Hope for the Country.

We have abundant evidence from all parts of the Court and clikens, was then called to sneedble in the office of Register of Wills, which was organized by calling Gross W. Dawsok to the Chair and spointing Rosses W. Dawsok to the Chair and spointing Rosses W. Cares, Secretary.

On motion it was resolved, that a committee of three be appointed to prepare resolutions sharp practice, avarice, depravity and profit gard, that has prevailed since the Radical party came into power. Scartly a day passes that does not bring us reports of the country, to protest against the universal, scandalous and dangerous demoralization to which the country, to protest against the universal, scandalous and dangerous demoralization to which the country, to protest against the universal, scandalous and dangerous demoralization to which the country has been brought under Radical rule. There is great hope for the common good in the movements above refer. common good in the movements above referred to, they furnish a salutary sign that the people are not going to be imposed upon lon- ed : ger by Radieal promises made but to be broken; that they are sick and tired, and have tasted to satiety the fruits of hypocrisy, and cant and cunning, and that the deplorable pass to which they have been misled requires at their head the presence of other counsellors and other influences than those which control them.

Where are those counsellors and influences to be found? In that party and that alone that has ever recognized the great truths that lie at the base of our form of government as the leading tenets of our political faith. Concress.-In the Senate, on Monday, the amnesty bill was continued over till Tuesday, and the Congressional apportionment bill taken and disposed of. The amendments propo-House bill were all rejected, except the proposed sixth section to protect the right of voters, good Officers and Teachers and is destined to which was adopted. The bill as passed inercases the number of representatives from 243 to 243, as proposed by the House. Maryland and Virginia are among the States gaining representation. The final rote of the Senate on the passage of the bill was year 49, nays 7. The bill now goes to the House for its concurrence in the sixth section.

was debated by Mewrs. Saulstury and Schurz (who favored universal amnesty) and Nge, who said he intended to keep those "rascale -meaning persons under political disabilityout of the Senate as long as he could.

In the House a resolution was adopted aurener to send for persons and papers in their fallures. A bill extending the time within which pension frauds may be punished to five years from the date of their commission was justed, Mr. Poland, chairman of the committee, stating that one-fourth of the money now paid as pensions was on fraudulent claims.

MARTLAND LEGISLATURE -There was no que rum in the State Seeate, on Monday. In the Uante of Delegates an order was adopted ordering an investigation into the destruction of the ice-boats Chesapeake and Maryland, whether the result of carelesaness on the part of their officials or not. Bills were passed to authorize the loan by the city of Baltimore of S1. 000,000 to the Western Maryland Railroad. The bill to complete the Worcester and Som erset Railroad was passed. An order offered by Mr. Stone was passed, instructing the committee of ways and means to inquire into the expediency of repealing all laws exempting property from taxation, except churches, co eteries and State bonds, and to report by bill or otherwise. Among the leaves was one by Mrt Jamart to introduce a bill to pay each citizen $300 who furnished a subsi paid commutation money to avoid-servine i the United States army during the late civil war, which was referred to the committee of ways and means! One by Mr. Riggs; for imoverments on Montgomery court-house, 're ferred to Montgomery delegation.

TRIBUTE TO JUDGE THOMPSON .- On hearing of the sleath of Wn. Thompson, of R., late Chief, Jedge of the 'Orphans' Dourt for this county, on Tuesday, 234 altimo, & meeting of he Bench and Bar was immediately called i the Orphans' Court room, the proceedings of which are published in another column. They pay a feeling and just tribute to the memory of the deceased, and breathe the spirit of unfeigned grief for the loss of any of our bes most meeful men. As a citizen and pub lie officer none stood higher in general esterm and, confidence than Wu. Thourson, of R. and 'death could not have removed from our midst one who will be more sorely missed.
