Columbian Inn to Let. WILL be Let, for one or more years, three two large three-story Brick HOUSES, with Cellars under the whole, and very extensive back buildings, now in the tenure of Mr. David Fulton, and known by the name of the Columbian Inn—fronting on Market-street about 35 feet, and running through to Germaine-street about 17 1/2 feet, now in good order. They have been occupied as a tavern for upwards of five years, and as it is presumed their situation is well known, it is scarcely necessary to say there is not perhaps, in this city, a house better calculated for a tavern on an extensive scale. They will also be let, with the above.

An extensive lot and stables, directly at the rear of it, situated on the corner of German and Howard-streets, calculated to accommodate about 40 or 50 horses, and have been occupied for that purpose, by the late tenants of the Columbian Inn. If a suitable tenant, to occupy the above as a tavern, should not offer, they will be let separately for stores and private dwellings. Possession may be had the 10th of December next. For terms apply to CHARLES TORrance, No. 21, Market street. October 13
