Warm, Cold and Shower Baths,

Back of the Gurt-bouse, and near the foot-bridge. THE subscriber returns his grateful acknow-L ledgements to his Gier ds and the public in general, for the prompt support that he received the last season; and takes this method of informing them. that his Baths are supplied with the most wholesome spring water that Chapel hill can afford, which water is brought many hundred vards through bored pipes. In addition to his last year's improvements, he has made the following, to wit -six warm baths, one plunging and one shower bath, and one rese voir, to contain 11 800 gallens. These, with the former, will enable him to give more general satisfaction to his friends and patrons He also feels it his duty to inform the debilitated class of manki d, that, with the advice of the phys cian, the effects of these baths, and the help of Providence, he has effected the f llowing cures, to wit—the rheumatism, cramp of the stomach, weakness of the nerves, paipitation of the heart, choice of the worst nature, croptions of the si in, colds, &z.
