ISAAC CAUSTEN
Respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has leased for a term of years, commencing the 11th day of December next, that extensive well known house, the Columbian Inn, one door above the corner of Howard in Baltimore-streets.
To those acquainted with the superior convenience and situation of this valuable property, nothing need be said. To strangers it may be necessary to observe, that it is situated in the most pleasant and healthy part of the city, and surrounded with respectable mercantile houses, therefore obvious to the convenience of country merchants, travellers, &c.
To this extensive establishment, I. Causten, solicits the patronage of his friends and a generous public, and begs leave to assure every thing on his part shall be exerted to merit and secure their approbation.

The printing and paper of the above stand equal if not superior to any work ever printed in this place, (at which at the commencement we engaged to fulfill) Our numerous subscribers are respectfully solicited to accept of our sincere thanks, hoping they are not less pleased than instructed, in the lively and rational fund of sentiment and wit, so profusely displayed throughout the whole; while in return, we acknowledge ourselves amply compensated by their promptness in pay.

For the few sets remaining on hand, the publishers expect a rapid sale, particularly from the Citizens of Baltimore. Some sets elegantly bound, price 9 dollars, may be had of the publishers, and at the Bookstores of Mr. Geo. Hill, Mr. Samuel Butler, and by Mr. Knight, Fell's Point.

From the unanimous recommendation of the Managers of the Baltimore and Philadelphia Theatres, it will appear evident that "THIS SELECTION" is not unworthy the approbation of a discerning and enlightened public.
CAUTION.
Having examined the printing, binding and paper of Warner & Hanna's Edition of Select Plays, in 6 volumes, we are of opinion that the work is executed in a style becoming their profession; and that in their selection they deserve the support of the admirers of dramatic composition.
WIGNELL & REINAGLE,
W. WARREN, acting manager.

SINGING SCHOOL.
THE subscribers having procured a convenient room in a central situation, intend opening a School for the tuition of Psalmody on an improved plan, in the first week in October. As it is highly necessary that all who mean to become scholars, should commence at the same time, both for their own benefit as well as to prevent a diversity of accounts, they have determined that all who apply within the first month after the commencement, shall date their entrance from the opening of the school.
The book which will be used, is the "Beauties of Psalmody" with other music, which will be delivered gratis, occasionally. Terms, three dollars per quarter, half payable in advance.
The room is situated in Water-street, second door from the corner of South-street, opposite the Baltimore Insurance office.
J. & S. COLE,
