Merchants & owners of Vessels GENBRALLY:

A N Association having been formed by a 12 number of master Ship-Carpenters, under the denomination of " The Baitimore Ship-Wrights;" for the purpose of executing in the most expeditious and workmanlike manner any commands in the said line of business—they hereby solicit a share of public patronage, and inform that James Convery, their president, and lames Wherden and William Daum. MOND, superintendante, on Fell's l'oint, are prepared to receive all orders which merchants, captains or others may favor them with. They will for the present conduct their business, on the wharf occupied by J. Wheeden, adjoining Mr. Ino. Hollins's wharf, where they will always be provided with spare Spars and other out-fits, to furnish at the shortest notice and on the most moderate terms.

It is deemed expedient to notice, that all the persons formit g this association are masters of their husiness, and as they intend themselves, principally, to give their personal application in executing work for their employers, it is fondly hoped, that on this score they will claim a preference from those who make it an object to have things done in a marterly manner.

N. B. They have now on hand, a sufficiency of well seasoned stuff for the building of severa esself.
