In the Senate, on Tuesday last, the gen eral amnesty bill was warmly debated. Mr. Morton said that the issues of the war were the Jouana, and let it speak for itself. The not settled; if the disabilities were removed, the Southern lenders would be sent to the Senate, when "we" should cut but a sorry figure. They would pension Southern soldiers, and pay for Confederate property destroyed dukeynote of the campaign for 1872. It was the same old bugaboo, but would not impose any longer on the American people. He thought it queer that the President should recommend amnesty and reform, and his supporters in Congress oppose both. It looked like throwing a tub to the whale. The President had said three years ago "Let us have peace," and copies sent gratis, by N. P. Burra & Co., Pubwe have not yet got peace, nor one measure looking to peace.

The House went into committee of the whole make a reduction from the appropriations of hast year of $9,000,000. Mr. Wood thought 000,000 for the collection of customs which cost $3,000,000 under President Buchanan.

The bill for the apportionment of members of the House of Representatives has been very materially changed by the Senate Judiciary Committee from the shape in which it came from the House. The committee have cu down the number of members from 283 to 243. all the States to the representation which they now have, instead of agreeing to the increascontemplated. The election of members for the next Congress is fixed for the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, 1872, and thereafter on the same day in every alternate year, so that the day may be uniform in all the States. According to the House bill fire, the present number.

ELECTION OF UNITED STATES SENATOR .- HOS Gro. B. Dennis, the present State Senator from Somerset county, was, on Priday last, elected United States Senator, from Maryland, to succeed Mr. Vicuras, whose term expires in March, 1873. Ninety-three votes were cast by the joint convention, of which Mr. Dennis dem., received 81; Hon. Jacob Tome, late republican candidate for Governor, 1, and Hon. Lewis U. Steiner, of Prederick, republican, 11 Mr. Dennis was therefore declared elected.

Mr. Dennis is a gentleman of considerable Belt. Ben. means, liberal education, most genial and so cial character, largely interested in works of internal improvement, and has for several Ohio Railroad Company, and in several roads on the Eastern Shore of the State. He was the Radical members who have been guilty originally a Whire in politics, and was defeat-Unbernatorial nomination by a very small majority. He went over to the Democrati party at the outset of the war, and has eve aince been one of its strongest supporters.

THE TALKED OF HALLBOAD PROK WASHINGTO TO THE PERSONNELL LINE -An enthusiasti zallroad meeting was held at Mathews' Store, Howard county, Maryland, on Saturday, the 23th last., at which John A. Dorsey, David, which could best get along without the other Clark, Dennis P. Gaither, James II. Hobbs Richard Dorsey, of C., and Aaron Chadwick were appointed a committee to co-operate with ommittees of Montgomery and Carroll counties in an endeavor to procure from the State legislature at Aupapolis, a charter for the building of a railroad from Washington city through the countles of Montgomery, Howard and Carroll, and to connect with the Pennsylvania system. | Full assurance was given that such project is fessible, and that the requisite capital for construction is at ready command, providing no existing monopolies place obstructions in the way .- Ellicott Cily Progress.

SCHOOL TAXATION .- Prof. Newell, in a letter to the Baltimore Sam says : "The State Board did not recommend an increase of the State select tez, but recommended a discretionary power to be given to the several county board to lery a county lex (where it was needed) not to exceed filten cents in the bundred dollars. The present maximum is ten cents, but it may be increased with the consent of the county commissioners. This consent is often bard to get, just where it is most needed."

Liev. Jacob Hassler, at Boonsberough, Md. found a cow and calf in his stableyard on the 25th ult., labeled a "Christmas present."

ACQUITTAL OF MRS. WHARTON:

The jury in the case of Mrs. . , Wharton, on lay morning last, entered the Court room baring before informed the Judges that they had agreed upon a verdict. Immediately the news spread through the town, and the Court room was soon dessely packed by persons eager to Hear the verdict. Previous to the entering of the jury, Chief Justice Miller dmonished the audience that no manifesta-
