weeks which I am in hopes will not take longer than to-morrow evening, and proceed direct to Tripoli, where I flatter myself, (if captain Preble has not made a previous attack) I shall yet arrive in time, to co-operate with Commodore Barron; for I should be greatly mortified if the Congress did not share a part of the credit to be derived from the reduction of Tripoli, by inscribing a lasting and honorable remembrance of her name on its walls.

BALTIMORE

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1804.

The Roman Catholic Cathedral Church Lottery commenced drawing yesterday forenoon, at Mr. Wyant's. After fifty tickets were drawn, the wheels were sealed, and the further drawing postponed till Saturday next. In the mean time tickets may still be had at the old price from any of the managers, or at Mr. Wyant's or Mr Evans's bar. The wheel has gained about 100 dollars. The prizes are as follow:

Prizes of 20 dollars.

3767 5345 11384 10289 19786.

Prizes of 15 dollars.

1041 1060 2974 2286 5627 8772 9027 12499 12632 12895 14571 18560.

The schooner Hornet, capt. Macey, 18 days from Guadaloupe went up to Baltimore yesterday. From a gentleman passenger we learn, that the American captains and crews, who have been captured by the French cruizers, while trading with the Island of St. Domingo, have been liberated at Guadaloupe, and were endeavoring to get passages home. There have been several English vessels sent in there lately, but not an American.

The sch'r Experiment, Nash, of this port, was left at Guadaloupe, to sail in two days for St. Thomas's.

[Norfolk Herald.]

By the arrival of the brig Orange, Captain Pelham, at Wilmington, North-Carolina, from Cadiz, on the 8th inst. we learn, that General Moreau & family arrived at that place about the 8th of August, in a small Spanish vessel from Gibraltar. The Governor of the Province of Andalusia, who expected his coming, directed the Health-Officer to send a boat to the vessel immediately, for the General and his family —He also ordered the Gates of Cadiz to be opened at twelve o'clock at night and went himself to the Mole to conduct them into the city. The Gates of Cadiz were never before opened after dark which is there considered the greatest mark of respect that can be shewn to the most exalted individual. The General was waited upon and welcomed by all the distinguished personages, both French and Spanish, in the city.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.

We this day hand to our readers the promised statement of votes for Representatives to congress, from which they will be enabled to form a correct idea of the politics of this state. Neither Federalists or Republicans have at present much to boast of; the majorities, which ever way they turn, are small, and if we may be permitted to hazard our opinion, need but the exertions of a few influential men, to become more decided.—It is to be hoped that the citizens of New Hampshire will be guided in their final choice, by a due regard to their individual and collective happiness and safety, and that they will be careful how they surrender their dearest rights; zealously shunning to commit them to mercenary or ambitious men—who, in due time, will become tyrants and a bane to their country.

Governor Claiborne has addressed the following circular letter to the several civil commandants.

NEW-ORLEANS, September 17, 1804

SIR,

On the first of October, the act of congress, "erecting Louisiana into two territories, and providing for the temporary government thereof," will be in force, but I deem it proper to inform you, that your powers as civil commandants will not at that time cease. You will therefore exercise the authority with which by law you are now invested, until some provision, upon the subject, shall be made by the legislative body, to be created by the act aforesaid, and of which you will be duly notified It is expected, that, as heretofore, you will communicate to the governor all occurrences of importance in your district, and in case of difficulty, consult his opinion and await his advice.

I take this opportunity to thank you for the zeal and fidelity with which you have discharged the duties of your office, and to request that with the same motives of regard for the public good which have hitherto guided your conduct, you will continue to administer justice in mercy, and to maintain that harmony, security and good order, so essential to the happiness of our fellow citizens.

Accept assurances of my respect and esteem.

WILLIAM C. C. CLAIBORNE.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.—A race of singular interest, on the event, of which upwards of £200,000 sterling was pending, was lately run in England over the course at Knavesmire—one of the riders was the lady of colonel Thornton, a gentleman well known in the sporting world; her opponent, Mr. Flint. The lady, though defeated, acquitted herself in a most capital style, to the astonishment of upwards of 100,000 people collected on the occasion. She was dressed in an elegant jacket of Leopard-colored satin, with blue sleeves, buff pantaloons and blue cap. The tout en semble, says the London editor, was unique and fascinating, and whether her horsemanship (she using a side-saddle) her dress, or her beauty were most admired, it is difficult to say. The race was a single 4 mile heat, and was run in 9 minutes 59 seconds. In a subsequent paper we find the following reflections on the deportment of her antagonist, and a challenge to a future trial:—

To the editor of the York Herald.

Thornville Royal, Sept 1, 1804.

MR. EDITOR,

Having read in your paper that Mr. Flint paid me every attention that could be shown on the occasion of the race, I request you will submit the following elements of politeness to the gentlemen of the Turf, for them to sanction or reject, upon any future match of this kind taking place.

Element 1.—Mr. Baker, who kindly offered to ride round with me, on account of the dangerous accident I met with on Wednesday before, from my saddle turning round, was positively and peremptorily refused this permission.

Element 2.—At the starting post the most distant species of common courtesy was studiously avoided; and I received a sort of word of command from Mr. Flint as thus—"keep that side ma'am!" For a morning's ride this might be complimentary, but it was here depriving me of the whip hand. I did not expect Mr. Flint to shake hands with me, that I understand, being the common prelude to boxing.

Element 3.—When my horse broke down in the terrible way he did, all the course must have witnessed the very handsome manner in which Mr. Flint brought me in, i. e. Left me out, by distancing me as much as he possibly could.

If these should be received as precedents, the art of riding against ladies will be made most compleatly easy.

CHALLENGE.—After all this, I challenge Mr. Flint to ride the same match, in all its forms, over the same course, next year, on horse Brown Thornville against any one he may choose to select out of three horses I shall hunt this season.

ALICIA THORNTON.

From the Farmer's (Sparta, Geo.) Gazette.

MILLEDGEVILLE, September 21.

MR. RYAN,

Sir—At the request of Col. Benjamin Hawkins, agent for Indian affairs, I forward to you the following information, with a request that you would make it public, viz.

"I received yesterday, from the Chiefs of Cussetuck, this information. At Falaupin (Muscle creek) between Chatahouchee and Flint River, on the Oosukee path, a white man has been murdered. There were two of them coming from the West, and had encamped there; some hunting Indians being out, discovered the murdered man in the Creek, and that he had been dragged in—hunting around, they discovered the camp, and his companion at it; the murder was fresh done, and the hunters were of opinion that it was done by the man at the camp, they knew of no Indians about—they searched around, and saw no sign. By the track of horses, they came from the west, and were pointing towards Apalachee. The hunters returned immediately, for fear of suspicion attaching to them.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

WILLIAM HILL.

Assistant Agent, Creek Department.

On Monday evening departed this life, after a painful lingering illness, borne with Christian patience and resignation, Mrs. MARY BOUDINOT BEND, wife of the reverend Joseph G J Bend.

Her friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend her funeral, at ten o'clock THIS MORNING. If the weather permit, the procession will be on foot.

☞ A meeting of the inhabitants of the Western Precincts is requested, at Mr. Fulton's tavern, on THURSDAY next, in the afternoon, at three o'clock, to consider on the expediency of petitioning the legislature, for a law for the better regulation of the said precincts.

SHIP NEWS

From Bryden's Marine List.

October 30.

Arrived schooner Swallow, Murdock, from Leogane and Port au Prince—coffee—William Taylor. sailed from Port au Prince 11th inst in co with schooner Maria, Chase, of Baltimore; a brig for Salem; and a schooner for New York. Left at Port au Prince schooners A..., Kilbarn; Nanparel, Bishop; and Jane, Durkee, of Baltimore, just arrived. The Swallow kept company with the convoy & left it off St. Marks, when the captain of the Sampson sent for the Swallow as being the fastest sailor and obliged capt. M. to set one of his supercargoes ashore at St Marks and assured him he would wait for him at the Platform, if not certainly at the Mole. After having performed the service, he went in pursuit of the convoy, missing them at the first he went to the second, when he searched for two days, but hearing nothing of them he pursued his voyage. In the Crooked island passage was chased by 2 vessels, supposed privateers, for 6 hours, blowing fresh, outsailed them 24th on Saturday saw 2 ships 2 brigs & a schooner standing for the land; came into the capes with a ship said to be the Redress, Norman from Rotterdam. Passed schooner Betsy, and a ship in the bay.

Also, sch'r Betsy, First, 25 days from Trinidad—rum & ballast—Lewis Foulk. Left there 5th inst. brig Henry, Hullin, of Boston; Bee, Savage, New York; Commerce, Stanly, Salem to sail in 4 days; Three Friends ——, Washington, (N. C.); sch'rs Eleanor, Ring, Baltimore; Fanny, Savel, Owens, Norfolk; Three Sisters, ——, ditto; Monongehela, Farmer, N York; Sally, Williams, Lock, of Philadelphia, sailed in co. for St, Thomas; Louisa, Martin, of Baltimore, to sail in 10 days for Guadaloupe, and Sampson, Cox, of Alexandria. Off the capes saw a long brig under French colors, which brought a ship a stern too, and afterwards chased the Betsy, but finding he could not come up with her put about & pursued another ship.

Also, ship Roborous, Millikin 47 days from Bordeaux—wine, brandy and dry goods—Roger and Hincks. Left ship Chesapeak, Lee, of Baltimore, ready for sea; Stafford, Clayton, and Union, Marybew, for do. in 10 days; sch'r Phoenix, Reeves, of ditto; ship Favorite, Penrose and Packet for Philadelphia; Golden Age, Ny, for Boston, ready to sail and a ship of Alexandria, name unknown, captain dead; brig ——, Townson, of Salem in 10 days.

Arrived, brig Rockingham, Capt. Sullivan, 25 days from Turks Island —On his outward passage in lat. 19 50, long. 64, Captain Sullivan fell in with sch'r Generous Friend, Captain Russel, from New-York and bound to Guadaloupe; the sch'r had upset in a hurricane on the 4th September, lost 4 hands; on the 8th Capt. S. took her in tow and continued with her 5 days, finding it impossible to carry her to St. Thomas or St. Croix, he took out 7 passengers, leaving the Captain, Mate, Supercargo and two others on board, and left her in a fair way for Jamaica.

BRITISH AMITY

Extract from the sch'r Generous Friend's log-book taken at sea, Aug. 28. 1804—Lat. 28 40, N. long. 62 50. W.

"At 6 A. M. saw a sail to the eastward, standing to the south; set main top-mast stay sail and fore top gallant sail, at 11½ A. M. she fired a shot at us, hove main top sail to the mast and lay by for her coming up; at noon she came under our lee, and hail'd us, and ordered the capt. on board with his papers—After going on board the brig, which proved to be the Rover, Capt. Pours; they man'd our boat with small arms and their mate with them, came on board and demanded all the papers among the passengers, and all hands on board; ransacked trunks, bedding, cabin lockers, breaking open letters, opening the cabin ceiling in pursuit of money—put all our men in irons and threatened to man our vessel and send her to Halifax; but this was to delay time till night for further plunder—night came on, when the captain came on board with his officers and men; he stood with pistols to guard them in their piratical conduct—after plundering and taking the trunks of clothes, and every thing they could lay their hands on, and detaining us a long while making use of the most abusive language, at half past 11 P. M. thank God, got clear of them and stood to the southward, after being robbed of every necessary on board.
