THE SENTINEL ROCKVILLE, MD.

Friday Morning December 15, 1871 Gen. Grant and his.Late Message.

It is now nearly two weeks since the annual gress has been made public, and 'we do not West. And come to think of it, we cannot spent by the people of Maryland for intexicat understand why any one should wish to hear ing drinks;" that "over ten thousand citizens anything from Gazar. If he were a private of Maryland annually die the drunkard's Individual no one would ask him for an opin- death;" "that it is the direct cause of nearly ion on any subject of greater moment than a all the vice and crime committed in the State, one expect anything, better from him now? Being President does not make a man other selected President fourteen times, at the forth-GRANT-and a man, whose judgment on matters of State. Is of no consequence.

The late Message reads more like an army order than anything else, and, as such might med up the operations of the Government for Branch nearly all summer, or travelling in thought to the operations of Governmentthat is, always bearing in mind that it made any sort of difference whether be did or not. Still, being President, it seems we ought to, or at least we are accustomed to have a good deal of attention given to the operations of the Government. But we will not cy, and he has kept his word. He has not falling of the cupola of the Court House, and even had a policy, of insurance, and this be- his body burned in the flames. He leaves a ing the case, how can we expect him to be wife and ten children. The public records interested in the operations of the Clovern ment or take time to prepare other than a $90,000-insurance of $12,000. had struck him at odd hours, touching the Ad- which they presented to the widow of Mr. ministration of which he is the nominal head? Friedlinger.

Had Congress, however, known that His excellency was so hurried, it might, without the least detriment to the public west, have adjourned over a few days, or weeks, or months. to enable our President not to be hasty. It sounds rather odd, you know, to have the this time, (Wednesday) the eridence on the Chief Executive, in preparing so important a part of the State has not been concluded, and Statepaper as a Message, to say that he had as the witnesses are numerous on the part of the defence, the case must occupy much more say, of hand and rather gay was of disposing easy, off-hand and rather gay way of-disposing of the basiness—and probably quite as good and the Court room is eduly throughd with as any other that has distinguished this military Administration.

piece of business, and then furns Congress as cheap as any in the city. aver to the reports from the Departments. For further particulars he continually refers to the small bills as theatrical jesters do. This is well. To have the President pire a re-hash of the topics treated of by his subordinates, and manner, and that of the Penitentiary of Kings. The purchase of the topics treated of by his subordinates, and manner, and that of the Penitentiary of Kings are murdered his master to obtain a sum kingsar murdered his master to obtain a sum of money which was in the house. After killing him the wretch also side the housekeeper the more than the first of January, in the fings house, and all who wish to understand the true philosophy of beath should read and ponder the valuable our Government. But the novelty hypeusing. Then, he has a high religious authority. Why sell of these things; "are they not chroniseled in the book of Kings?" And are not all things necessary for a Congress to know set ever to the reports from the Departments. For ARRESTED .- On Wednesday last, a party of five men, supposed to be from Washington, was arrested and brought before Justice Boric, of this place, charged with maltreating a Mr McCauley, who lives on a farm in this county, Lear the District line, and belonging to a Mr Agra, of Washington, and of which Mr. Mc Cauley was the manager. They notified Mr McC. to suspend his operations, and leave the premises, as they were in authority, threaten ing to kill Mr. Henley, who was in the employ of McCauley. On complaint being made, warrant was issued by 'Squire Laxsualk fo the arrest of the party, and accordingly Officer Jonn R. Millen, with a posse, repaired to the place and: apprehended them. They were brought before Justice Botte, who, after bearing the case, held them to bail to keep the peace and for their appearance at Court, Mr. Aucz entering as their security.

WAR ON DRINKING Houses .- The Grand Lodge of Good Templars of Maryland has had prepared a memorial to which it is said they expect to receive about twenty thousand sigotures in the city and State, asking of the Legislature the passage of a general law to enable the qualified voters of any ward or district, to determine by ballot, whether drinking houses may or may not be licensed within pow-wow-between General GRANT and Con- said districts, under existing law; and in all districts voting against such license to proyet see that it has produced any unusual es- hibit the sale of such drinks except for medicliement, or been received with more than cinal or mechanical purposes. Why should His excellency be in such a hurry? It seems to us that he has had a great no power of regulating the internal traffic of deal of leisure on his hands during this last any State. The plaintiff appealed from this year, and while loitering on the beach at Long decision on the ground that the Maryland law clashes with that control of commercial af elegant palace cars over the country, the fairs that was entrusted by the several States might hare got over his haste and given a to Congress in the Constitution, and at the same, time discriminates injuriously between the citizens of different States. VIRGINIA'S LONCE BY THE WAR. -- Mr. Camp bell, one of the West Virginia commissioners writes a letter from Richmond to the Wheeling Intelligencer. After referring to the convention of 1871, the ordinance of secession and the nucledns and feelings connected with its passage—the then condition of Virginia and its racidents and feelings connected with its passage—the then condition of Virginia and its present, he says:

"This contrast between the past and present of Virginia brings me to speak of her as I see and hear of her from my present standpoint. Her losses by the war become more apparent as time passes on, and in their enormous extent have no parallel save in the compared her. It is not an exaggerated estimate to say that her losses, direct and indirect, foot up an amount equal to at least one half of the present entire debt of the National Government. She lost a half million of slares worth say four hundred millions of dollars. She lost 23,000 square miles of territory worth say another hundred millions of dollars. And in depreciated and destroyed agriculture, manufactures and commerce, she lost say three or four hundred millions more. And hand in hand with three frightful losses, her. debt has gone on steadily increasing until it is now close upon fifty millions of dollars. Such a debt naturally establishigh taxation." close upon fifty millions or dullars. debt naturally entails high taxation."

Mrs. C. V. Basley, Acting Sec. S. O. R. A. Mrs. C. V. Busley, Acting Sec. S. O. R. A. Esteemed Ladies—In response to your request for a contribution to build houses for destitute children of decessed Confederate soldiers, please find enclosed $500 in the currency of the decessed Confederacy. You say that the "shrinking delicacy and pride of the Southern people forbilds the idea of conducting the establishment upon the principle or plan of an ordinary charrity." We cordially coincide with this policy, and as ordinary charrites are supported by "greenbacks," you will appreciate that lofty sense of chivaline propricty which leads us to contribute to the support of your enterprise a currency which is port of your enterprise a currency which is opposed in all respects to greenbacks.

Yours, very truly,
The Chicago Republican Company.

How it is to be Put Through.

The Washington organ of Grant says that it will require not less than ten thousand regular troops, judiciously distributed through the Southern States to insure a free and fair election in those States in 1872, and that it may be necessary for Congress to increase the army. This is but one of numerous indications that Grant intends to force his re-election by placing the whole South under barnonet rule should he receive the Republican non-ination. Such a method of insuring a free and fair election, vertainly deserves the credit of originality. It is only equalled by the ingenuity of the Ethi-opean present-taker who relates his experience one of the negro minstrel halls : "Pompey thar you get dat watch?" but I had to knock him down free or for times before he'd do it." If Grant runs for Presideut in 1872 he is determined to have a fre and fair election, even if it should be necess ry to bayonet every man in the Southers States who opposes him. What would be deemed a free and fair election by a man who has used United States treops and guns to control the action of a Rej convention at New Orleans, may be imagined,—.Y. Y. Sun (Radical.)

Loso Hara.—If long hair be the glory of woman, then there is a glorious young lady in Boston. She was persuaded the other day to give a private exhibition of her beautiful head of long and heavy black hair. Her beight is five feet three inches, and when she is standing erect her hair falls to her feet, and traits fully a quarter of a yard on the floor. It is seventy-the inches in length. Here indeed, is a much favored young person! No neel has she of chignous, braids, nor of fronts, nor of tricopherous compounds; and Eve herself, of tricopherous compounds; and Eve herself, the primal and perfect woman, had probably no greater wealth of tangled charms.—Er.
