And whereas, the above mentioned amendment may be ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the states, and thereupon become immediately valid, to all intents and purposes, as part of the constitution, on a day so near the day fixed by law for the meeting of the electors in the several states, that the electors shall not in every state be apprized of the said ratification, and may vote in a manner no longer conformable with the constitution, as amended, whereby several states might be deprived of their vote in the election of President and Vice-President; for remedy whereof,

French Night School—

Ecole Francoise. NOTICE is hereby given, That I, the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French and English Languages, intend to open the FRENCH SCHOOL, in my common dwelling, on the 26th instant; and if 43 years experience, in giving tuition in this line, in different parts of the United States, with success, are not sufficient to entitle me to a share of encouragement, I beg those promising youths, who have a desire to become scholars, to apply to friend Philip Thomas, at the sign of the golden key, Baltimore-street, where they can be acquainted with my short, yet grammatical manner of Teaching.

AS I can devote some leisure hours in the day-time, to the instruction of a few scholars, I should be happy to make an engagement. JOSEPH PAILLOTTET, South Charles-street. January 12.

Dancing Academy.

L. D. Du Coudray HAS the honor of informing the ladies and gentlemen of this city that he will open his Dancing Academy on Monday the 1st of October, in the three story brick house, corner of Calvert and Bank-streets.

The days and hours of tuition are as follow, on Monday, Wednesday and Fridays, viz. For young ladies, from 10 till 1 o'clock in the morning; for younger persons, of both sexes, from 4 till half past 6 in the evening; for grown gentlemen, from half past 6 o'clock till 9.

With a most complete selection of the hand-comest Costumes, and a great variety of the newest steps, many of which have never been taught in this city. Mr. D. will also teach (to those persons who may have a wish to perfect themselves in that branch of polite education) the Minuet de la Cour, together with the beautiful Gavotte, both of which are so well calculated to display in a young person all the ease, the graces and the elegance of Dancing.

Mr. D's plain and easy method of teaching, as well as his indefatigable attention towards his pupils, being sufficiently acknowledged, he begs leave to dispense with saying any further on that head.—And again, as preserving carefully the parents' confidence, and deserving with a laudable ambition, the honorable patronage of a grateful public, should be the most important object of every rational teacher; he thinks it also perfectly useless to add to his most respectful advertisement vain and empty, though customary, promises.

His terms are those of the most respectable teachers in the city—but complying with the reasonable requests, and well grounded expectations of many intending to become his pupils, Mr. D. will charge NO EXTRA MONEY to such as may already have been taught by any master in the city whose method is similar to his. A few ladies may be attended at their own houses, if immediate application should be made. For further particulars, apply to Mr. D. at Mrs. Kirby's, corner of Calvert and Water-streets.

According to new arrangements his School on Fell's Point, will not open until Tuesday the 2d of October, at 5 o'clock, in the afternoon, and it will be kept every other day. September 25
