BALTIMORE MONDAY, October 3, 1864.

A piece signed "H," shall appear to-morrow. We shall to-morrow apply "A REPUBLICAN SWITCH" to "A VOTER," from Harford, published in Friday's Gazette.

Our election is over, and we are sorry to see, for the information of the friends of liberty, peace, economy, and equal rights, that we have no hopes of a favorable issue. No official information has yet reached us.

MEDAL AWARDED.

Extract from the Minutes of the Philadelphia Company of Booksellers, September 1864.

On Motion Resolved. That the Gold Medal offered by the Philadelphia Company of Booksellers, for the greatest quantity of Printing Paper, not less than ten reams, manufactured of other materials, that linen, cotton, or woollen rags, be awarded to Mr. Wm. Young, of the Delaware Paper Mills, for eleven reams of excellent Printing Paper, manufactured from American Mulberry Roots & Bugs made of Guma Bark.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this company, Wm. Young deserves public patronage for the very laudable exertions he has used in discovering substitutes for the articles usually employed in the manufacture of Paper and for the very great variety of Papers he has produced, manufactured from articles not hitherto generally used for that purpose.

Signed, MATHEW CAPEY, President. ATTEST, Wm. BRADFORD, Secy.

HUMOR.

SHEEP STEALING.—The following is related as a fact, as having actually happened some years since in the state of Connecticut. A man in rather indifferent circumstances, surrounded by a large family, being entirely out of meat, had recourse to his neighbor's (a wealthy farmer) sheepfold for relief. The neighbor having a large flock of sheep, did not perceive he had lost any until one of the finest in the flock, very fat, was missing—and counting his sheep, found he had lost several. Unable to account for his extraordinary loss, he resolved a few nights after to watch. About midnight he observed an uncommon disturbance among the sheep, by the sudden appearance of a man dressed in disguise. Curiosity, as well to observe the conduct of the person as to find him out, induced him to lie still. In the flock there was a large ram, with whom, it seems, the man was in the habit of conversing as if he had been the actual owner of the sheep.—"Well, Mr. Ram," says the nocturnal sheep-stealer, "I am come to buy another sheep, have you any more to sell?" Upon which he replied himself, as in the person of the ram, "Yes, I have sheep to sell." By this time the owner of the sheep perceived what to be one of his neighbors.—"What will you take for that large fat wether?" says the purchaser.

"Four dollars," replies Mr. RAM. "That is a high price," says the man; "but as you are so good as to wait on me for the pay, think I will take him."—"Well, Mr. RAM," continues the honest sheep-buyer, "let us see how many sheep I have bought of you."—"If I am not mistaken," says Mr. RAM, "this makes the fifth;" and went on to cast up the amount of the whole; and after giving Mr. RAM a polite invitation to call upon him for his pay, and bidding him a good night, took the wether and led him home, while the owner lay laughing at the novelty of the scene, as highly gratified as if he had received the ample pay for the whole. A few nights afterwards, when he suppressed his neighbor was out of mutton, he caught the old ram, tied a small bag under his neck, and placed a piece of paper between his horns, on which he wrote in large letters, "I HAVE COME AFTER MY PAY."—Under this line he fastened up the amount of the five sheep exactly as the neighbor had done, as before related; he then took the ram to the neighbor's house, where he tied him near his door and then went home. When the neighbor arose in the morning, he was not a little surprised, to find a sheep tied to his own door; but it is beyond words to express his astonishment when he found it was the old ram with whom he had lately been dealing so much in mutton, with his errand on his forehead, and the amount of the five sheep accurately made out, as he had done a few nights before in the person of the ram. Suffice it to say, he obtained the money, and after trying it up nicely in a little bag, and tearing the paper from his horns, set the ram at liberty, who immediately ran home, jingling his money as if proud of having accomplished the object of his errand—to the no small gratification of the owner.

BEN JONSON, says, "Princes learn no art truly but that of horsemanship; the reason is, the brave heart is no flatterer; he will throw a prince as soon as his groom." The adulation which princes receive in all countries, from their infancy, is certainly ill calculated to make them fit rulers of mankind. To those in the habit of attending a court, this is perfectly well known; to the friends of hereditary monarchy in this country, the following passage from Fabian's Chronicle, may afford at once information and amusement. Henry the Sixth, when eight months old, sat in his mother's lap, in the parliament chamber; the speaker made a famous proposition in which he said much of the Providence of God, who had endowed the realm with so toward a prince and sovereign governor.

Married, last evening, by the Rev. Mr. Kurtz, Mr. HENRY HOVER, to Miss ELEANOR BREDEY, all of this city.

Died, on Saturday morning last, Mr. DAVID NEILSON, in the 18th year of his age—amiable in his manners; uniformly correct and virtuous in his conduct;—even at that early age he was a pattern for youth, and esteemed by all who knew him. Scarcely one short week has elapsed since he was in the full bloom of life and health, the delight of a fond parent and of a circle of relatives, who loved him with unbounded affection;—a few days of severe illness has snatched him from them to an early tomb. Dear departed shade of lovely and virtuous youth, accept this small tribute of respect for thy worth and excellence from one "Who loved thee living and laments thee dead."

On Friday evening the remains of the reverend Mr. MICHAEL CUDDY, Priest of the Roman Catholic church, were deposited, according to his request when living, in their subterranean mansion, before the threshold of the principal entry of St. Patrick's Church, F. L. Point. The awful ceremony was rendered extremely affecting, by the universal and bitter lamentations of the numerous congregation, to the care of which he had been appointed not more than eighteen months ago, and in which, during that short period, by his exemplary life, his assiduous labors, and with the blessing of God, he had diffused a spirit of religion and christian piety, visible to all who could witness their respectful veneration during divine service, and the effects produced on his hearers by his useful instructions. These were fair promises of his future usefulness; but it has pleased the Wise Disposer of all events to frustrate our expectations, and admit him, as we humbly hope and believe, to the reward of the labors he had already performed for the honor of his Lord & Master.—He died on Friday, the 5th, in the 2d year of his priesthood and appointment to his charge, and about the 29th of his age.

Died, on Saturday morning, after a short illness of four days, Mr. JAMES KINKRAD, in the 22d year of his age, son of — Kinkrad, of Elkton, Maryland.

It is the wish of the editor of the NATIONAL INTELLIGENCER to engage an individual well qualified to REPORT THE DEBATES OF CONGRESS. Immediate application, with the terms that will be agreeable, is requested.

The voters of the Third District are informed that Mr. Edward Johnson, of the city of Baltimore, and Mr. John Johnson, of the city of Annapolis, will serve as electors of president and vice-president, if elected by their suffrages. Perhaps it may be necessary to remark, that both these gentlemen are firm and avowed advocates of the present administration, and as such will no doubt be supported by the republican voice.

Notice to the Public. THE great utility and convenience in the present mode of carrying the dead in a hearse, has been witnessed by the citizens of Baltimore; and the subscriber, in order to give more general satisfaction, will in a few days have one of the construction of those in Europe, which will be much less expensive than the one he now has in use. With the Hearse can be had, at any time, any number of carriages that may be wanted for a funeral, by applying at No. 39, north Gay-street, or No. 64, north Harrison-street, to the Public's most obedient humble servant, WILLIAM HARVIS. October 8 66t

10 Dollars Reward. Ran away from the subscriber, on Saturday night last, FREDERICK W. INKMAN, a German indentured servant, who has about 3 ears to serve.—He is about a gitten years old rather slender, but is active and well proportioned—he has on one of his arms a blue mark such as is customary with soldiers to have.—He took with him a variety of clothes, consisting of white and check shirts, grey flannel trousers, a short jacket of twilled cotton, olive color; a blue suit of pair of yellow breeches; a pair of olive color thickset pantaloons, shoes and stockings, and a white hat with a black band or ribbon. The above reward will be paid for bringing said runaway to my residence, No. 12, north Gay-street, by ROBT BARRY. October 8 66t

Stray Cows. Came to the subscriber's, living near to Randalstown, about the 11th of August last, two stray Cows, one of them a brindle and white, the other a black and white—hoar mark on either of them. The owner or owners are desired to come, prove property, pay charges and take them away. GEORGE OWINGS. d4t October 8 66t

District of Columbia Washington County, to wit: IN the petition of George Walker, an insolvent debtor, confined in the prison of Washington county, for debt.—Notice is hereby given, to the creditors of the said George Walker, that on Monday the 22d of October next, at 10 o'clock, A. M. at the Court room, in the Capitol, the oath of an Insolvent Debtor will be administered to the said Walker, agreeably to the act of Congress now in force respecting insolvent debtors in the District of Columbia; and a trustee appointed, unless sufficient cause then and there be shown to the contrary. It is ordered that this notice be published three times in the National Intelligencer and Washington Federalist, and three times in a paper published in New York, and in a Philadelphia and Baltimore paper, prior to that day. By order of the honorable W. C. Crouch, one of the assistant Judges of the Circuit Court of the District of Columbia. URIAH FORREST, clk. september 26 (A 8) 66t

100 Dollars Reward. RAN away from the subscriber, on Tuesday night last, the 17th July last, a negro woman, named AIMEY, about 35 years of age—she is a slim spare woman, very black, active in moving and quick in her speech; her teeth out before in her upper jaw, all but one, which is near the centre of her mouth, it is long and very remarkable—her clothing cannot be particularly described, as she has several changes of calico, muslin, and common coarse clothes, and her having free connections, she may have changed her clothes. I bought her last fall of a Mr. Henry Johns, living near Deer Creek, in Harford county, in which neighborhood I think it probable she may be harbored. I will give 20 dollars to any person that can give information of any person or persons harboring said woman, so as to convict them by law. I will give the above reward if she is taken up out of the state 150 dollars if taken in the state, and out of the county; and 30 dollars if taken in the county, and secured in any goal, and if brought home all reasonable charges will be paid by PEREGRINE NOWLAND. P. S. She is cheerful in her speech when talked to, but not apt to be talkative, but I believe pretty shy and cunning, and perhaps may have a pass from having free connections—she was raised near Havre de Grace, by a Mr. Giles.
