

The Federal Constitution! They who attempt to demolish the pillars of this temple should remember, in its fall their ruin is inevitable.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts. A speedy recovery, by the best and only means, of her wonted eminence and distinction in the Union.

Quiet repose to the "Sleeping Samsons of New-England," and perfect security to the few harmless locks which are yet unshorn by the savvy Philistines.

The American Navy. Equal rights to all nations on the surface of the ocean, and the bottom of it to those who would usurp its entire dominion!

The American Army. Arrayed to protect by their valor in the field the victories acquired by wisdom in the cabinet.

The Federal Judiciary; may the sanctuary of justice never be outraged by the oppressor's wrongs, or the madman's prophanity!

Congress. Patriotic in principle, wise in deliberation, irresistible in decision!

Our fellow-citizens the American seamen, natives or adopted; volunteers not slaves.

Eliz's Amendments.—Let us listen to the prophetic admonitions of Washington, and indignantly frown on this first dawning of an attempt to alienate one portion of our country from the rest.

GENERAL TICKET OUT-GENERAL-ED, or the Managers Managed in the Electoral Lottery.

The proscribed Patriots of '75, who broke the chains which were forged for their country and hurled them at their tyrants.

VOLUNTEERS. By Dr. EUSTIS.—Maddison, Gallatin, Dearborn, Smith; honor, honesty, justice and integrity.

By Dr. JARVIS.—Perish the dastard that will not support his friend: Our sister State Virginia will never desert this State on a single revolutionary question.

By B. AUSTIN, jr. esq.—Democracy, accurately defined, and virtuously practised.

By G. BLAKE, esq.—The body politic; nourished and strengthened by wholesome correctives, but uncontaminated by the poisons of quacks and impostors.

By JAMES PRINCE, esq.—The federal plot lately contrived to blow up the Republicans on the 5th of November; may it prove as disastrous to them as the powder plot did to the Roman Catholics.

By Major BRAZIER.—"Old South"; may the principle of Equal Rights, so energetically supported by that consistent Republican be held in everlasting remembrance.

By Colonel GARDNER.—The Militia of Massachusetts; they were the first to assert their rights, may they be the last to abandon them!

The following is an extract of a letter from an American gentleman at Lisbon, to a gentleman in this city, which we transcribed from the original on Saturday.

Extract, dated Lisbon, May 24, 1804. "Every thing looks gloomy in Europe; Old England seems going down hill as fast as possible, while France seems rising every day in point of respectability. The first consul has been elected emperor of the Gauls, king of Italy, and protector of the Helvetian and Batavian republics. Pitt will be again prime minister of England; you may depend there will very soon be a war between that country and Spain, and it is probable also this country may be implicated. Pitt says to have a general peace there must first be a general war."

[Author's.]

COMMUNICATION. A deep plot is hatching in the dark recesses of villainy to destroy our union. Is there not too much reason for believing that there are men engaged in it, yet deemed, by many, to be firm republicans—the most dangerous of all the projectors of mischief. They are enemies to the principle of universal suffrage, and of consequence to the honor and dignity of Americans. Could the meditated separation be effected, it would be the most horrid exploit of wickedness the powers of darkness could achieve. None, but beings, resembling Demons, can seriously contemplate without horror, the dissolution of a union established in consummate wisdom, the glory of America, and our only security against foreign and internal enemies.—Citizens be on your guard—be watchful—for your rights—for your honourable, your necessary union, the destruction of which would forever disgrace your name, render you obnoxious to the displeasure of that Heavenly power which inspired your Councils, when you established it, and which tells you your security, and happiness depends upon its continuance. United we stand—divided we fall—and O how dreadful, how ruinous—how disgraceful would be such an apostasy from principle, from duty to ourselves and posterity, to God, to mankind.

[N. H. Gas.]

Departed this transitory life suddenly, yesterday afternoon, Mr. GEORGE MCCLASKEY. He was somewhat indisposed on Monday; nevertheless not so much as to prevent his attendance yesterday morning at the Office of Discount and Deposit, in which he was employed. His complaint was termed a spasm of the breast, which immediately deprived him of his reason, and terminated his existence in a very short period. He sustained an unimpeachable character—he was a friend to the widow and the orphan, and never knew of human affliction without giving it consoling aid.

"Mark it, Oh Man! and remember that even in life we are in the midst of death."

Died, at New-Ipswich, the 24th ult. Mr. Enos Knight, aged 74 years, in a very sudden and alarming manner. He rose in the morning in usual health and manifested no symptoms of approaching death, till about half an hour after 12 o'clock, when he walked out at his door, and in a few minutes returned, when it was perceived by one present there was an alteration in his appearance; he just said, I believe I am dying, turned to go into another room, fell upon the floor, and instantly expired.
