AN ACT, Supplementary to the act, entitled "An act relative to the election of a President and Vice President of the United States, and declaring the officer who shall act as President, in case of vacancies in the offices both of President and Vice President."

Be it enacted, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That whenever the amendment proposed during the present session of Congress to the constitution of the United States, respecting the manner of voting for President and Vice President of the United States, shall have been ratified by the legislatures of three fourths of the several states, the secretary of state shall forthwith cause a notification thereof to be made to the executive of every state, and also cause the same to be published in at least one of the newspapers printed in each state, in which the laws of the United States are annually published.—The executive authority of each state shall cause a transcript of the said notification to be delivered to the electors appointed for that purpose, who shall first thereafter meet in such state to elect a President and Vice President of the United States; and whenever the said electors shall have received the said transcript of notification, or whenever they shall meet more than five days subsequent to the publication of the ratification of the above mentioned amendment, in one of the newspapers of the state, by the secretary of state, they shall vote for President and Vice President of the United States, respectively in the manner directed by the above mentioned amendment, and having made and signed three certificates of all the votes given by them, each of which certificates shall contain two distinct lists, one of the votes given for President, and the other, of the votes given for Vice President: they shall seal up the said certificates, certifying on each, that lists of all the votes of such state given for President, and of all the votes given for Vice President, is contained therein, and shall cause the said certificates to be transmitted and disposed of, and in every other respect act in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement. And every other provision of the act to which this is a supplement, and which is not virtually repealed by this act, shall extend and apply to every election of a President and Vice President of the United States, made in conformity to the above mentioned amendment to the constitution of the United States.

And whereas, the above mentioned amendment may be ratified by the legislatures of three fourths of the states, and thereupon become immediately valid, to all intents and purposes, as part of the constitution, on a day so near the day fixed by law for the meeting of the electors in the several states, that the electors shall not in every state be apprised of the said ratification, and may vote in a manner no longer conformable with the constitution, as amended, whereby several states might be deprived of their vote in the election of President and Vice President; to remedy whereof,

Sec 2. Be it further enacted, That the electors who shall be appointed in each state for the election of a President and

Vice President of the United States, shall at every such election, unless they shall have received a transcript of the notification of the ratification of the above mentioned amendment to the constitution, or unless they shall meet more than five days subsequent to the publication of the said ratification by the Secretary of State, in one of the newspapers of the state, vote for President and Vice President of the United States, in the following manner, that is to say: they shall vote for two persons as President and Vice President, in conformity with the first section of the second article of the constitution. And in other respects act in conformity with the provisions of the act to which this act is a supplement; and they shall likewise vote for one person as President, and for one person as Vice President, in conformity with the above mentioned amendment of the constitution; and in other respects act in conformity with the provisions of the first section of this act. But these certificates only, of votes given for President and Vice President of the United States, shall be opened by the President of the Senate, for the purpose of being counted which shall contain the list or lists of votes given in conformity with the constitution, as in force on the day fixed by law for the meeting of the electors, by whom the said votes shall have been given.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That whenever, by the provisions of the second section of this act, it shall be the duty of the electors for any state, to vote in conformity both with the constitution, and of the proposed amendment thereto, the executive authority of such state shall cause six lists of the names of the electors of the state to be made and certified, and to be delivered to the said electors on or before the day fixed by law for them to meet and vote for President and Vice President, and the said electors shall enclose one of the said lists in each of the certificates by them made and sealed, in conformity to the provisions of this act, and of the act to which this is a supplement.

French Night School—

NOTICE is hereby given, That I, the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French and English Languages, intend to open the FRENCH SCHOOL, in my common dwelling, on the 26th instant; and if 43 years experience, in giving tuition in this line, in different parts of the United States, with success, are not sufficient to entitle me to a share of encouragement, I beg those promising youths, who have a desire to become scholars, to apply to friend Philip Thomas, at the sign of the golden key, Baltimore-street, where they can be acquainted with my short, yet grammatical manner of Teaching. AS I can devote some leisure hours in the day time, to the instruction of a few scholars, I should be happy to make an engagement. JOSEPH PAILLOTTET, South Charles-street. January 10

Dancing Academy.

L. D. Du Coudray HAS the honor of informing the Ladies and gentlemen of this city that he will open his Dancing Academy on Monday the 1st of October, in the three story brick house, corner of Calvert and Bank-streets.

The days and hours of tuition are as follow, on Monday, Wednesday and Fridays, viz: For gentlemen, from 10 till 1 o'clock in the morning; for younger persons, of both sexes, from 4 till half past 6 in the evening; for grown gentlemen, from half past 6, till 9.

With a most complete selection of the hand-some Cotillons, and a great variety of the newest steps, many of which have never been taught in this city. Mr. D. will also teach (to those persons who may have a wish to perfect themselves in that branch of polite education) the Manoeuvres de la Gaiter, together with the beautiful Gaiter, both of which are so well calculated to display in a young person all the ease, the grace and the elegance of Dancing.

Mr. D. displays a delicate method of teaching, as well as his undivided attention towards his pupils, being sufficiently acknowledged, he begs leave to dispense with saying any further on that head.—And again, as preserving carefully the parents' confidence, and deserving with a laudable ambition, the honorable patronage of a gentleman, should be the most important object of every rational teacher; he thinks it also perfectly useless to add to his most respectful advertisement, any vain and empty, though customary, promises.

His terms are those of the most respectable teachers in the city—but complying with the reasonable request, as a well grounded expectation of many intending to become his pupils, Mr. D. will charge no ENTRANCE MONEY to such as may already have been taught by any master in the city whose method is similar to his.

A few Ladies may be attended at their own houses, if immediate application should be made. For further particulars, apply to Mr. D. at Mrs. Kirby's, corner of Calvert and Water-streets. According to new arrangements his school on Fell's Point, will not open until Tuesday the 23d of October, at 5 o'clock, in the afternoon, and it will be kept every other day. September 15

This Day Published,

By SAMUEL BUTLER, At the corner of Market and Charles-streets, Price 1 dollar neatly bound and lettered, Ferdinand & Elmira.

Printed from the original manuscript of an American lady, author of "Dorval," "Julia and the Baron," and "Amelia."

The writer of this instructive and amusing work, has heretofore published the "Effusions of her pen in New England, and there (where the flights of fancy, as if filled by the bright blasts of the north, are not received with that friendly welcome which they experience in the more genial climate of the south and middle states) commanded that applause, which genius and fancy never fail of producing on those liberal and candid minds who will take the trouble to discriminate between the ordinary day-labor of the common English novelist, who works for a living the same as in any other mechanic, and has no other end in view than to bring forth a fashionable piece of goods, that will serve the moment and remunerate himself; and the lady of refined sentiment and correct taste, who writes for the amusement of herself, her friends and the public. It contains upwards of three hundred pages, is well printed on a new type and fine paper.

Heroic conduct of Women,

Previous to, and during the French revolution, translated from the French of M. Du Broca, and other modern writers of authenticity. When it is considered that this work records some of the most shining virtues of human nature, such as constancy, fortitude, courage, affection, tenderness, love and patriotism, as well as superior good sense and judgment, which have been exhibited by females, and snuffs that the Fair Sex, when exigency requires, are by no means inferior in these virtues, and in several of them superior to what in like cases would be expected from the boasted lords of the creation—it is reasonable to expect, that almost every lady of information will be happy in purchasing a book so well calculated to defend the cause of beauty, when attacked by petulance or arrogance.

The present edition is enlarged by additional selections of about one-third more than the London translation of Du Broca's Anecdotes, and is printed on a fine cream colored paper, and still sells at only one half the price of the London copy.

In the press, and with all convenient speed will be published, the second vol. of the more Musical Miscellany, consisting of recommended songs set to music. AUGUST 7
