Poetical.

Bail it Down.

Whatever you have to say, my friend,
Whether with an angry or a pen,
Cadenas as much as ever, you can,
And say it in the readiest way,
And whether you write of rural affairs,
Or particular things in town,
Just take a word of friendly advice—
Bail it down.

When you are sitting over a page, When a couple of lines would do, Your finger is poised so much you see, That the blood runs plainly through; So when you have a story to tell, And would it were a little sooner, To make up for your pen, my friend, Bail it down.

When you write an article for the press, Whether prose, or verse, or just try To utter your thoughts in the best words, And let them come crisp and dry, And when it is finished, and you suppose It is the best you have, Just look it over again, and then Bail it down.

A Home of Your Own.

THE GREAT FAULT of our time is the habit of not having a home of our own. We are all tenants, and we are all tenants of a very precarious tenancy. We are all tenants of a very precarious tenancy. We are all tenants of a very precarious tenancy.

Agricultural Knowledge.

At the present time, when the producing class and the fertility of the soil are disappearing, the importance of increased agricultural knowledge cannot be overestimated.

There are now ten hundred millions of persons constantly dependent upon the products of the soil for their very existence in life, and while in most of the nations demanding agriculture, there is a sad and lamentable want of agricultural knowledge, and a sad and lamentable want of agricultural knowledge.
