech which called out the letter. The exceptions to general endorsement are found in the Senator's proposition to organize a new party.

The purpose of the new party, namely, the defeat of the Administration, is applauded, but the condition coupled therewith of abandonment of the Democratic party does not meet with any favor from its members. The organization of a new party is regarded as impracticable, and successful opposition to the Republicans, it is believed, can only be found in a co-operation of all conservative elements with the Democrats. A judicious nomination of candidates for President and Vice-President by the next National Democratic Convention will, beyond doubt, secure the support of conservatives of all parties. Pensylvania is the objective point, and the candidate who can command the Conservative suffrage of that State will, it is conceded, be elected President.

WORK TOGETHER.—We are now approaching the fall elections. In some of the counties our Conservative Democratic friends have been less harmonious than could have been desired. They were inclined to encourage factions and the running of independent tickets. No surer means could be desired by the enemy to aid them in their faint hopes of slipping in members of the Legislature. If our own party is foolish enough to divide, it but furnishes material for radicals to hang hopes upon, and, probably, gain success. Every one knows that our good old Commonwealth—not omitting a county—is thoroughly Democratic, and it is within our power to present a full, unbroken delegation in the next Legislature.—Why then should any risk be run? Let our forces stand solid. To accomplish this with unerring certainty, our friends in all the counties should harmonize and work together for the common good.

The enemy is actively engaged, and not without secret hope of certain success at our expense.—Annapolis Rep.

MORE YANKEE THIEVES.—In Washington Monday evening, Detective McDevitt ... George H. Chase, a messenger at the ... Department, and Frank McGraw, a ... man at the State Department, on the ... robbing the State Department of a ... of gold and silver treaty seals, the money value of which is several hundred dollars. Both confessed the larceny, and, acting under the direction of the prisoners, Detective McDevitt recovered a number of gold and silver nuggets into which the seals had been melted, and which they were assured were what remained of the seven seals which they confessed to have stolen from treaties in the State Department several weeks since. The department claims that ten seals were stolen, as that number are missing. One of the seals was attached to a Turkish treaty, one to a German convention, and the others to different treaties between the United States and foreign countries.

ARRAIGNMENT OF MRS. WHARTON.—In the Criminal Court, in Baltimore, on Monday, it was expected that Mrs. Wharton would have been arraigned upon the indictment against her for murder, but upon her name being called a letter was handed to Judge Gilmore, signed by two physicians, stating that "having examined Mrs. E. G. Wharton, we find her in a state of debility such as to lead us to believe she would be endangered by having to appear at this time—before the court—and in consideration of her delicate health we earnestly recommend that your honor allow her a short time, say a week, for recuperation." The Judge yielded for the day, but intimated that he should require her presence within the week.

REINTERMENT OF CONFEDERATES.—The bodies of the Georgia Confederates from Gettysburg, forwarded from Baltimore to Savannah on the steamer America, were received on the 22d instant, and laid in state in the Merchants' Exchange, in the presence of Gen. Jos. E. Johnston and others. On the afternoon of the 23d the bodies were interred. All the shipping in the harbor displayed bunting at half-mast.

THE majority against General Butler in the Republican Gubernatorial Nominating Convention of Massachusetts is now set down at at least 150, and perhaps 250.

THE MONGRELS.—On Saturday last, the Mongrels of this district held a primary meeting in the Blacksmith Shop of the Great Mogul of their party in this place, which was attended by a promiscuous crowd of black and white members of that party. We understand that a man claiming to be white acted as chairman of the meeting, with a negro secretary. Delegates were appointed to a meeting, to be held here to-morrow, to nominate a county ticket, and there appears to be considerable rivalry between the various white and black candidates; but, however these differences may be settled, we have no doubt the ticket will be a strong one. The sale of Cologne was very brisk from the Stores in that end of town during the evening.

A BIG FAIR.—The people of Western Maryland are making great strides in everything pertaining to agriculture and mechanics. Allegany county is doing wonders. In the last ten years her population has been increased about 40 per cent., and the city of Cumberland is growing now more rapidly than any other town in the State. In all directions buildings spring up like magic. Amongst these is a magnificent hotel to cost $200,000. The Agricultural and Mechanical Fair to be held there on the 17th, 18th, 19th and 20th of October, promises to surpass those of the past. The trotting and running purses, in trials of speeds are $600 each, and all other premiums liberal. A visit to the Fair will doubtless be most pleasant, and round trip half-fare tickets will be issued on the railroad.

THE track of the Baltimore and Potomac railroad is now laid to within eight miles south of Washington, some thirteen or fourteen miles south of Annapolis and Elkridge railroad. With the line laid north of this road there are now about twenty-two miles of rails of the Potomac road laid. The two abutments of the bridge over the Patapsco are now finished, and the builders are now at work upon the middle piers, which it is expected will be finished about the first of December. The excavation under the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, near the Relay, is almost through. It is understood that a telegraph line will be built along the route between Washington and Baltimore. The bids for the poles have been made, but not yet awarded.

CONDITION OF THE CROPS.—The report of the Commissioner of Agriculture for September shows a high condition for corn and wheat in the Eastern, most of the Middle, and some of the Western States. Wheat at the time of harvesting was from one to ten per cent. above the average in most of the Northern States, and from five to thirty per cent. below the average in the South. The depreciation in the West was about ten per cent. The hay crop is reduced in quantity, but excellent in quality. The Irish and sweet potato crops are generally very good. In regard to the sugar crop, an increase of thirty per cent. on last year's production, which was 145,000 hhds., is anticipated.

FINE CLOTHING.—Visitors to our late Agricultural Fair could not fail to notice the very fine display of elegant Ready-Made Clothing on exhibition by W. NORDLINGER, of Georgetown, D. C. Mr. N. has a very large and increasing trade in our county, and from all we can learn, gives universal satisfaction. He is now receiving a superb stock of Fall and Winter Goods, and we have no doubt but that all who give him a call will be well satisfied with his goods and prices.

PRESBYTERIANISM IN MARYLAND.—The Presbytery of Baltimore, which embraces the Presbyterian churches of Maryland except those of the Eastern Shore, has made steady and rapid progress, as the following statistics will show: In 1831 the presbytery consisted of six churches, nine ministers and 1,123 members. In 1871 the presbytery has under its care 42 churches, 45 ministers, and 4,404 members. About $250,000 have been raised in the churches in the last year.

THE WASHINGTON PATRIOT.—Hon. James E. Harvey has, on account of ill health, retired from the editorship of the Daily Patriot, at Washington. The Hon. Noah L. Jeffries has purchased Mr. Harvey's interest in the paper, but this involves no change in its political tone or general management. Mr. Jeffries was assistant provost mashal general in the District during the war, and has since practiced law in Washington.

THE YELLOW FEVER seems to be making its way into the Southern interior, but at no place as yet has it assumed a form of very extraordinary severity. The mortality at Charleston is still limited to four or five a day. Twenty deaths have occurred at Natchez, Mississippi, within the last two or three weeks, and several fatal cases are reported at Vicksburg and Jackson, in the same State, and Vidalia, Louisiana, opposite Natchez.

FEEDING THE FRENCH.—The French will have to rely upon foreign countries almost entirely until the next harvest for their breadstuffs. Large orders are now coming to this country to supply the deficiency occasioned by the war. One firm in New York city received an order from Havre, on Saturday, for 80,000 barrels of flour.

IN the election in New Mexico, on the 11th for a delegate to Congress, Gallegos, democrat, received 7,650, Cheves, republican, 5,285, and Sena, independent, 2,534. The Legislature has 17 democrats, 16 republicans, and 6 independents.

THAT KU-KLUX COMMITTEE.—The New York Evening Post, consistently republican, addresses some pointed comments to the congressional Ku-Klux committee which has just arranged for further raids by its sub-committees through portions of the Southern States.

JUDGE UNDERWOOD, of Virginia, has arrived at the conclusion that under the provisions of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments of the Constitution, the females of the country are entitled to the elective franchise as now enjoyed and exercised by male citizens.

ONCE more the statement comes that the seat of the rebellion in Cuba is nearly perfectly clear of trouble, all resistance being confined to a few straggling plunderers. A proclamation declaring the revolution at an end will shortly be issued.

POLITICAL SURGERY.—Mr. Samuel J. Tilden, has issued a circular letter to the democracy of New York, in which he urges the sending of good men to the State Convention, and closes by saying: "Wherever the grangrene or corruption has reached the democratic party, we must take a knife and cut it out by the roots." If a like remedial treatment for the Southern State governments could be attempted, a suggestion of the Newark Advertiser would be neatly in point, that "the proper place to cut off that dog's tail is just behind the ears."

GENERAL WADE HAMPTON, in response to a request for his opinion on the subject of Southern representation in the next National Democratic Convention, takes earnest grounds against it. He thinks that the presence of Southern delegates in the Convention would be a hindrance rather than help, and that it would be made use of by the Radical opposition to prejudice the action and to defeat the candidates of the Democratic party. He holds, further, that the burthen of the fight in the next Presidential campaign must of necessity, fall on the Northern Democracy, and that such being the case, it is but right that they should choose the standard bearers. He is convinced, he says, that it is the true policy of the South to abstain altogether from all participation in the National Convention, not because of the want of any earnest sympathy with the Northern Democracy, but of the strength of that sympathy in view of the intense gravity of the issues involved, and of the beneficial influence which the triumph of the Democratic party would exert upon the political fortunes and future destiny of the South.

Such is, in substance, the tenor of Gen. HAMPTON's letter. He desires, however, "that the conduct and motives of the South should be fully understood by our Northern friends." His sole thought is to aid them, by leaving them free to act as the best interest of the party may demand.

But when the platform is announced and the candidates chosen, it will become the duty of the South to ratify the action of the Convention, and use every possible exertion to promote the success of the party, for, on that success, as he firmly believes, depends the existence of the Southern States. If this advice should not meet with general concurrence, he exhorts the South, in any event, "to act in perfect accord, and with entire harmony."

This fear of fanning anew the hatred engendered by a struggle which was brought to a close seven years ago, is one of the saddest things in the recent history of the South. The men most worthy to govern the Southern States, and most able to control lawless outbreaks, are the very men who are still denied the power of doing either. They plead calmly for peace, and peace is denied them. Although recognized as citizens, and entitled to be clothed with all privileges and immunities of citizenship, nearly all of the most influential of those to whom they have been accustomed to look for counsel and advice, feel constrained to say, with General HAMPTON, our only trust is in the Northern Democracy, and our only hope of political redemption depends upon the triumph of the Democratic party. Of ourselves we can do nothing. Negroes and carpet-baggers, and scalawags, are our rulers; and if we move hand or foot for our deliverance, even though the means be lawful and the right we exercise unquestionable, the old war-cries, potent for evil will be revived again, and everything that malignity can invent will be forged into a weapon for our hurt, and will be used, not against us only, but against those from whom alone must come, if it come at all, our final rescue from the pains and penalties, the plundering, and the harassment, to which we are now and have so long been subjected.—Baltimore Gazette.

SHOCKING OUTRAGE BY NEGROES.—A dispatch from Richmond, Va., to the New York Herald, dated 25th instant, says that a report received from Greenbrier county, West Virginia, gives the details of a shocking outrage which occurred in the township of Palestine. It seems that a man in the employ of Mr Geo. V. Perry had a difficulty with Mr. Lewis F. Watts, in which Watts was whipped. Watts then employed two negroes and a white man to go to Perry's at night time for the purpose of beating his antagonist. The white man remained in the road and the negroes knocked at the door, and were admitted by Mr. Perry. The man they were after stepped behind the door as it was opened, and the negroes, not seeing him in the room, went up stairs in search of him. As soon as they started up stairs he sprang out and ran to the railroad for assistance. The negroes, after searching in vain for him up stairs, came down and fell upon Mr. Perry and his young son and beat them fearfully.

They then seized Mrs. Perry, threw her on the bed, and tied her by the hair to the bed, after which they outraged her person. They then attempted to outrage a little girl only twelve years of age, doing her serious injury. Mrs. Perry, in her struggles to escape, had nearly all her hair pulled from her head by the roots, but she finally succeeded, and fled to a neighbor's in her night clothes for protection. The man who had gone for assistance returned with others and captured the offenders. They then went to Watt's and arrested him and his son, kept them secure until next day. The news spread rapidly, and the people flocked in with guns, determined on lynching all the guilty parties. These, however, were secured in a strongly built house, so that they were not reached, although desperate efforts were made. They were tied and sent to the Monroe jail, where they remained securely guarded.

Exuberant Health

Is a blessing vouchsafed to few. Even those who have been favored by nature with strong constitutions and vigorous frames are apt to neglect the precautions necessary to preserve these precious endowments. Indeed, as a rule the more healthy and robust a man is, the more liberties he is inclined to take with his own physique. It is some consolation to the naturally weak and feeble to know that they can be so invigorated and built up, by a proper use of the means which science has placed at their disposal, as to have a much better chance of long life and exemptions from disease and pain, than the most athletic of their fellows who are foolish enough to suppose themselves invulnerable, and act accordingly.

It is not too much to say that more than half the people of the civilized world need an occasional tonic, to enable them to support the strain upon their bodies and minds, which the fast life of this restless age occasions. In fact, a pure, wholesome, unexciting tonic is the grand desideratum of the busy millions, and they have the article in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It is a staminal medicine, i. e. it imparts permanent strength to weak systems and invigorates delicate constitutions. Its reputation and its sales have steadily increased. Competitive preparations have been introduced ad libitum, and, as far as the public is concerned, ad nauseam, in the hope of rivaling it; but they have all either perished in the attempt, or been left in the rear. It has been the great medical success of the present century, and it is quite certain that no proprietary medicine in this country is as widely known, or as generally used.

Ten lightning presses, running incessantly (Sundays excepted,) the whole year through, barely supply the demand for the Illustrated Almanac, in which the nature and uses of the preparation are set forth, the circulation now being over eight millions a year.

LAMPS! LAMPS!

THE PERKINS & HOUSE NON-EXPLOSIVE LAMPS are giving perfect satisfaction, so far as heard from, and are the only reliable Lamp that can be used with perfect safety.

They give twice the light from the same sized wick, emitting no odor in burning, and rivalling gas at much less expense.

They have withstood critical tests by the most eminent scientific men, and cannot be exploded by the use of the most inflammable oil, or by anything short of Nitro-Glycerine or Gunpowder.

We will take pleasure in ordering any Lamps, Chandeliers, Brackets, Hall Lights, Pendants, &c., and will be sold here as cheap as they can be bought at the manufactory.

We have price lists and illustrated catalogue, representing the different styles and cuts of Lamps, &c., varying in price from $1 50 Lamp to 18-light Chandelier costing $150 00.

Long Winter nights will soon be here, and families will need a good, steady and brilliant light to read and work by.

Call, examine and be convinced of the superiority of these Lamps over all others now in use. BOUIC BROS.,

BONE DUST.

THE subscriber finding it impossible to supply the demand for his BONE DUST, under the old mode of manufacturing, has, since last fall, applied to his Factory, enabling him to make from four to six tons per day, and much finer than any heretofore made by him; 50 pounds per acre can be applied with a drill. His dust is made from the

The most Improved Machinery

and WARRANTED PURE. His Bone Dust has stood the test of the Farmers of this and Montgomery county for the last eleven years, and has found it to be the cheapest and one of the most reliable Fertilizers used, not only giving quick returns, but a quick and permanent improver to the soil. At the low price sold, every farmer can afford to use it. The large quantity now on hand ready for use, and facilities for manufacturing, will enable him to fill all orders from Farmers. The price this fall is reduced to

$45 Per Ton,

IN SACKS. Parties furnishing their own Sacks, $43 per ton. But one price for large or small quantities.
