The spectacle presented on the assembling of the Democratic Patienal Convention in Baltimore on the 9th inguet has never before been witnessed in this country. Threa if we may make the comparing the red use and the white, lost their significance, all the houses of York and Lambiur sat sidely side. There party hate and prijedich were forgotten-"in the deep bosons of the ocean buried"-and why? For loss years the rise and good men both North and South depired the bitterness of feeling resultant from the war, which had which were being still serembittered by the water were being still savemottered by the tyrannieni and unconstituted enactments of a party who saw no kee of retaining their lighter power but by buting these fouds allve, and stirring up a kee between races and between sections. hat nominee stands upon a platform broad d estholic in spirit and democratic in principle—and pledged to its support, and we might say that we had not put off but that the Liberal Republicans had donned the Democratic uniform. At any rate, it is not now likely that the two parties having united on a common platform, will separate hereafter, beause they have the same ends in view, and no natter which party is successful in the present ampaign, the struggle between the Radicals and these same opponents will be renewed.

The campaign bids fair to be an acrimoniunreleating hate, by the whole Radical press. Everything published in the New York Tribune for a score of years—garbled and misetated as it will be-will be presented to the Southern people—but it must be remembered that the Tribune has a dozen editors, and that all that appeared in that paper was not from Mr Greeley's pen-in faci, no one pen could have produced all the articles. Mr. Greeley has written much that the South disapproved, but as it was his maest conviction, that toleration should be granted which all men ask for themseires when declaring opinions in opposition, stherwise it would be lyranny over mind-a tyransy as hateful as it is despotic.

National Democratic and Control y of the United States having made the Valuations for President and Vice Presiden of the United States, it le fncumbent on the party in Montgomery county to give the nomiees its most earnest and united support. The present contest we deem of no little m ment to the future well-being of our people and our country. The powers that he regard not the constitution and laws of our land, nor respect the rights and libertles of the people laxes, enerous and unwarranted, are wrung from the reomanry of our land to build up an aristocracy and support a large number of useless office-holders, and supply the deficien cles created by unjust and thieving public servants. Numerous offices of public trust are given to poworthy and dishonest men, who prostitute them to their own selfish ends and helr own personal aggrandizement. Under color of law our citizens are arrested and tried by courts constituted to do the bidding of those in power. Under the pretence of pre serving the peace of the land, laws obnoxiou to the people, calculated to destroy society and regardless of State rights, have been en acted; when, in truth, these laws are for the
