100 Dollars Reward
FOR apprehending ROBBIN, who ran away from Dorsey's Forge near the city of Baltimore, on Welles as the 1st ult. he is a very black fellow, about 30 years of age, 6 feet high, short curly hair, which he very seldom combs; rather of a thin visage, has a good deal of teeth; broad shoulders and tapers gradually downwards; his right leg formerly has been very sore, and retains the scar in the shoulder. Indeed they have both been very sore; but the right much worse than the left. He is fond of strong drink, and after drinking is very apt to ramble or stammer when he speaks, though he speaks low and slow. He has been accustomed to working in the Forge, and is not a bad fussy man, and can handle iron tolerably well. His clothing when he went away was a country mixed full cloth jacket, a pair of new ditto breeches, a pair blue fulled stockings, osenbrigg shirts, coarse shoes and hat; but as he is a notorious, artful villain he will probably change his dress and obtain a pass.
I will give the above reward including what law allows, for apprehending and securing the above fellow, and reasonable expenses if brought home.
ALLEN DORSEY, Manager
At Dorsey's Forge
N. B. The said fellow took with him a light mixed cloth coat, a yellow jacket, and a pair of striped pantaloons.
All persons are re-rewarded from harboring or carrying off said runaway.
The printers in the different cities and towns in the U. S. are respectfully requested to give the preceding an insertion in their respective papers.
March 12

Stray Horse.
CAME to the subscriber's Plantation, the 8th inst. a white Horse 14 hands high, supposed to be 7 or 8 years old, no perceptible brand or mark. The owner is desired to come, prove property, pay charges and take him away from the subscribers, 12 miles from Baltimore, within a mile and half of Wharf's tavern, and he may from the Philadelphia road.
