at New Cas le. in the month of June. one thousand eight hundred, whereat the Lid Samuel Chase presided, we said Samuel Chase, disregarding the duties of his office, did descend from he dignity of a judge and stoop to the level of an informer, by refusing to discharge the grand jury, although entreated by several of tie said jury so to do; and after the said of indictment, nor had any presentments to make, by observing to the said grand jury, that he the said Samuel Chase, un--derstood - that a high y seditions temper had manifeited itself in the state of De-Jaware, among a certain clase of people particularly in New Castle county, and more especially in the town of Wilmington where lived a most seditigus printer, unrestrained by any principle of virtue, and regardless of social rder, -- that the name of his printer w s"-but checking himielf, as if sensible of the indecorum w ich he was committing, added-" that it might be assuming too much to mention the name of this person, but it becomes your duty, gentlemen, to enquire deligently into this matter," or words to that ef fect ; and that with inter ton to procure the prosecution of the printer in question, the said Samuel Chase did, moreover, authorita ively enjoin on the district attorney of the United States the necessity of ; procuring a file of the papers to which he alluded, (and which were understood to be those published under the ti ie of " Miror of the Times and General Advertiser.") & by a strict examination of them to find Luie passage which might turnish the ground work of a profecution against the printer of the faid paper: thereby degrading his high judicial functions, and rend ing to impair the public confidence in, and respect sor, the tribunals of justice, to essential to the general welfare.
