Just Published,
And for sale, by Messrs. Warner & Hanna, and Mr. Samuel Butler,
PENDLETON'S MEDICAL ALPHABET.
This is a concise view of the fundamental principles of the Medical science, in which the inconveniences, noticed by opponents to the popular system, are explained away by a judicious modification of the theory. The morals of Dr.
Darwin and Dr. Brown, author of Elements Medicinae are frequently mentioned, and sometimes opposed; but it is presumed, that however the opinions of Dr. P. may be appreciated by the Medical world, the genius and ingenuity displayed in his little pamphlet, cannot fail to command their admiration.

To the Voters of the city and county of Baltimore.
HAVING been encouraged by many of my friends in the city and county, to offer myself as a candidate to be put in nomination for the office of SHERIFF, at the ensuing election, I hope I will not be deemed improper thus early to signify my intention, and to solicit the patronage of my friends generally, and the voters of the city and county at large.
Those who have not a personal knowledge of me, will, on enquiry, find that I have been bred to business, and have been conversant in mercantile transactions from early life—Should my fellow citizens think proper, at the expiration of the time of the present sheriff, to bestow on me the office, I trust my conduct therein will be such as will give satisfaction, if a diligent attention and a faithful discharge of the duties thereof, are capable of doing the same.

Corner of Baltimore and Frederick streets,
