American Manufacture.

CALICOES, Furniture Cottons, Shawls and Pocket Handkerchiefs printed and sold by the subscribers, at No. 13, Calvert-street. To remove a distrust experienced in new undertakings, and often prejudicial to manufacturing attempts in America; they think it proper to observe, that nothing material is wanted in the business to enable good artists to perform the work here, as well as in Europe. That they have these artists—that two of the partners were bred to the business in a factory of the best repute, carried on by their father, and long afterwards by themselves. They trust that while foreign goods are received without a question, an unreasonable suspicion will not prevent their countrymen from giving an equal trial to such as are wrought among themselves—beside a natural doubt, there is room to fear, that certain interests, national, as well as individual, may suggest objections to their undertaking—It is necessary therefore to say, that work of the like kind, shall be as well executed here, as by foreign hands abroad. The colors capable of being fixed will be found as permanent, the cloths perhaps of better substance, and the prices lower than of the imported cottons.

IN the night of the 16th & 17th instant, a robber introduced himself in the house, No. 119, Bond-street, Fell's Point, and took out of a trunk from nine hundred to a thousand dollars, in doublets, which were secured in a woman's under jacket; a pair of bracelets and necklace of the same pattern, the agraffs cyphered with the letters S. H. two pair of earrings, one emerald, the other plain, all in gold; a necklace with large gold beads, and dark blue crystals; a small gold watch with jewelled case, about 12 gold plain buttons, two pieces and three remnants of lace, of 3 or 4 fingers width, a quantity of women's clothes, part of them not sewed; several pieces of book mulin, embroidered in various patterns, and a small bag with divers papers, written in French. Eloped or Kidnapped.

ON Saturday, the 19th of last month, I gave negro woman LYDIA, and HAMLET, her son, permission to visit their relations on Elk-Ridge, and as I learn they did not go there, and have not since heard any thing of them, the presumption is, that they have absconded or been kidnaped; if the former, I will give 50 Dollars reward for apprehending and committing them to any jail in the United States, so that I get them again; and in the latter case, I will give One Hundred Dollars for the recovery of said negroes, and conviction of the perpetrators of so base an act, or Fifty Dollars for the recovery of the negroes—and in both cases I will also pay reasonable charges for bringing the negroes home to me in this city. Lydia is about 30 years old, a light colored negro, bold countenance, an sensible and very plausible in conversation; took with her a variety of clothing, among others, two suits of dark striped and clouded nankeen, and one suit of black silk, all made up into jackets and petticoats. Hamlet is a dark mulatto boy, about 7 years old, is a little hard of hearing, and had with him, among other things, a canteen and two pieces of fine twilled and striped fancy cord, about half worn, and an turned nearly white by being frequently washed; also a new hat, I believe of the wool kind.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, on Tuesday night, the 17th July last, a negro woman, named AIMEE, about 35 years of age—she is a slim spare woman, very black, & of a lively and quick in her speech; her teeth out before in her upper jaw, all but one, which is near the centre of her mouth, it is long and very remarkable—her clothing cannot be particularly described, as she has several changes of calico, muslin, and common coarse clothes, and her having free commissions, she may have changed her clothes. I bought her last fall of a Mr. Henry Johns, living near Deer Creek, in Harford county, in which neighborhood I think it probable she may be harbored. I will give 20 dollars to any person that can give information of any person or persons harboring said woman, so as to convict them by law. I will give the above reward if she is taken up out of the state; 30 dollars if taken in the state, and out of the county; and 50 dollars if taken in the county, and secured in any goal, and if brought home all reasonable charges will be paid by PEREGRINE NOWLAND. P. S. She is cheerful in her speech when talked to, but not apt to be talkative, but I believe pretty sly and cunning, and perhaps may have a pass from having free commissions—she was raised near Havre de Grace, by a Mr. Giles.

100 Dollars Reward

FOR apprehending negro ROBBIN, who ran away from Dorsey's Forge, near the city of Baltimore, on Wednesday the 1st ul, he is a very black fellow, about 30 years of age, 6 feet high, short curly hair, which he very seldom combs; rather of a thin visage, has a good set of teeth; broad shouldered and tapers gradually downwards; his right leg formerly has been very sore and retains the scar on the shin bone. Indeed they have both been very sore; but the right much worse than the left. He is fond of strong drink, and after drinking is very apt to stammer or stutter when he speaks, though he speaks low and slow. He has been accustomed to working in the Forge, and is not a bad fireman, and can handle iron tolerably well. His clothing when he went away was, a country mixed filled cloth jacket, a pair of new ditto breeches, a pair blue filled stockings, osenbrag shirts, coarse shoes and hat; but as he is a notorious, artful villain, he will probably change his dress and obtain a pass.

I will give the above reward including what the law allows, for apprehending and securing said fellow, and reasonable expences if brot home.

ALLEN DORSEY, Esq. At Dorsey's Forge. N. B. The said fellow took with him a light mixed cloth coat, a yellow jacket, and a pair of striped pantaloons.

All persons are forewarned from harboring or carrying off said runaway.

The printers in the different cities are given in the U. S. &c. respectfully requested to give the preceding an insertion in their respective papers.
