the public acts of Assembly, now in force and of general use, from the first settlement of the state to the end of the session, 1863, with references to the Acts at large.
To which is added the Acts of Congress for the District of Columbia, from the assumption of jurisdiction, to the end of the session, which terminated in April 1863, inclusive.

several Acts) for the use of justices of the peace, &c. and also, a table of lanatory of sundry technical laws. In 2 vols. price

No situation in life, no uprightness of heart, no prudence or circumspection of conduct, should tempt a man to conclude that he may not at some time or other, be deeply interested in these cases. The infirmities of the best among us, the vices and ugly, venemous passions of others, the instability of all human affairs, and the numberless unforeseen events, which the compass of a day may bring upon, will each, upon a moment's reflection, that to know with precision what the laws of our country have to bidden and the acceptable consequences to which a willing obedience may expose us, is a matter of universal concern.

NOTICE
To the Owners and Printers of Tobacco, throughout the State of Maryland, Virginia and elsewhere.
UNDER a late law of the General Assembly of Maryland a large, spacious and convenient Fire-house, built at the end of the centre Market space and Frederick-street docks, was lately for the reception, packing and in packages of Tobacco. It is presumed that the great and many advantages attached to this Warehouse, both from its central situation in the city of Baltimore, and being more than 300 yards from the Custom House of the United States—the little danger from fire, and its easy, and immediate accessibility by water, without any charge for wharfage, will deserve and claim the attention of all persons interested. It is very convenient and near to the merchants who regularly buy and deal in Tobacco—always to be approached by the largest craft, bay and coast, with sufficient navigation for all vessels employed in the exportation of this article, not drawing more than twelve feet water. Its exemption from risk by fire, and from wharfage, are also considerable offers peculiar advantages.
The subscriber promises always to use the utmost dispatch, care and attention for the interest of those who may please to consign their tobacco to his charge.
