This Day Published,

BY SAMUEL BUTLER,

At the corner of Market and Charles-streets,

Price 1 dollar neatly bound and lettered,

Ferdinand & Elmira.

Printed from the original manuscript of an American lady, author of 'Derval,' 'Julia and the Baron,' and 'Amelia.'

The writer of this instructive and amusing work, has hereto fore published the effusions of her pen in New England, and there (where the flights of fancy, as if chilled by the frigid blasts of the north, are not received with that friendly welcome which they experience in the more genial climate of the south and middle states) commanded that applause, which genius and fancy never fail of procuring on those liberal and candid minds who will take the trouble to discriminate between the ordinary day-labor of the common English novelist, who works for a living the same as any other mechanic, and has no other end in view than to bring forth a fashionable piece of goods, that will serve the moment and remunerate himself; and the lady of refined sentiment and correct taste, who writes for the amusement of herself, her friends and the public.

It contains upwards of three hundred pages, is well printed on a new type and fine paper.

Also, just published as above,

INTERESTING ANECDOTES OF THE

Heroic conduct of Women,

Previous to, and during the French revolution: translated from the French of M. Du Broca, and other modern writers of authenticity.

When it is considered that this work records some of the most shining virtues of human nature, such as constancy, fortitude courage, affection, tenderness, love and patriotism, as well as superior good sense and judgment, which have been exhibited by females, and shews that the Fair Sex, when exigency requires, are by no means inferior in these virtues, and in several of them superior to what in like cases would be expected from the boasted lords of the creation—it is reasonable to expect, that almost every lady of information will be happy in purchasing a book so well calculated to defend the cause of beauty, when attacked by petulance or arrogance.

The present edition is enlarged by additional selections of about one-third more than the London translation of Du Broca's Anecdotes, and is printed on a fine cream colored paper, and still sells at only one half the price of the London copy.

In the press, and with all convenient speed will be published, the second vol. of the Baltimore Musical Miscellany, consisting of new and approved songs set to music.

THE Managers of this Lottery flatter themselves, from the elevated and healthy situation chosen by the Commissioners appointed for erecting the Market house, that it will be of the greatest utility and advantage, to the part of the city, and to the country in general, and beg leave to recommend it as an object worthy of their encouragement.

As the above scheme offers every possible encouragement to adventurers, from the many valuable Prizes it contains, and there being considerably less than two Blanks to a Prize, and all Prizes payable in 60 days after the drawing of the Lottery is compleated without any deduction, the Managers entertain the greatest hopes of such a speedy sale of the Tickets, as may enable them to commence drawing without loss of time.

Such Prizes as shall not be demanded within six months after the drawing is finished, will be considered as relinquished for the benefit of the Market-house.

For the satisfaction of the public, it may not be unnecessary to inform them, that the Managers have given bond to the State of Maryland in the sum of 30,000 dollars, for the due performance of the trust.
