pointing delegates to the Baltimore Convention which meets on the 24th inst., the duty of which body is to elect delegates to attend delphia in June next, to nominate candidates for the Bresidency and Vice Presidency.

After the usual preliminaries this mostey assemblage of "black spirits and white" proceeded to the work of the meeting and appointed four or five delegates to attend the Baltimore Convention-all of whom are whitethus saubbing "the man and brother," who seems to be used for no other purpose than voting. These deluded freedmen who are the represent us. willing tools of their political masters learn nothing about the principles of our government and are perfectly happy when they do the voting-they mingle in the mentingserowd the polls on election day, but get no reward for their labor, except the privilege of being "snubbed." The delegates appointed to the Baltimore Convention were all instructed to vote for Gen. Useless S. Grunt-the man who never declined a present or the appointment of relative to office-all of which instructions these aforesaid delegates will obey to a dot, even if -already nearly accomplished -upon the ruins

But we think we see the barbinger of a better day, and that the Radicals see the handwriting upon the wall, else why these almost superhuman efforts to earry the recent elections im New Hampshire and Connecticut—this latter State endersing the Administration by a majority of about serency ! "Call yo that back-ing your friends ?" Look, too, at the defection from the Republican ranks of such men as Trumbull, Schurz, Greeley, Sumner and a host of others-the very brain of the partyand though Summer does not co-operate with the Democratic party - we don't want himof one thing we are certain, he opposes the re-election of Grant. The New York papers describe the mass neeting of Liberal Republicans at the Cooper Institute on Friday night last as one of the largest and most enthusiastic ever known in that city. The Tribune describes the scene at the Institute as follows :

seems to have been occasioned with a view to take advantage of the Cincinnati Convention; the results of which may determine as to the time for holding the Democratic Natifual Convention.

A Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Gazetts says: The Democratic members of Congress are consulting among themselves regarding their political course, in view of the Cincinnati Convention. Softe of them freely superses their willingness to vote for the nominee of that Convention, provided the demonstration there shall give promise of success, and the platform be of such a character that they can endorse it. They say they want only the enunciation of a few general principles. Some of the anti-Administration Republicans shave been privately exchanging views with them, in order to arrange a coalition.
