"The Crowning Transgression of the Campaign."

The Littsburg Chroniele, one of the most at dent supporters of Grant says in relation to the pardon of Yerkes and Marcer by Gor. Gears,

The crawning transgression of the cumpion has been committed. Charles T Yerkes has been committed. Charles T Yerkes has been committed. Charles T Yerkes has been committed on condition that he make certainful twits affecting the character of one of the candidates in the State election. Not a paper has decored that Yerkes was, properly contricted and sentenced. Not a man, not apper, had openly extenuated his guilt or suggested kny reason why he should be pardoned. Even be Democrata and Life eaths who referred to the man to impuge Hartranth, did not rough to the man to impuge Hartranth, did not rough for his character. Ther always spoke of him as a confederate in the crime. And now, not never of the election, his prison doors are thrown open, and this man is permitted to wask cut, that he may make affidavits which it is supposed may help elect John F Hartranth (Goverance of Fennsylvania. If this be not a shameless transaction, chaos is come again. It has no the slightest venering of decency about it. It is an insult to the people of the State, and one of such advantages politicisms abould realized at the most audicious politicisms had included.

To give the reader a clear idea of the enormity of this transaction we state the following facts | Several months ago one Marcer, late treasurer of Philadelphia, and Yerkes, a broker, (both Radicals of the lankest sort,) were tried and convicted of compliancy, embezzleto the renitentiary for a term of years.

came out that, Yerkes had been the broke of Hattranft, Auditor General, and Mackey. State Treasurer, in the purchase of stocks and other speculations, for which the public mone in his hands was used with their privity. Au tograph letters from these parties, the books of Yerkes, and his affiliarits established beyond the possibility of doubt that Hartranft and Hickey were even more criminal than Yerkes. They abused public trusts in order to enrich themselves, while he only served as a private instrument, and colluded with them for a share

And now these convicted felons are turned loose to testify in favor of Hartranft, the Grant candidate for Governor-to unswear what had been sworn to before. This action of the Governor of Pennsylvania has caused intense excitement throughout the State and shows t what desperate stralts the Radical party i drien to bolster up its sinking cause. It fore shadows the defeat of Hartranft and the election of Buckalew, the Liberal candidate.

The Washington Patriot says that on Thurs day, of last week, President Grant was in Philadelphia and held a long conference wit Cameron, Errett, chairman of the State Radi- place on Friday evening last, when the sermon Cameron. Errett, chairman of the State Radical Committee; District Attorney Swope, and others who have the management of the campaign. What occurred there we have no means of knowing. But Swope went the next morbing to Harrishurg and returned the same evening, with a pardon from Governor Geary for Farcer and Yerkes. All this was conducted with the utmost severey, and Yerkes was kindly offered to meet the children on Friday evening last, when the sermon page last, when the sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Baakit, from his cell to the Continental Hotel.

These are morements in the right direction, and we hope there public-spirited greatlemen will be amply repaid for any outlay they may make in advancing their own interest and the interest of our town and county. Let no one uppose that a railroad passing through the place will build up the town—other things are needed—energy, activity, pluck. You must build up a trade by inviting population, and don't drive population that would come away by asking exorbitant prices for lots from those who would uny—hold out inducements, and make it the interest of such to seek a residence among you. Population makes business, and trade will ever go where it is best encouraged. Much can be said on this subject, but we have not space at present.
