

THE SENTINEL.

ROCKVILLE, MD.

Friday Morning, May 10, 1872.

Democratic National Convention.

The National Democratic Executive Committee met in the city of New York, on Wednesday last, in order to appoint a time and place for holding the National Convention.

The Cincinnati Nominations.

The Cincinnati Convention was a success in point of numbers and character. Whether the nomination made will receive the support of the party which created the ticket is now uncertain before the country.

The New York Herald of the 11th inst., in a two-column double editorial, pays a glowing tribute to Horace Greeley, the Liberal Republican nominee for President.

President Grant would not be re-nominated. Mr. Fish and Mr. Washburne, the true American, and Mr. Washburne, the true American, will have their day.

Reverend at Washington - A rumor has obtained circulation - and we give for what it is worth - in Washington, to the effect that the name of Gen. Grant was to be withdrawn from the Philadelphia Convention.

A Good Movement - A writer in the last week's paper suggested the calling of a meeting of the citizens for the purpose of considering the propriety of opening a Cemetery for the interment of our dead.

Supplement to the Sentinel - We last week issued a Supplement to the Sentinel - a full sheet of 24 columns - containing the laws passed by the General Assembly of Maryland at its late session.

Judgment reversed - The judgment rendered in the long-contested case of Waters, Lewis, vs. Waters et al., at a former term of the Circuit Court for Montgomery County, has been reversed by the Court of Appeals.

The House and Lot now in the occupancy of Henry Vint, and formerly owned by Lycurgus Beck, of Rockville, was sold by the trustee, on Saturday last, for the sum of $103.

There is a great danger of the "spring fever" prevailing here during the next few weeks.

The Political Issues of the Day.

There has scarcely been a time in the political history of any nation, when a greater responsibility has been thrown upon any party than that which now rests upon the Democrats of these United States.

Today it is in their power to wield their strength for good or evil to this nation; and time will show whether men will become so blinded by their passions, as to subvert an interest which in the end must inevitably break down the fabric of Liberty.

By a majority of the Democrats with the Conservative Republicans, access must not be had to the Government until the corruption of which they have been guilty, and which defeat must inevitably expose.

But, suppose on the other hand, the Democrats should permit in making a nomination for President and Vice-President, of what would it be? Can any reasonable man present even an argument, which would give the slightest hope of success?

There is no time for delay. Grant's enemies are all at work and their hands are busy. The Democratic party must be organized and their platform must be decided upon before the Philadelphia Convention.

Gov. Vane's of Ohio has taken the stump in that State. He has spent several weeks in that State, and has been very successful in his efforts.

The manner in which the South is governed at the present time is a disgrace to the Republic. It is a disgrace to the Republic.

Mr. Greeley says he will not withdraw from the candidacy for the Presidency unless the Democratic National Convention nominate a straight-out Democratic ticket.

Judge Dunlop, of Georgetown, and for many years Chief Justice of the Circuit Court of the District of Columbia, died at his residence in that city, on Tuesday night last, of apoplexy, in the 70th year of his age.

At the Philadelphia Mint they had a fellow hired to count five cent nickels. He got away with $2,700 worth of these nickels in three weeks.

Marital Law.

On the 4th of March, 1871, the Forty-first Congress passed the following act:

On the 24th of April, just over a year ago, President Grant signed the bill which gave to the President the power to remove any officer or employee in his department.

The Liberal Candidates.

HORACE GREELEY, was born in Amherst, New Hampshire, February 2, 1811, and was the son of Zephaniah Greeley, a farmer.

He was educated in the common schools of his native State, and in the State University at New York. He spent the winter of 1830-1831 at the University of Vermont, as an apprentice to the printing.

THE WOMAN'S FRIEND, OR STEAM WASHER!

It does its own work, thereby saving a large portion of the time usually taken in washing.

It requires no attention whatever while the process of cleaning is going on. A lady can do her washing while sitting her breakfast and doing up the breakfast dishes.
