BALTIMORE WEDNESUAY, HOVEMBER 7, 1804.

Extract of a letter from Wushington, to the editors, duted the 5th inst.

"A quarum was fo meatin the house of representatives this day, and the several committees, such as committee of commerce & manufactures, commettee of revisal and unfinished business, com mittee of elect.ons, &c. &c. were appointed, the house adjourned at one o'clock, till to-morrow at 11. The Senate did not form a house. morrow, it is expected they will, 3. members only being wanted. Aaron Bu r has arrived and has appeared in the senate chamber."

COMMUNICATION.

Don Juan -- We understand that the managers of the threatre have spaced neither trouble nor expence, in getting up that grand spectable of Don Juan. Mr. Holla: d's well known abilities have been employed this month past in pre paring the apprepriate scenery; and from the best information, we may predict that the expectation of the public will not be disappointed, if the terrific given in the most superior stile, has its usual effect.

We understand, that the following arrangement of the Washington Mail has been ordered by the Post master Ge-'.mer l to comme ce on Monday next; viz, to leave the city of Washington at 10 o'clock every eveni g-arrive at Baltimore early next day-tem in there two hours, and thence proceed to Philadelphia, without a y other delay than that occasioned by the necessary opening and closing the mails at the Intermed at eport [Phil. Gaz.] towns.

Among the objects most interesting to the commercial conce a, is the regular and active communication be ween the respective seaport towns in the U on. Hitherto much incor venience, and often great injury has resulted from the far-Jure or the delay of the mails between this city and N w York. We are happy to find, that a commendable spirit of enterprize now promises to terminate this evil. The new contract for carry ug this mail, since its operation, has been supported with great spirit and regularity ty: and the public during the approach ing winter, will have no disappointment to anticipate, on this subject, other it a: those which grow out of the state of the weather of unavoidable casualties.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.

The following gentlemen are elected representatives in cor gress .-Joseph Clay Michael Leib, Jacob Richards, Freierick Conrad, Robert Brown, John Pugh, Laac Anderson, Christian Lower, J hn Whitehill, John A. Hanna, David Bard, Andrew Gregg, James Kelig, John Rea, William Findley, John Smilie, John Hamilton, John B. C. Lucas.

Of the above those in Italic are new members. Mr Kelly is sederal, and the rest republican.

In the state legislature, twenty five sensions have been chosen, all of whom are republican; and of eighty six repre zentztives elected, seventy eight are republican and eight f deral.

It follows that the whole number of representatives of different grades chosen amount to

VERMONT ELECTION. We stop the press to lay before oureaders the event of the late election is this state-By a gentleman from Rut land, we learn, that governor Ticheno is elected by a mejority of 1500, ard that Paul Brigham, the republican ca didate for lieut. governor, is el. chidoby a very large and increased majority—the list of councillors are unanimously republican, and obtained their election by about 3000 majority-Benjamin Swan. Treasurer --- Amos Leeland, Spesker, pro-tem-Authory Hasweil, Clerk, pro tem-and our informant adds, that there is a larger majority of republicans in the house, than there was last year Republicanism in Vermont may be said to be increasing fast-by recurring to the election of last year, we find that Mr. Tichenor was elected by 2186 majority; and that the lowest candidate on the republican list of councillors, was carried by 578 .- This year they have three theusand majority, which makes at increased number of 2422 votes, and that of Governor, of 685. By the above. statement we may see that the republithe last year. Not a doubt remains that war in the harbour, but they did not sident, from this state, will be unanimously republican.

Had the republicans of this state been as well united to obtain a governor, as they have to obtain their list of councillors, we should this year have a head suited to our political body; but we hope that the wavering republicans in this state, who are acting with the federalists, will soon see their error, and that by the next election, if they cannot conscienticusly vote for the republican candidate, they will rather choose not to vote at all, than to have it thrown into the federal scale, to weigh as one against republicanism.

Accounts from Frankfort, Kentucky, represent that town to be more unhealthy at this time, than at any peri d's nee its settlement.

GOVERNOR PICTON -We find by the Landon prints, that on the 18th August, ord rs were issued by the Brid h government to the Governor of Irinidad, directing him to cause deprisitions to be takeu relative to the conduct of General P con, while govanor of that is and, in order that the testimeny may be rought before the tribunal by which he is to be tried in Englind.

We were pleased to see, by the last Nashville paper, that the people of Tennessee have got extablished amongst them Machinery for carding and spinning of Cotton. The proprietors of the works I tion by fire, every liberal mind will be are Messis Marsh and Bear, who also carry on the Dying Business If they have also a few experienced weavers, we may soon see manufactured in that state many cotton lab ics equal to these of Europe .- We hope these improvemen s adapted by our western neignbours, will, ere long, be introduced into this State, as they would doubtiess be of great ad-

M. DE ROCHAMBEAU, Ex-Marshal of France, and father of the General of D. vision, Rochambeau, late commander in chief at S: Domingo, at present a prisoner of war in England, has published the following letter:

" At Rochambeau, near Vendome, July 27.

Citizen Fedon, Colonist of St. Domingo has, according to the Newspaper. laid a very serious complaint a minet Ge. neral R chambeau, before the French Consulat Havannah. I know from experience, that in the cruel position my son found himself during the last six months of his command in the town of the Cape, beseiged both by sca and land. it would have been difficult for him to avoid exercising some acts of severity. founded upon the necessity and wants of the troops. But what I knew as mere certain is, that there is no governsity in traducing two persons now, cf.whom-one is at the Havannah, and the cheri, the County of Deiby, which is the pace where my son is prisoner in England but's separated by the ocean, a distance of 1500 eigues from each other. (Signed) ROCHAMBEAU, Sen."

Extract of a letter from an officer on board the U. S. frigate Congress, dated Gibralter Bay, August 28,

"This opportunity is by a brig bound to Bos.on, which will sail in the course of half an hour, i will give you a short account of our proceedings since we have been in these seas. O our arrival here from America. commodore l'arron received information that the emperor of Morecco hid threatened to declare war against the United States; in consequence of this news the Commodore immediately dispatched the Essex and the ship to cruise off Tangier. On our arrival there we cleared ship for action, and at a word we were all ready for blowing their town about their ears, when our consul, Mr. Simpson, came off and informed captain Rogets, that the report was unfounded, and su-ther that the emperor had no incl.nation for war with us; since cur iquadron paid him a visit at Tungier Bay. We then stilled for Salce, ran in under their hatteries and hoisted our cotans are 2422 Mronger Il an they were lours, we saw four Moorish ships of
