Mr. Edwarde, in his Natural History of Birds, a work lately published in England, part the fourth, has the following extraordinary dedication:

The One E creat: the Incomprehensible! the Omnipresent! Omniscient, and Almighty Creator of all things that exist! from orbs immeasurably great, to the minutest points of matter; this atom is dedicated, and devoted, with ail possible gratitude, humility, worthip, and the highest aderation both of body and mind.

By his most resigned, Low and humble Creature GEORGE EDWARDS.

Letter from his Majesty to Mr. Chaptal. Mr. Chaptal, Minister of the interior, I am sorry to learn your intentions to quit the Ministry of the Interior in order to devote your self entirely to the sciences. You will deliver your Portfolio to Mr. Portalis, Minister of Wership, who will hold it until I have definitively provided for that Department. Wis: ing to give you a proof of my satisficiton with your services. I have nominated you Senator. In those eminent func tions which leave you more time to be stow on your labour for the prosperity of our arts and the progress of our manutacturing industry, you will render usefil services to the State and n.yseif-I pray God to have you in his holy keep.
