GEORGE W. HILTON,
O. H. P. CLARKE.

For State's Attorney,
SPENCER C. JONES.

For Sheriff,
THOMAS WATERS, of S.

The Radical Ticket.

A Radical County Convention—that is, quite a numerous assemblage of negro voters, presided over, guided and governed by a few mean and designing white men—was held, on Saturday last, in the furthest corner of the lane, back of our town, which, in years gone by, was made the receptacle for dead dogs, and, on that account, bore the significant though unrefined name of "Dog's Misery." What more fitting place could have been selected for such a gathering of d. d's. as were brought together on Saturday last? In just such a place and such condition will they and their candidates be found on the morning after the November election.

Some of our readers may be curious to know who those candidates are, and therefore we spread out before them the beautiful array, as follows:

For House of Delegates—Thomas Y. Conley, William A. Darby and James H. Allnutt.

For Orphans Court—William H. Farquhar, Christopher W. Lansdale and Lyde Griffith.

For County Commissioners—William Brown of J., James G. House, Richard Trail, William H. Ward and Edmund Lea.

For Sheriff—Bernard Monday.

For Surveyor—William Keefe.

On this ticket will be observed a few names that have heretofore been recognized as Democrats, and it may be that they have been put there without their knowledge, privity or consent. For their own sakes we hope this may be so; for if they have willingly concurred in this arrangement, they may rest assured that this will be the last of them politically. Men who wear their principles so loosely that they can cast them off with the facility they can lay aside a worn-out garment, are not reliable men, and cannot be regarded as such. Such men are not trustworthy, being one thing this year, and another the next. They are men of seven principles only, comprised in "five loaves and two fishes." If they cannot get the loaves and the fishes, they make some pretext, plausible or not, to go over to the enemy, only to play the same role there, and shift back again on the first trivial provocation, fancied or real. Every party has more or less of such men in its ranks, but they command the respect of none. If courted at all, it is only that they may be used for the time being, for, it is well understood by all that they have attached themselves to this or that party only for a consideration, or the hope of it at least.

We have uniformly maintained that the white Radicals of our State are opposed to the bestowal of offices upon the negroes. That they are far away from the colored people in sympathy and interest. That they value them only for their votes to put white men in office. Let us now see how this is. In most of the counties the Radicals have nominated their candidates for the November election. Not one colored man has been placed upon those tickets. In this county, so far from nominating a colored man for any office, the white managers went out of their own ranks to pick up disaffected Democrats as standard bearers.

The disaster that overtook the colored Republicans of Montgomery, on Saturday last, was complete and perfect. The white minority, insignificant in point of numbers, signally triumphed, and, the colored men, representing four-fifths of the Radical vote of this county, cannot point to a single candidate of their own on this unsized white ticket, while they have been called upon to vote for some white men whom their leaders have heretofore represented to them as among their most bitter enemies.

Has not the time now fully come when every good citizen should awake to the magnitude of the impending crisis, and set his face against this miserable pretended pandering to negro notions and caprices on the part of unscrupulous and designing politicians?

Meeting of the Judicial Convention.

We are informed that it is finally arranged, that the Judicial Convention for the 6th Judicial Circuit of Maryland, comprising Frederick and Montgomery Counties, will meet to nominate a candidate for the position of Chief Judge, at Barnum's Hotel, Baltimore city, on Thursday next, October 12th, at 11 o'clock A. M. Our Committee failed to persuade the Frederick County Committee to agree to meet at Hyattstown, and yielded to the suggestion to meet in Baltimore, as a compromise.

REVIVAL AT TENNALLYTOWN.—An interesting meeting is in progress at the Methodist Episcopal Church at Tennallytown. The altar is nightly crowded with penitents. There have been eighteen conversions, and sixteen have united with the Church. The meeting is affecting all classes in the community, and is conducted by the Rev. C. H. Hyslinger.

ADVERTISEMENTS, intended for this week's paper, unavoidably crowded out, will appear next issue.

Organize! Organize!!

By reference to another column it will be seen that the Democratic Central Committee for this county, have called for meetings in the respective Districts, at which speakers will be present to advance the interests of the party in the present campaign. This is all well enough as far as it goes, and, it is to be hoped the people will attend those meetings and be stirred up to the importance of the work now before them. But this is not all that Democrats have to do to maintain their ascendency in this county. They may rest assured that the battle will be waged fiercely by the opposition, and with every appliance that Radical greed of power can suggest or the vantage of Federal patronage or plunder bring to bear. To meet the onset, then, organization, thorough and perfect, is indispensable. If our forces are not animated with the true spirit of patriotism; if they operate without concentration of effort, a well disciplined and compactly organized force, numerically inferior to our own, may defeat us.

Hence, the necessity of thorough organization in our ranks; and, to that end, we urge that every Democrat will make it his individual business to look to the organization of the party in his immediate neighborhood. Let each one charge himself with the duty of seeing that his neighbor is fully alive to the importance of the canvass, and is prepared to be at the polls on election day. Let every Democrat take home to himself this task of infusing life into the organization in his district, as well as the duty of talking with his neighbors and awakening them to the work. Don't wait for some older or more prominent man to move; in this fight, rank must not be considered; until the enemy is routed we are all high privates, and should all be willing to do duty as scouts, picket men, or sentinels—yes, even the severest fatigue duty of organizing for the march to victory. Let us all move now and together, actively and earnestly, with a strong pull, until the ides of November shall bring to us the most glorious victory we have ever achieved.

The greatest caution should be exercised in the use of preparations intended to promote the growth of hair. A few applications of improper substances to the delicate vessels from which the hair derives its nutriment, will cause irreparable injury, and entail premature baldness, upon the unhappy victim of charlatanry, whose nostrums crowd the market. No such bad effect need be feared from the use of Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer, manufactured in Nashua, N. H. This article is concocted upon scientific principles and with an intimate knowledge of chemistry and philosophy as applies to the growth, preservation and restoration of the human hair. When the hair has become gray, it will restore it to its natural color, and produce a fresh, vigorous and healthy growth, improved in texture, health and beauty. If people are wise, Hall's Sicilian Hair Renewer will take the place of the multitude of inferior compositions now hawked about.—Boston Commercial.

ALASKA.—Where on this globe can we go beyond the omnipresent Yankee? Landing at Sitka, we had walked but a short distance into town when we reached the northern depot of Dr. Ayer's medicines in full display among the huts, shanties and courts of these boreal tribes. There the familiar, homelike names of his Cherry Pectoral, Pills, &c., salute us from the exterior and the interior of a store which shows more business than its neighbors, and proves that these simple but sure remedies are even more necessary to savage life than to ourselves where they visit every fireside.—Cor. Alexand. Journal.

JUDGES OF ELECTION.—The County Commissioners, at their last meeting, appointed the following Judges of Election:

First District—Jonathan D. Barnesley, John Allnutt and Charles A. Pope.

Second District—Sam'l Scott, Warner Welsh and William Williams.

Third District—Alexander Dade, Richard W. Williams and Christian R. Hershey.

Fourth District.—Nathaniel Clagett, Robert L. Adamson and Sylvester C. Jones.

Fifth District—James F. Pierce, Isaac Burton, Jr., and Wm. E. Shaw.

The first named in each district is Return Judge.

GROCERIES.—The particular attention of our readers is called to the card of RILEY & CLARKE, in our issue of this week. Mr. B. F. RILEY, of the firm, is a native of our county and well known for his pleasing manners and address, and we have no doubt all who give the new firm a call will be well satisfied with their goods and prices.

HENRY KING, Jr., Masonic Temple, Washington, D. C., to-day advertises card, and, having one of the most attractive Stores in the District for Millinery and Fancy Goods, we have no doubt will be liberally patronized by our people. Give him a call and see for yourselves.

Editor of the Sentinel:

In the list of county expenses and charges, published in your paper, I notice an error which should be corrected. You have for Boarding Juries, $175 00, Fuel for Court House, $47 75. It should be, Fuel for Court House, 175 00, Boarding Juries, $47 75.

Yours, &c., JOS. A. TANEY,
Clerk to Commissioners.

Trust what Time has Sanctioned.

The maxim that the voice of the people is the voice of the divinity, may in some cases, be open to doubt, but the testimony of honest and enlightened witnesses extending through a series of years, and to the same purport, is worthy of credence, admits of no question. Upon such testimony the reputation of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as an antidote and cure for many ailments is based. During the twenty years that it has been before the world, innumerable preparations intended to compete with it, have gone up like rockets, and come down the extinguished sticks. Meanwhile the progress of that incomparable tonic has been swift and steady—always upward and onward like the eagle's flight. Its introduction produced a revolution in therapeutics, and it proved to be one of those salutary revolutions that cannot go backwards. To-day Hostetter's Bitters is one of the most popular remedies in christendom, and commands a larger sale than any other medicinal preparation, domestic or imported, on this side of the Atlantic. As a cure for dyspepsia, bilious disorders, nervous affections, general debility, and as a preventive of epidemic fevers, it takes precedence of every other remedy. This fact should teach the ambitious country dealers who endeavor to foist their local abortions on the public in its stead, how futile their small attempts to cajole the community must necessarily be. Where the game fish have failed there is no chance for the "suckers."

In Memoriam—Matthew Fields.

I feel as one treading on sacred ground in rewriting to the subject of this memoir; but I write, not to harrow up the living hearts of surviving friends, and cause their wounds to bleed afresh; but I write because I feel impelled to pay some tribute to the memory of MATTHEW FIELDS, whose name is entwined as sacred in memory's wreath by all who knew him.

Pope said, "an honest man is the noblest workmanship of God." The subject of our remarks was not only an honest man, but the virtues of true manhood in all their dignity, clustered around him; and his character shone in beautiful proportions, exciting the admiration of many, and admiration of all—With him, "to be known, was to be loved."

His heart was not a narrow, and contracted circle, in which selfishness prevailed, but was full of noble and generous impulses, throbbing with sympathy for the afflicted, charity for the poor, and love for all mankind.

He was a kind and affectionate father, a loving husband, a beloved neighbor, a useful citizen, and an ornament to society. But he is gone—the last battle has been fought—the conflict of life is ended—he has entered another sphere of existence. And let us fondly hope that before he closed his eyes to earth, he looked in faith and humble penitence to the world's Redeemer, who has assured us that, "whosoever cometh unto Him, He will in no wise cast out," and we who survive, let us remember that,

Between two worlds life hovers as a star,
'Twixt morn and eve, on the horizon's verge.
How little do we know that which we are,
How less, what we may be—the eternal surge
Of time and tide rolls on, and bears afar our bubbles,
As the old burst, new emerge, lashed with the foam of ages.
While at the graves of empires rise, but like some passing waves.

WASHINGTON, D. C. N. H.

A CARD.

MR. EDITOR: I am not a little surprised and mortified to learn, that I have been nominated for County Surveyor by the Radical party of this county. It was done without my knowledge, and every feeling of self-respect, political conservatism, and patriotism, require me unequivocally to announce that I refuse to accept the nomination at the hands of that party for which I have no affinity and no respect.—I do not consider it a compliment to my judgment for that party to suppose that I can be duped into being an instrument in their hands to aid them in subjugating the white race to the dominion of the negro race, even when led by white men from whom better things might have been expected. My duty and my purpose is to give my hearty support to the nominees of the Democratic Conservative party.

Dearest Zuzie, thou hast left us
We thy loss most deeply feel,
'Tis He who hath bereft us
Can all our sorrows heal.
In the night that dear darling left us
Oh! the sad and dreary night,
But the darkness that bereft us,
Ushered her to endless light.
Joyful morrow,
There's no sorrow
Ever more can linger on Where our Darling Zuzie's gone.

all that portion of the real estate of the late Dr. Benjamin B. Hodges, which was heretofore sold by the subscriber as trustee to a certain John Wiley, trustee for E. K. Estep.

This farm is situated in Montgomery county on the road leading from the Georgetown and Rockville turnpike, at Darcey's Store by way of Peirce's Mill to Washington; is about five miles distant from Washington, and a half mile from said turnpike, adjoining the lands of G. The farm is in a fair state of cultivation, and is improved by a comfortable frame dwelling-house and the necessary out-buildings. Its beautiful location and proximity to churches, markets, mills, &c., and the excellent society of the neighborhood, commend it to the favorable consideration of persons desiring to purchase a home.
