That they have these artists—that two of the partners were bred to the business in a factory of the best repute, carried on by their father, and long afterwards by themselves. They trust that while foreign goods are received without a question, an unieasonable suspicion will not prevent their countrymen from giving an equal trial to such as are wrought among themselves-heside a natural doubt, there is roomto fear, that certain interests, national, as well as individual, may suggest objections to their undertaking-It is necessary therefore to ray, that work of the like kind, shall be as well executed here, as by foreign hands abroad.
