Sloop Victory, Hoyt, of Safford, in 31 days from Antigua, and 10 from Bermuda, where she stopt to land Captain Tucker and crew, he having sold his vessel at Antigua, to the Master of the London Packet, wrecked there during the late gale.

Arrived late last night, the schooner Performance, Smart, in 34 days from Surinam.
Also, the sch'r Recovery, Tolman, in 40 days from Demerara.
Came up from quarantine,
Ships Betsey, R. King, from Batavia; the Louisiana, Ingersoll, from New Orleans; and the Commerce, Congdon, from St. Thomas.

November 1.
Arrived, ship Two Friends, Wiley, in 57 days from Tonningen. Passengers, J. H. Schmidt, William Thornton and P. D. Coverts. Left, September 16, brig Union, Brown, for Philadelphia, in the river, ready for sea; ship Margaret Coffin, of Portsmouth, N. H., to sail for Philadelphia, 10th October; ship Roebuck, Riley, for Philadelphia, time of sailing unknown; brig Argus, Gray, of Providence, destination and time of sailing unknown. The Hamburg ship Johannes, Andreas Hamfen, for Philadelphia; and the ship Agent, Eddy, of Warren, R. I., for Lisbon, sailed the 6th September.

Ship Washington, Holden, in 47 days from Liverpool.
Hamburg ship Vrow Margareta Napsah, in 13 weeks from Hamburg.
Brig Eunice, Howland, of New Bedford, in 44 days from Cape de Verdes.
Brig Patas, Cunningham, in 48 days from Cadiz.
Brig Orion, Lines, of N. W. Haven from Grenada, in 18 days from St. Kitts. Left at Grenada, ship —, Storers, of Portland or Portsmouth, the only American vessel there.
Brig Joseph, Kirtland, in 17 days from St. Kitts.

Brig Eliza, Hoff, in 9 days from Baltimore. Left in Hampton Roads, the schooner Enterprize, and a sloop both for New York.
Brig Jane, Hastie, in 29 days from Point Petre, (Guad.) October 17, spoke the ship America, 115 days from Batavia for Philadelphia. October 28, spoke the brig New Jersey, 3 days from Philadelphia, for Bremen.

Sch'r Rebecca, Dawson, in 32 days from Point Petre, (Guad.) Sailed in company Charleston Packet, for Philadelphia. Met going into Point Petre, on the 30th September, a French sloop from Basse-terre, having on board the crews of the ship Hopewell, brig Rockland, and schooner Snake in the Grass, intending to procure a passage home from Point Petre. They informed, that captain Sisson died on the 26th of September, after an illness of 29 hours.—Same day, spoke the brig Ann Vincent, of Baltimore, having sold her cargo at Trinidad; and the brig Alexander, Reynolds, from Philadelphia. October 17, in lat. 23 10, long. 65 5, spoke the brig Isabella, 11 days from Baltimore, for Laguna.

Schooner Jane, Strangman, in 25 days from Barracoa.
Schooner Fair Trader, Daggett, in 9 days from Richmond. November 1, in lat. 39, long. 73 40, fell in with the sch'r Janry, Rhodes, from Richmond for Boston, she having sprung leak, took from her the crew, 100 barrels flour, some sails, a cable, &c. The Jenny sunk shortly after the crew abandoned her—when she sunk, she had in 300 barrels flour and 1800 bushels coal.
Schooner John, Smith, in 36 days from Point Petre, Guad. Spoke, the brig Elizabeth, 36 days from Norfolk for Antigua—had been robbed by the French privateer Fly Buster. October 20, in lat. 33 43, long. 71 10, the sch'r Patriot, 5 days from Baltimore for Jamaica.

Sch'r Daphne, De Forest, from the West Indies, last from Tortola. The Daphne was carried into Tortola, October 4, by a British privateer, detained a night, but treated politely. The brig Charleston packet and cargo, of New York, was sold at Tortola for salvage, the other remains in the hands of the government, and will be given up when properly demanded. A number of American vessels were waiting for trial when the Daphne sailed. October 15, in lat. 28, long. 72, passed the Hull of a vessel supposed to be a brig, with a red bottom, and Norwich on her stern, having been stripped.

The Daphne was at Martinique, September 10—markets crowded with American produce. Clayed sugar very plenty. New coffee just began to come in. The ship Morning Star, from Boston just arrived. October 22, in lat. 33, long. 74, spoke schooner William & Henry, Spotswood, from Guatoupe, for Fredericksburgh. Saw many vessels on the coast. In coming down from Surinam to Barbice, received the most brutal treatment from a British armed brig, on board of which was a lieutenant of the Heureux sloop of war—made a representation of it to Commodore Hoed, and demanded satisfaction by punishment of the insult.

Below, last night, one ship and the brig Phoenix, from St. Croix.

October 13, a British brig out 5 days from Halifax to the W. Indis. 21st, ship Live Oak, Thomas from New-York to Marseilles, out 7 days. 23d, Augusta, Delanc, of N. Orleans from Liverpool to New-York. The Sally passed the Banks of Newfoundland 50 days ago, and has met with constant gales from the N. and W. since that period, but sustained no material damage.

Capt. Endicott, of the Three Friends, from St. Croix, left there, 6th October, brig Betsey, Barrel, of York, for Savannah, in two days, and brig Prudence, Stapely, of Portsmouth, for Wilmington, N. C. in 3 days.

Also, arrived ship Maria, captain Miller, from Liverpool. October 20, in lat. 37, 21, long. 69, 30, spoke the brig Commerce, from New York, for Barbadoes out 6 days, all well. On the 23d, in lat. 38, 51, long. 71, she spoke a Portuguese ship from New York, for Lisbon, out 3 days, all well. And on the 22d, in the Gulf stream, 50 miles to the southward of our Capes, fell in with & boarded the shallop Hetty of Dunks's ferry, her sails were blown to pieces and her boat was gone, as she was abandoned, it is supposed the people must have quitted her to try for shore. Captain Miller took her in tow, and has safely deposited her at Wilmington in Delaware.

The sch'r Isabella, Pitt, who ran ashore on Cape May, about two weeks ago, is since got off, and is coming up.
Also, arrived brig Nancy, capt. Huggins, 61 days from Embden—Left there, ship Monticello, McClinson, for St. Ubes in 3 days; brig Sampson, King, of New Orleans; brig Ossipee, Chandler, of Newburyport, loading for the West-Indies; brig Belvidere, White, for Baltimore in 10 or 12 days. The ship Magistrate, Patterson, sailed for Bath, (N. E.) the 30th of August.

Captain Higgins, on the 30th of September, in lat. 47 57, long. 34, 42 spoke ship Cumberland, Black, from New York to London, out 27 days. October 2, in lat. 34, 33, long. 65, 30, spoke brig Polly, Robinson from Portland for St. Ubes, out 4 days.

Also, arrived schooner Boony Betty, captain —, in 90 days from Tonnagen, with 73 German passengers, in good health.

One of our Pilot-boats on Sunday last picked up at sea to the southward of Cape H. Mopen, a large case lined with oil cloth within & covered with canvas, and marked J. D. No. 25, but the goods had been taken or washed out.

Captain Talmán, of the John from Liverpool, as he came down the river, saw the ship Jane of Norfolk, loaded with salt, and was also coming down, ran on the bar at the Black Rock, and before he lost sight of her, struck her top-masts and fell on her beam ends.

Also, arrived the ship Thomas, capt. Larson Simmons, 64 days from Lisbon, off the mouth of the Tagus he spoke the sloop Favorite, Nathaniel Paul, of Salisbury, 59 days from Petersburg, bound to Lisbon.

Norfolk November 1.
Entered, ship Old Tom, Davis, Rotterdam; brig Ann and Frances, Ga-penter, Havana; schrs. Eliza, Johnston, East River; Mary, Turner St. Martin; sloop Sally, Longion, Charleston; Zoar, Westcott, Newport.

Arrived, brig Ann and Frances, Carpenter, 15 days from Havana. October 23, in lat. 36, s. long. 76, w. spoke brig Experiment, Bucke, 3 days from Savannah, for Philadelphia. Left here, schooner Ann & Margaret, A. D. New York; brig Pacific, Ward, Salem; Marion, West; ship Fox & Gordon, Pepperebor; sch'r. —, Barnham, New York; ship —, Rowe, and sch'r. Knapp of New York; several others, names unknown. October 24, two leagues from False Cape, was boarded by the British brig Vixen, captain Simpson, who took on board a man named Thomas Ross—on examining him, he presented a cocked pistol to the breast of the vessel, and there he held his sword in one hand, and shot him.

It has been thought that the Vixen is now in port, to this port or some other in America; we think that neither Mr. Simpson, nor any other British command is entitled to an hospital reception in any of our ports, while they remain on board a citizen of the United States, contrary to his inclination; particularly when such circumstances of wanton insult accompany the detention.

Forty Dollars Reward.
RAN away last Thursday night, from the Dan-ah's schooner Es her, capt. William Smith, two Negro Servants, the one a stout well made man, about 5 feet 5 inches high, named JACK, had on a blue cloth jacket and trousers, a white straw hat, &c. The other a stout negro of 5 feet 7 inches, wore a red head a good deal; had on a red cloth jacket and blue trousers, black hat, &c. The above negroes are remarkable from being branded on each cheek and down the forehead; neither of them understand the white English language, but a few words from the coast of Africa. The above reward will be paid by the subscriber to any person for delivering the above negroes in the jail of this city, or in any other so that they may be recovered.
N. B. As there is reason to believe the above negroes are harbored on the Point, half the above reward will be given for legal proof of the fact. Captains of vessels are cautioned against taking them off.
