AND WEEKLY MISCELLANY. WHEN the Prespedus of this work was published, many persons supposed each paper would contain's variety of matter; and when an explanatory advertisement appeared, stating that the intention was only to publish a single essay, in imitation of the Specator, Rambler, &c. numbers were disappointed : and the person proposing to be the Editor having learned that it is the wish of those from whom he expects most encouragement, as well as the desire of the public, as far as can be ascertsined, to commence on a larger scale ; he has thought it advisable to deviate from the simplicity of his original plans and with the assistance he has engaged, to en-crease it to double the size. As much as was first proposed, will consist of criginal matter, and the residue will be appropriated to miscellaneous pieces in prose and verse, partly original and partly selected.

Though the size is doubled, the price will only be raised to three dellars, per annum, and the first number will certainly appear on the first Saturday in November.
