him on the Bench of our State.

But let Democrats and Conservatives Leware of supineness and inactivity. Without exertion there can be no success. There is no man, however humble he may be, but who possess es a certain degree of influence; let every nocrat and Conservative employ what influence be may have in securing the most utter defeat of Radicalism in Maryland; let all personal differences and petty dissensions be sunk in one grand aim to rout the enemy. The whole personnel of our ticket is good. If it be not to all tastes, let it be remembered that it is of paramount importance that Radicalism gair not a footbold in our good old State. Look at Radical rule in our sister States south of us! See there men reduced to a state worse than vassalage. See there communities controlled and governed by men who are devoid of prin ciple, honor, humanity, in fact of every attr bute which goes to make up a man. Burdened and oppressed, ground down by the iron heel. and deprived of almost every right belonging to an American citizen. The people of those States generally are peaceable and law-abiding, and anxious to apply themselves to the varied arts of Industry; to recuperate their depriva-tions and losses, but Radical misrule is a check upon them. This glaring Ku-Klux fraud in paraded before the country in justification. Were States north of us similarly governed Ku-Kinz would dely all the power of the govern-

Filtow Crizzas: A short time after my nomination for the Sheriffalty, I learned that a report had been put in circulation that I voted for Abraham Lincoln. Considering the fact that my antecedents were generally known to the people of the county, and believing in the old adage "that a big lie is like a big fish thrown out upon dry land, that it will kick and splutter, but soon die if left alone," I was disposed to treat it with silent contempt; but as I hear that soone are disposed to give crolence to the report, I feel that it is due to political friends and to myself publicly to announce it false. Having grown up an old Line Wing, in 1800 I voted for Bell and Everett; in 1801 I openly and actively supported the Democratic ticket and have firmly and unfline higply supported it ever since. For my-course in 1804 I was removed from the office of Assistant Assessor under the "Internal Revenue Act," which position, for reasons satisfactory to myself, I had been induced to accept. And whole upon the subject, as agreed and has been said about it, I challenge any man to point to an act of my life flat makes me in any way responsible for that or any of the many busiens and afflictions reading from the late civil war, or for that unhappy conflet ittelf which has spread discord and addiction throughout the land. If I believed that any hourse man, knowing any thing of my character, would besitate to accept the utoregoing as true, I could not be induced to ite my name rumain before the people one day longer for any position. let my name remaining longer for any position.
