CALICOES, Furniture, &c., &c., &c., Pocket-handkerchiefs, printed and sold by the subscribers, at No. 13, Calvert-street.
To remove a distant expense, and in new under takings, and oftener paid off to me, for purchasing attempts in my trade, they think it proper to observe, that nothing material is wanted in the business, to entice artists to put in the work here, as well as in Europe. That the have these artifices, that two of the partners were bred to the business in a factory of the best repute, carried on by their father, and living afterwards by themselves. They trust that while foreign goods are received without a question, an unreasonable suspicion will not prevent their countrymen from giving an equal trial to such as are wrought among themselves—beside natural doubt, there is no fear, that certain interests, national, as well as individual, may suggest objections to their undertaking—it is necessary therefore to say, that work of the like kind, shall be as well executed here, as by foreign hands abroad. The colors capable of being fixed will be found as permanent, the cloths perhaps of better substance, and the prices lower than of the imported cloths.

The customary credit will be given on good notes or acceptances in the city.
