The friends of a well organized militia will peruse with pleasure the account of the sham fight at Boston given in' this day's paper. In a republican government a well regulated militia is the impregnable bulwark of the rights of freemen and the wall of safety around them."-So well are we convinced of this, that we presume nothing further need b - said to stimula'e the representatives of the sa'e of Maryland at the ensuing session to the formation of such militia regulations as may tend to place the free people of the state on a footing. not inferior to any state in the union.-They ought to attend to the important truth, that . A WELL REGULATED MILI-TIA IS THE PEOPLE'S DEST SAFEGUARD."

Forty days quaratine has been imposed on all vessels from the United States, arriving at Liverpool and the ports in Portugal, notwithstanding the regularity of their health bills and pa-

Total, On Wednesday, a public and sumptuous entertainment was given at Concert-Hall, to the Hon. Rufus King, late minister of the United States, at the Court of Landon; and if any judgment can be formed from the letter and tendency of the tonsts, the spirit which actuated that Anglo-Federal Assembly, would have been more appropriate in the meridian of the British metropolis, than the capital of Massachusetts. - There was such an extraordinary contempt for every thing that regarded American glory, and such a charming tone of sycophancy for the British government, in some of the sentiments reported to have been given on that occasion; that one might suppose the whole to have been an illusion of the fancy, and not the sober agency of thinking men. The good citizens of this State will no doubt give the Tories due credit for the alacrity which they evince, in seizing every possible opportunity to be sentimentally seditieus! and a public dinner presents two points of desire, for their indulgence : They can illustrate their boasted temperance, by imitating Heliogabalus, in eating long, and drinking deep : and they can prove how very sincere they are in their professions of love for their country, and its republican blessings, by openly vililying the present happy government of the U. Status, and prostrate themselves in mind, before the despots of the old world!-Such things are in the town of Boston, in New-England, where the declaration of our Independence was first read, and they seem to a cursory observer, as " passing strange." In the European nations, they would punish such daring follies by the iron rod of the gevernment; in America they will be punished, by the indignation of an insulted people, -- We shall anatomize the tonsts, in a succeeding paper- Boston Ghron-]

Extract of a letter from a gentleman at Natchitotches, (I.) to the editor of the Mississippi Herald, duted

September 19. 1. "A Hunter lately returned from the ligad of Sabine, who reports, that while he was out he fell in with a par-him that they had seen the hodi a of three Americans who had been re cently killed, in the Prairie between the head of Sahine and their villages on Red River. If it was so, very little doubt is entertained but they were the bodies of three young mention went out into that part of the count v about three months ago, by the names of Knox, Anderson and House, who it is said were in sarch of Slver Mines.

"The Onge Indians are charged with their murder; but it would seem extraordinary that while their Ch f. are at Washi gton city negociating a peace with the Presiden, this, they left behind should be committing dipredations on the citizens of the United States in our own Territory; but there are those who from some circumstances are more inclined to believe they were killed by a party of Spanish Soldiers sent out for that purpose, who say that n t long after the dep rtuse of Knox, Anderson, and Hou, tr m Ripid, a Spiniard was there making strict enquiry about th m, retailed to he object of their voyag, their roue, &c. and was head to see that there either was or would be a piety sent out from Nagadoches in pursuit of them.

From a late Boston paper.

The first brigade of the third division was reviewed by Major General Hull, the 2d inst. on the plans of Waltham. This brigade is commanded by Brigadier-General Coolidge, and was composed of the following regime its and corps:-first regiment commanded by L. Col. Che nev; second regiment, Lt. Col. Braidman; third regiment, Lt. Col. Butterick; and fifth resiment, Lt. Cal. Fines; Dashwood, for Buston, in 2 d ys; Buinh, five troops of cavalry, Lt Col. banger; four companies of artillery by Major Brown; and two companies of lowependent Light Infantry, from Medford a. 1 Weston; and a band of music, in adding 1 14 do; Chizen Hubble, New York. 21 on to the usual music attached to the ! do; New York, King, of New York; corps. The whole was formed in law, Gosport, ---, for Nerfolk, 14 days; and a federal salue of 17 guns fired; [Minerva, Burger, New York, 21 do; immediately af er which they were re- | ____, Jones, Boston, 14 do; Herald, viewed by the Major General. The review being made, the whole were to: med in solid column ; -- when the Major General add essed them in a spirited judicious and patient comment; this address not only expressed his approbation of heir discipli e and marnal appearance ;-but was calculated to cherish in their bosoms the resolution to live fe. or die; and to inspire mem with the min portance to the freedo n, honor and andependence of their country; of a well organized and disceptified initial.

The troops were then dimissed for one hour for refreshment, at the expir ration of which, the brigade was formed; and divided into two parties, to ex., b. the representation of an action Two regunents of infantry, a battalion of actilie ry, and a troop of cavalry took possession of the high grounds near the plann, on which a fort had previously been erecht Lef a. the Isle of France ships. Alexanter ed; and were under the orders of Briggs | dier General Coolidge:- The other part of the brigade were formed in columns on the plain; and were under the orders of Major General Hull. The Brigadier General seein; dispositions making : attack the fort, occupied an elevated situation on his right and a swell of ground in front of the lest of the fort. For this purpose he ordered Lt. Col. Boardm or to take possession of the elevated ground on the right; and Lt. Col. Emes on the left. The artillery, and the rest of the tre ops remained in the fort. Majer Ge neral Hull deeming it necessary to be in possession of p sitions thus occupied by Geneal Coulridge, before he could successively attack the fort, ordered Col. Sangier's cavalry, and Butterick's legiment to advance and disposses Col Boardman of the eleva ed ground on the right, and Col. Cheney, with capt Hall' light infantry, of the left.—After an obstinate resistance Col Boardman & Col. Emes retreated to the fort.

Gen. Hull now finding his troops in un advantageous situation to attack the fore. sent Major illunt one of his aids, wit . . flag, to demand its sagrender. Gen. Coolidge refusing his summons the attack was made in line, on every part of the fort, and the assailants und. r Gen Hul, were repulsed .- The Gen. fi ding the troops in the fort so covered, that firing had little effect, and that a line was no of sufficient force to make an impression, formed his troops in solid column, and with fixed bayonets, penetrated the works, stuck the fla;;; and the garrison immediately surrendered.

No accident occurred, that we heard of. The General and Steff officers made truly martial appearance; and the whole exhibition was conducted with perfect intelligence and advoitness. As it is on a well disciplined militia, that our country must depend for its pretection against assauls; we cannot withhold our approbation of the great exertions made by Major General Hull to form and veternize (if wa may be allowed the word) the militia of his command Initiated in the science of war, in the school of Washington, he required him self in various commands, to the "intire approhation of the first military man in the world."-His talents are therefore unquestionable; and we are happy in Newbury port, lording for Charleston; seeing, that his zealismot inferior to his Jyreph & Plicebe, Perkins, of B. ston. ty of the Punis Indians who informed I talents. Grent credit is also due to Ge- 1 loading for New, York; Brutus, of 1 neral Coolidge, for his patrioticand spiritell exertions to render his brigade not fignly the first in appearance, but in discipline and subordination.
