PHILADELPHIA, October 11.
To the gate on Tuesday morning, the ferry boat at Trenton, having in the Diligence stage and horses, with twelve passengers was suddenly upset. By the great exertions of the ferry men and others, the passengers were preserved from drowning. The stage and shaft horses were also recovered.

TRIUMPH OF PRINCIPLE.
On Tuesday last an election, for representatives to congress, senators and representatives to the state legislature and for county commissioners, was held in the several districts of this commonwealth.
We have endeavored to procure authentic returns; the following statements are given, which we believe to be correct:—

The above named persons are those elected.

The following is a return of the number of votes given by the federal and quid parties for the candidates named. It is to be observed that Mr. Taylor's name was used without his consent:

Blockley &c.	38	102	13
Total,	3225	1929	733

We have full returns from all parts of the district, which we shall publish in our next. The most interesting returns have been given to-day. The names of some of the candidates, who were supported by the federal—quids, we have printed in Italics, they are all in the minority—according to Tench Cox's in the majority—and further, they are likely to remain in the minority on all future occasions.
Finally, every republican candidate throughout the district, has been elected—every federal quid candidate permitted to enjoy the post of honour, a private-station.

ALEX. M'ILVAIN INFORMS his friends and customers, that he has been and is still engaged in selecting his Fall and Winter Goods; And hopes his choice will prove satisfactory both to his old and new customers, the greatest part of which will be made up in wearing apparel, from a Mammoth great coat, down to a child's vest—all on the lowest terms, at his store, No. 32, Calvert-street.
N. B. He has a negro woman to dispose of for a term of years. Enquire as above.
