Sterling Plate.
Charles L. Boehme,
 No. 125, MARKET STREET BALTIMORE, CONTINUES to manufacture his goods of sterling silver at nearly one third less price than that which is imported. He has now in his employ several of the best workmen, some of whom have worked in the first manufactory in London, which enables him to have his work executed in the neatest and most masterly manner. From the moderate price, the elegance of his work, and the superior quality of his silver, that generally men of discernment in America flatters himself he will secure a preference.
 He has just received an elegant assortment of London jewelry, consisting of gold earrings and necklaces of various patterns, do. breast pins and brooches, lockets, bracelets and finger rings, and from former importations, picked candle sticks, brackets, castors, snuffers and trays, Japanned casters, urns and castors, silver and plated spectacles, silver butter and cheese knives, silver coral & bells. He has also for sale of his own manufacturing, coffee and tea pots, sugar dishes, soap basons and cream ewers in sets. Also, soup table dessert, tea spoons and sugar tongs, all of which will match.
 He carries on the Clock and Watch making as usual, and has also received an assortment of gold and silver watches plain capped and capped and jeweled, all of which are warranted. Also, gentlemen and ladies' watch chains, seals and keys of the newest patterns. Clocks or watches which he may be interested with to repair will be carefully executed at the shortest notice and warranted to perform well. The above will be sold at moderate prices for cash or exceptionally low in town at short dates.
 Wanted two journeyman Silver Smith Plate Workers. Also, two or three lads about fifteen or sixteen years of age, and of good connections, will be taken as apprentices.

Centre House-Inn.
Solomon Myer
 HAS opened the above tavern in North-street, in the city of Washington, about thirty yards north of the Pennsylvania Avenue nearly opposite Messrs. Herford's Distillery, and about half way between the Capitol and the President's house; as also between the Theatre and Centre market; for which he respectfully solicits a share of the public patronage. His charges will be moderate, corresponding with the Pennsylvania tavern rates, as to victualling, lodging, liquors, &c. and horse feed, as markets will permit—He deems it unnecessary to exaggerate with the usual epithets of large, best, commodious, &c. as probably no occupation has more ready means of recommending a d advertising its own convenience than that of tavern keeping—he must, however, inform such of his friends, who wish to take boarding for a time, and have their lodgings settled or distinct from the tavern, that he has rented the house opposite his own building, lately built by Mr. Young, which is suitable for that purpose.

 167, 158 and 149, adjoining each other, bounded as follows—south on Congress-street 200 feet, west on Union-street 180 feet, and east on Lodge-ale 180 feet. These streets are each 132 feet, and the alley 20 feet wide—the streets are planted with fine well grown Lombardy poplars —The whole enclosed under good fence—laid out in a garden under high cultivation, in which are to be found almost every kind of garden fruit and flowers. The improvements are a large convenient Dwelling House, three rooms on a floor; a good large well constructed pantry; a pump near the door; every necessary building, such as office or study, a smoke house, oven, coach house, stables with stalls for eight horses; a large granary, &c. The house fronts the south, and is within 600 feet of the river.

TO
Merchants & owners of Vessels GENERAL.
 AN Association having been formed by a number of master Ship-Carpenters, under the denomination of "The Baltimore Ship-Builders' Association" for the purpose of executing in the most expeditious and workmanlike manner any contracts in the said line of business—they hereby solicit a share of public patronage, and inform that JAMES CONROY, their president, and JAMES WOODEN and WILLIAM DUN-MONT, superintendants, on Fell's Point, are prepared to receive all orders which merchants, captains or others may favor them with. They will for the present conduct their business, on the wharf occupied by J. Wheeler, adjoining Mr. Jno. Hill's wharf, where they will always be provided with spare Spars and other outfit, to furnish at the shortest notice and on the most moderate terms.
 It is deemed expedient to notice, that all the persons forming this association are masters of their business, and as they intend to be satisfied, principally to give their personal application in executing work for their employers, it is fully hoped, that on this score they will claim a preference from those who make it an object to have things done in a masterly manner.
 N. B. They have now on hand a sufficiency of well seasoned stuff for the building of several vessels.

Eloped or Kidnapped.
 ON SATURDAY the 9th of last month, I gave negro woman LYDIA, and HAMLET, her son, permission to visit their relations on Elk-Ridge, and as I learn they did not go there, and have not since heard any thing of them, the presumption is, that they have absconded been kidnapped; if the former, I will give 39 Dollars reward for apprehending and committing them to any jail in the United States, so that I get them again; and in the latter case, I will give One Hundred Dollars for the recovery of said negroes, and conviction of the perpetrators of so base an act, or Fifty Dollars for the recovery of the negroes—and in both cases I will also pay reasonable charges for bringing the negroes home to me in this city. Lydia is about 36 years old, a light colored negro, bold countenance, and sensible and very plausible in conversation; took with her a variety of clothing, among others, two suits of dark striped and clouded nankeen, and one suit of black silk, all made up into jackets and petticoats. Hamlet is a dark mulatto boy, about 7 years old, is a little hard of hearing, and had with him, among other clothing, a caatee and trousers of fine twilled ad striped fancy cord, about half worn, and turned nearly white by being frequently washed; also a new hat, I believe of the wool kind.

VENEREAL COMPLAINTS
A. S. DR. WARNER'S practice has seen very extensive both in public and private, daily experience convinces him of the propriety of his method of removing the venereal disease, in preference to any medicine venereal or known in Baltimore. He has removed the most desperate cases with ease and dispatch, after the failure of some of the ablest physicians both in Europe and America. Complaints of the urinary passages and debility thereof, from various causes and accidents, removed in the shortest possible space of time.
 —As there are persons from various causes cannot personally apply, it may be necessary to inform them, they may be relieved from a description of their complaint.
 Dr. W. warrants a cure in all cases. Masters of vessels and travellers may have their medicine so prepared that a safe, effectual and expedient cure may be effected, without the least restriction in drink or diet.
 N. B. Dr. Warner has removed from Bond-street, to Cumberland-River, No. 66, below the Marsh-market.
