FOR PRESIDENT.

HORACE GREELEY, Of New York.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

B. GRATZ BROWN, Of Missouri.

Democratic Republican Nominations The wire men said 'n a multitude of counsellors there is safety," and thus believing we endorse with a hearty good will the nomina-tion of Honacs Guerray, of New-York, by the National Democratic Convention, for Presideat, and B. Charz Banwa, of Hirsouri, for Vice President. This may properly be called the Beform Ticket, and had its inception with the Liberal Republican—a class of men who had become disgusted with the tyranny, neportism and corruption of the extreme Badicals—these invited the co-operation of all the friends of Reform throughout the country, and in this spirit they were met by the Democracy who are engined to the Democracy dent, and B. Charz Biowx, of Missouri, for Vice President. This pay properly be called present their candidates, and ask the aid of all friends of Reform. From every Btate and Ter ritory in the Union delegates were in attendmen who knew the w slies of their constituen-cies and who came thither, to represent them in the National Council. They have spoken, and the record is made up, and Houses Gave-LET, of New York, has been chosen as the standard-bearer, not of the Democratic party, as a party, but as the leader in Reform whose purpose it is, with the sid of the Democracy, to restore the government to its former purity of character, and to confine it with-is its constitutional limitations—to restore to the people their rights under the Constitution. and to the States the rights belonging to each It is a great movement of Reform, in which the Democrats as citizens of a common country take part and lent the sauction of their name, anthoritatively given by the Democratic National Convention and they now act in

To the attainment of the great objects mentioned they are willing to be guided by the axiom of the poet: "Forget the past, for it is gone; whely improve the present, for it is thine; and march forward into the future with a brave and maply heart." Thus these friends, North and South, East and West, standing now upon a common platform, are willing to prove by their deeds the sincerity of their motives. They have flung their flag to the breeze in the confident hope that it will be the standard powers. To the attainment of the great objects menthe breeze in the confident hope that it will be orne aloft and lead to victory.
With the antecedents of the nominees—be ther what they may -we have nothing to do Amnesty is granted or the past. We are now on a mission of peace and good will. We know that much the Horace Greeley has written and much that he never did write, will be spread broadcast over the land. To all this wife! the reply is male-unnesty is granted, and the possibility of giving any extended account Tuesday last. Delegates were in aftendance from all the States and Territories in the Union, and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed .-Tas. J. Whole number of votes 732. After the announcement of the vote, which was received with great applaure, Mr. Chalmers, of Mississippi moved that the nominations be made unanimous, and on the rote being taken there were fifteen dissenting voices. PRIGHTENED .- It has been evident for some ceks past that the Radicals were becoming rightened at the prospect before them, and as the canvass advances their alarm is exhibited more clearly. If everything was right in the radical camp there would be no occasion of sending out cabine officials upon an election eering tour. Secretary Boutwell, it is said, goes this week to North Carolina to stump the State for Grant and Wilson, and later in the campaign will visit Virginia, West Virginia, and probably Pennsylvania. This looks to us a little like some people were zetting frighten-ed, and well they may le, for the people have decreed a change and only waiting for the time to speak, and the party in power may as well be packing their trunks.

When they any what he can't do, we answer with his family papers and documents, and doubts are expressed of his success, we may we desired. But the best of the story is that the last best of the story is that the doubts are expressed of his success, we say we have gone on his bond."

The Straight-outers beld a meeting in laitimore on the 10th, and declared in favor of an address to the democracy and the call of another National Convention. They are helded by Brick Pomerov and about 18 others, not enough to carry a school district.

HYATTSTOKE, July 5, 1872. Will you please be kind enough to allow pace in the columns of your much prized and highly valued paper for the publication of the roceedings of the Tournament held at this place yesterday.

At an early hour in the morning the beauty of the village was astir, (and allow me to say upon on my own responsibility, that there is not a place upon the face of God's earth, for its size, that can boast fairer women or braver nen,) and shon the roads were seen filled in all directions with rehicles bringing in their precious freight, to view the manty sport and by their presence give encouragement to the brave Knights there assembled, to thrust a lance in defence of female honor and virtue.

At 9 A. M., the tilting commenced between eleven Knights, vis: Knight of Dolly Varden A. Welsh ; Knight of Olla Zela, R. Benton Knight of Unerring Istace, S. Daris; Knight of Rusty Lance, F. Hyatt ; Knight of Never Wu. Burwan, Esq., whose address was pronounced by all present to be the best effort of the kind ever made in flyattetown, not even excepting the Address of our talented M. C. delirered upon a similar occasion ; and unless we are terribly mistaken, or the recopie of doutgomery fail to appreciate talent, we prediet for him a glorious future. At all events he carries with him the prayers and well-wishes of the good people of this place. Hoping I am not trespassing upon your kindaces in asking you to publish the foregoing, and with the asturance that it is the wish of the entire community, to thank your columns the orator upon this occasion,

There is among the political prisoners at the Albany penitentiary, sentenced under the infamous Ku-Kiux law, a man named Moore, whose history he related briefly to the editor of the Utica Bre, while on a sick bed, as follows

Goixa ron GRERLEY .- A letter has been ritten by Mr. W. N. Gov. Vance's Last.

Governor Vance addressed a large and en-thusiastic aniembly at Wilson, N. C., a few days aince. He took strong ground for Gree-ley as this best means of securing peace. He said that the South, by supporting a life-long opponent of their section and its policy, would convince the North of their carnest desire to forcet the litterness of the best, and that the orget the Litterness of the past, and that the forthern Republicans, by offering Greeley and Brown on so liberal a platform as that adopted at Cincinnati, had convinced the South that a large body of their former enemies were de a large body of their former enemies were desirous of shaking hands with them.

The Governor continued, that for these reasons the South would support Greeley cheerfully, notwithstanding the many objections to him, in the hope of inaugurating an era of better feeling in the land, and of starting to restore the Government to a constitutional administration. He hoped there would be unanimity at Baltimore, and was sure North Carolina would give Greeley and Brown a large majority, if endorsed there by the Democrats. The Governor illustrated his position by a humorous story of an old preacher, into whose hymn-book some mischierous boy had pasted the old song:

"Old Grimes is dead ;

That good old man, We ne'er shall see him more."

in our hymn-book we'll sing him through if it kills us. Ith was received with prolonged applause. Governor Vance continued for over two hours, to the great delight of his audience, one of his ablest and most cloquent efforts. He was followed by General M. W. Ranse one of his ablest and most elequent efforts.—

He was followed by General M. W. Ransom for an hour in the same style. The both claim North Carolina for the Democracy by 20,000 majority.— The Baltmorean.
