TATHEREAS, by a decree of the iligh Court of Chancery of that part of Great Britain called England, made in a certain cause, wherein Sophia Couch is the plaintiff, and Henry Custon Atkinson is the defendant, it was referred to John Oid, Esqr. one of the masters of the said Court, to enquire whether CHARLES Couch named in the will of Charles Couch the Elder, late of Cow une, Smithfield, London, Cordwainer, was living or dead; and, if dead, when he died. The saul Charles Couch; therefore, if living, is peremptorily, either by himself person ally, or by his solicitor, to appear before the said master, at his Chambers in South Hampton Huildings, Chancery lane, London, on or before the sixth ay of November, One Thousand Light Hundred and Four, and prove his indentity; or, in default thereof, he will be excluded the benefit of the said decree; but, in case of his death, any person who can give information to the said master as to the time and place of his decease, is requested so to do. It appears that the said Charles Couch formerly lived in Cow lane afteresaid; and about the year 1786 went to America where he carried on the business of a shoemaker at Baltimore, and at Havre-de-Grace in the province of Maryland, North America: and is supposed to have died in the Alms House at Baitimore in the month of August, 1796 August 20
