SINGING SCHOOL.

THE subscribers having procured a convenient room in a central situation, intend opening a School for the tuition of Psalmody on an improved plan, in the first week in October. As it is highly necessary that all who mean to become scholars, should commence at the same time, both for their own benefit as well as to prevent a diversity of accounts, they have determined that all who apply within the first month after the commencement, shall date their entrance from the opening of the school.

The book which will be used, is the "Beauties of Psalmody" with other music, which will be delivered gratis, occasionally. Terms, three dollars per quarter, half payable in advance.

The room is situated in Water-street, second door from the corner of South-street, opposite the Baltimore Insurance office.

Daring Robbery.

20 DOLLARS REWARD.

THE house of the subscriber was entered, on Monday evening last, between 7 and 8 o'clock, by some villain and the following articles taken out—one broad cloth coat, one pair of velvet pantaloons, one waistcoat, one long satin cloak, one dimity coat and two pair of women's shoes.

As this is not the first instance of depredation committed on the property of our citizens and as they are generally interested in the discovery of such nocturnal marauders, it is hoped they will exert themselves in the detection.

The above reward will be given for the discovery of the thief to conviction and recovery of the articles,

PHILIP SUMWALT.
