WHEREAS, by a decree of the High Court of Chancery of that part of Great Britain called England, made in a certain cause, where the said Charles Gordon is the plaintiff, and Henry Couche is the defendant, it was referred to John Otho Reay, one of the masters of the said Court, to enquire whether CHARLES COUCH, named in the will of Charles Couch the Elder, late of Cow Lane, Smithfield, London, Cordwainer, was living or dead; and, if dead, when he died. The said Charles Couch, therefore, if living, is peremptorily called by himself personally, or by his solicitor, to appear before the said master, at his Chambers in South Hampton Buildings, Chancery Lane, London, on or before the sixth day of August next, at Ten o'clock, to show cause why he should not be admitted to the benefit of the said decree; in the case of his death, any person who can give information to the said master as to the time and place of his decease, is requested so to do. It appears that the said Charles Couch formerly lived in Cow Lane at America; and that in the year 1786 he went to America where he carried on the business of a shoemaker in Baltimore, and at New York, &c. in the Province of Maryland, North America; and is supposed to have died in the Arms House at Baltimore in the month of August, 1796.

 Ecole Francaise.
 NOTICE is hereby given, That I, the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French and English Languages, intend to open the French School, in my common dwelling, on the 26th instant; and if 43 years experience in giving tuition in this line, in different parts of the United States, will success, are not sufficient to entitle me to a share of encouragement, I beg those promising youths, who have a desire to become scholars, to apply to friend Philip Thomas, at the sign of the golden key, Baltimore-street, where they can be acquainted with my short, yet grammatical manner of teaching.
 AS I can devote some leisure hours in the day time, to the instruction of a few scholars, I should be happy to make an engagement.
 JOSEPH PAILLOTTET,
 South Charles-street.

VENEREAL COMPLAINTS.
 AS Dr. WARNER'S practice has been very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine vended or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with care and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents removed in the shortest possible space of time.
 As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.
 Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicine so prepared that a safe, effectual and expeditious cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.
 N. B. Dr. Warner has removed from Bond-street, to Cumberland Row, No. 64, below the Marsh-market.

This Day Published,
 By SAMUEL BUTLER, At the corner of Market & Calvert-streets, Price 1 dollar bound by a day of letters, Ferdinand & Elmira.
 Printed from the original manuscript of an American lady author, "Dorval, Julia and the Baron," &c. &c. &c.
 The writer of this interesting and amusing work has herself justified the opinions of her pen in New England, and there (where the rights of fancy, as it is called by the rigid blusters of the north, are not withheld by that friendly welcome which they experience in the more genial climate of the south and mid states) commanded that applause, which genius and fancy never fail of producing on those liberal and candid minds who will take the trouble to discriminate between the ordinary day-labor of the common English novelist, who writes for a living, he same as any other mechanic, and has no other end in view than to bring forth a fashionable piece of goods, that will serve the moment and remunerate himself; and the lady of refined sentiment and correct taste, who writes for the amusement of herself, her friends and the public. It contains upwards of three hundred pages, is well printed on a new type and fine paper.
 Also just published as above, INTERESTING ANECDOTES OF THE HEROIC CONDUCT OF WOMEN, Previous to, and during the French revolution; translated from the French of M. Du Broca, and other modern writers of authority.
 When it is considered that this work records some of the most shining virtues of human nature, such as constancy, firmness, courage, affection, tenderness, love and patriotism, as well as superior good sense and judgment, which have been exhibited by females, and shews that the Fair Sex, when exigency requires, are by no means inferior in these virtues, and in several of them superior to what in like cases would be expected from the boasted lords of the creation—it is reasonable to expect, that almost every lady of information will be happy in purchasing a book so well calculated to defend the cause of beauty, when attacked by petulance or arrogance.
 The present edition is enlarged by additional selections of about one third more than the London translation of Du Broca's Anecdotes, and is printed on a fine cream colored paper, and sells at only one half the price of the London copy.
 In the press, and with all convenient speed will be published the second volume of the Baltimore Musical Miscellany, consisting of new and approved songs set to music.

TO Merchants & owners of Vessels GENERALLY.
 AN Association having been formed by a number of master Ship-Carpenters, under the denomination of "The Baltimore Shipwrights," for the purpose of executing in the most expeditious and workmanlike manner any commands in the said line of business—they hereby solicit a share of public patronage, and inform that JAMES CONNERY, their president, and JAMES WHEELEN and WILLIAM DRUMMOND, superintendants, on Fell's Point, are prepared to receive all orders which merchants, captains or others may favor them with. They will for the present conduct their business, on the wharf occupied by J. Wheeden, adjoining Mr. Jno. Hollins's wharf, where they will always be provided with spare Spars and other gut-fits, to furnish at the shortest notice and on the most moderate terms.
 It is deemed expedient to notice, that all the persons forming this association are masters of their business, and as they intend themselves, principally, to give their personal application in executing work for their employers, it is fondly hoped, that on this score they will claim a preference from those who make it a point to have things done in a masterly manner.
 M. H. they have now on hand, a sufficient quantity of well seasoned stuff for the building of several vessels.
