

Victor appears in the Gazette of last evening, and as heretofore, his foul production proves, that folly, passion and malignant prejudice, have completely usurped the empire of reason, justice and common sense.

A particular account of the capture of the British sloop of war, Lily, by the French privateer La Dame Amberg, will be found, under the Norfolk head, in this day's American.

Meetings have been held in Albany, by the gentlemen of the bar, by the common council of the city, and by the military association, at all of which meetings votes were passed that the members wear crapes for 6 weeks, in testimony of their grief for the death of General Hamilton.

A publication having appeared in some of the Kentucky papers, with a view to divide the republican interest in the election of a vice president of the United States, by introducing the name of Mr. BRECKENRIDGE as a candidate, that gentleman in a manner that does him honor, has come forward in the Palladium published at Frankfort with the following article.

To the Editor of the Palladium. Certain anonymous publications which have lately appeared in the public papers of this State, having called the attention of the electors towards me as a candidate for the office of vice president of the United States; I have thought it incumbent on me publicly and explicitly to declare that I disclaim every such pretension; and I do respectfully request, that the electors into whose hands any of these publications may fall, to consider this as an utter refusal on my part to be placed on the list of those to be voted for, for that high office.

JOHN BRECKENRIDGE.

The printers who have published any of the pieces above alluded to will be pleased to give this a place also.

The king of Denmark has made an addition to the sum destined for the purchase of new works for the great royal library, of 1500 dollars, so that the sum now annually devoted to this purpose is 4500 dollars.

FROM THE MEDITERRANEAN. Extract of a letter from Mr. Andrew Bicknap, of Boston, dated Marseilles, May 1, 1864.

"The report of a war with Tunis is not yet absolutely confirmed. We understand that Commodore Preble has been in the harbor of Tunis with his squadron, to demand of the bey his reasons for fitting out a number of vessels of war; but there is no certainty that war is declared.

"P. S. An arrival from Syracuse, brings intelligence, that the noise of war with Tunis had subsided."

The following article on the same subject has been extracted from a letter to a gentleman in this city, dated GIBRALTAR, May 30.

"We are sorry to advise you that there is great reason to believe the boy of Tunis has declared war against America. He has several cruizers at Malta and was busy at Tunis fitting out others. We are anxiously expecting the reinforcement that has been ordered here by congress, which will be perfectly sufficient to keep them from doing much mischief."

M. Chevalier, formerly merchant at Port au Prince, and a French gentleman, with dispatches from the Commandant at the city of St. Domingo, to M. Pichon, came passengers in the Louisa, captain Clark, arrived at the Lazaretto.

[Phil. paper.]

As some gentlemen were amusing themselves, on Monday afternoon, on Long Island, in firing at a mark, the pistol of one, while in the act of raising it, went off, and lodged the ball in his foot. The accident is rendered singular from the ball entering into the foot near an inch and an half, and the stocking which was of silk, not being in the smallest degree fractured.

THOMAS JEFFERSON.

President of the United States of America, TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

THE CITIZEN ARCANBAL having produced to me his commission as commissary of commercial relations of the French republic at Baltimore, I do hereby recognize him as such, and declare him free to exercise such functions, powers and privileges as are allowed to similar agents of the most favored nations.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have caused these letters to be made patent and the seal of the United States to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand at the City of Washington, on the twenty-third day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and four, and of the independence of the United States of America the twenty-eight.

TH: JEFFERSON.

By the president, JAMES MADISON, Secretary of State

Mediterranean Passports.

Notice is hereby given, that it has been deemed expedient to change the form of the Mediterranean Passport issued to vessels of the United States; that from the eighth day of July next; those of the new form will be issued at the custom houses to every vessel, for which application may be made on a compliance with the terms prescribed by law and surrendering the former passport of which she may be possessed, if any, in which latter case no fees will be required for the exchange; and that by an arrangement agreed upon by the Barbary powers, with whom we are at peace, either the old or the new form of passport will be sufficient to protect the vessels of the United States, from capture until the 1st of July 1805, after which the old form of passport will be unavailable and the new one alone in use.
