

imperence of this piece, we shall not at present enter deeply into the subject. — But this much we will say, we believe the only respect in which the Post-Master General has been faulty in this business is, that he did not remove Mr. Neale more than three years ago. And we hope Mr. Granger by this time sees the impolicy, impropriety, and injustice of continuing the opposers of the general and state Governments in lucrative or honorable offices. — Is it not enough that they enjoy all the common blessings which the country derives from a virtuous, wise, economical and peaceful Administration of our public affairs, without adding official influence, honors and wealth, to their means of opposing that Administration? — Is it not enough that Republicans should be abused, slandered, and persecuted; for their fidelity to the Government of their country, without seeing their abusers, slanderers, and persecutors, fostered, fed, and flattered by that Government? — We rejoice to see in the Post-Master General a disposition to "correct the procedure" of his five years — to exhibit a little more of the "energy" with which Federalists are so much delighted — and which they have so often reproached the Republican Administration with the want of — and we think he needs no other "pretext" for dismissing a man of his confidence, than that he is found in opposition to the Government of his country, as wisely, as justly, as cheaply, and constitutionally administered.

Commercial Correspondence.

Extract of a letter from Barbadoes, to a respectable mercantile house in Boston, dated October 30, 1804.

"Agreeably to your request, I now forward you our prices, together with the new arrangement made, prohibiting the further importation of faded provisions, fish of all kinds, soap, candles, butter, lard &c. by an order which the Governor has just received from the Earl of Camden, one of his Majesty's principal secretaries of state dated 5th September, 1804, whereof the following is an extract:

"I am to instruct you not to open the ports of the island over which you preside for the admission of articles from the American States, which are not allowed to be imported by law (except in cases of real and very great necessity) and not to fail in applying the same in every instance wherein you shall find and to state at the same time the reason which induced you to adopt the measure."

"In consequence of which the Governor has issued his proclamation, all wing the following articles to be imported and no others: — iron, tin, boards, plank and squared timber — hoops, staves & heading shingles, hordles, cattle, sheep, hogs and poultry of all sorts, bread, biscuit, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oat-barley, and grain of all sorts, to be in force for one year.

"Under these circumstances, I would not recommend your shipping any other articles, than those mentioned for the same instructions have gone to all the Governors of the different British colonies, and has extended even to Surinam and Demerara. I think deal lumber, and a quantity of dressed wood hoops, sufficiently long for sugar hogsheads, will answer that article at present in feeling at 50 and 56 dollars per m. and I do not expect they will be under from 40 to 50 dollar the whole year.

"Our crop will be very abundant, and by the month of January, molasses will come in plenty to the markets; it is expected to break at 32 to 35 cents per gallon, the quality is very good; if any thing better than Surinam.

"GENERAL PRICES: — Superior flour 12 dollars; ship bread 5 naves 6, and pilot 7 dollars per barrel; black-yeast peafe 1 1/2 dollars per bushel, white beans 2 dollars, corn 1 dollar, and oats 55 p. c. 3 dollars per barrel, deal lumber 26 dollars per m. red oak staves 30 dollars per m. wood hoops dressed, 40 to 50 dollars per m. horses as in quality, from 70 to 120 dollars each; cattle do. from 50 to 80 do.

"Molasses none yet at market; rum 60 cents and expected to be as low as 50."

FROM HOLLAND

We have accounts from Rotterdam by captain Foster, to the 18th October. — They repeat the probability of an immediate war between Russia and Sweden and France; and between Great Britain and Spain: — That the appearance of invasion were kept up; — that the Dutch gun-boats had been sent to Boulogne; at which place the British had succeeded in destroying a great number: — That the Holland government was of an expected change, in the government from republicanism to royalty; and that the chief magistracy was to be invested in Schimmelpennick Captain F. Fay the channel appeared covered with British cruizers; and that strong squadrons were anchored off Boulogne, Dungeness, &c.

(FROM THE SAVANNAH MUSEUM) Messrs. Printers,

The following is a copy of a letter from a character who lately resided in this city, (but who has removed to St. Augustine, and become a subject of his most Catholic Majesty) to a gentleman residing here, to whose liberality he was for a long time indebted for his supply of Goods — the letter needs no comments.

St. Augustine, November 23, 1804.

Mr. — Sir
Your letter of the 28th October came to hand, you write that Mr. M — is dead, which I am sorry to hear, but there can be no doubt but his estate is fully sufficient to pay his debts; however, be that as it will, you may make the most of what you have got from me, for you may rest assured that I will never pay you one cent more. I suppose that you do not know that the King's proclamation protects both me and my property, if I had a full store of goods in August, you could not touch one inch of them for debts contracted in the State before I became a Spanish subject, except you could find me in the state, and it is my full opinion, that you will not very soon — If I should contract debts in the states after I became a Spanish subject I make myself liable in August, but as it is now you may whistle what tune you please for your own amusement, but let me beg you not to trouble me with any more of your folderol — for I will not answer you.

Yours, &c.
OBADIAH POTTER.

Departed this transitory life, on the morning of the 25th instant, in the 28th year of his age, captain WILLIAM BARRON of this city. He was apparently well in the morning and was walking towards the front door of his dwelling, when death arrested his progress. He was a gentleman of amiable and unaffected manners, and esteemed by all who knew him.

His remains were attended to the place of interment, where an animated discourse, suitable to the occasion, was delivered by the reverend Mr. Glendy.

REMARK ON DEATH.

At Canada, ten is Foui, aged 102; a lively old man, brought to America in his youth. He is said to have declined from the effects of the ancient Chinese empoisoners; and being of strong powers of mind and body, situated in Canada a society, by the name of Rousigouche, in imitation of those of his own native country and Europe; several branches of which are now in existence in the United States. Some of the objects of these societies are to obtain and preserve the curiosities of nature to forward the arts and sciences and to practice Olympic games &c. It was while in the act of attempting to throw an iron spear weighing 600 pounds at a mark 100 feet off, and which he effected that he came by his death having produced a violent hemorrhage. The friend and acquaintance of the deceased will call his man virtues & talents to remembrance with affection, and the Asiatic, European and American societies of Rousigouche, of many of which he was an honorary member, will bear of his death with deep regret.

At a special meeting of the ancient and honorable Rousigouche society of Salem, of which the deceased was an honorary member, it was recommended that the members thereof a testimony of sorrow for his death wear black crepe on the left arm for thirty days.

An Independent Fortune

TO BE MADE FOR A SMALL SUM.
THE public are respectfully informed that the MYSTERY, this curious phenomenon which has engaged the attention of the ingenious of this city, and of which they have vainly attempted to elucidate the principles, will be offered for sale, after this week, the proprietor being obliged to go to Cadiz on urgent business. To such persons as may wish to purchase it is necessary to relate, that it is an entire new secret, never before exhibited in America; and notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, and scarcity of cash, the receipts of it have been upwards of 100 dollars per week. To a man of enterprise and activity who would go to the different cities on the coast, it would to a certainty, accumulate an independent fortune.
This incident and real wonder of the present age, is offered to any man of integrity on advantageous terms, either for the whole apparatus and secret; or, the one half and security for the half of his receipts.
To a man of money, who wishes to speculate to advantage, such another opportunity may never occur, if realising a handsome interest, which will not only reimburse the principal in a very short time, but yield an annual handsome income. — From the vast concourse of people who visit it daily, there is every reason to believe that the purchase money before it leaves this city.
Admittance 75 cents, children half price.

7500 Numbers to a Prize.

The tickets to be sold in Halves, at five dollars each.

The Managers respectfully solicit the aid of the public to complete the object of the above Lottery. — Considerable exertions for several years having been already made by an association of ladies, for the education of poor orphans of all denominations. — Teachers in every part of the city have been paid quarterly for the schooling of children, and in some instances assisted with necessary clothes, from the precarious resources of subscription, public and private donations, charity sermons, &c.

The Legislature of Maryland have been pleased to grant a lottery to raise a fund upon more stable and permanent principles, for the support of this institution; and the mayor and city council in sanctioning it by an ordinance, have also given a very honorable testimony of their good wishes, by liquidating their treasury tax. — The Managers therefore confidently hope, that the above scheme, as well from the benevolence of its origin, as the principle of advantage, will be inviting to every citizen, in this or any other part of the United States. Adventurers in this lottery, while they feel a conscientious and consoling reflection of having thereby contributed their mite to the permanent establishment of a Free School, for the education of poor children, male and female, of every denomination; will also in a pecuniary point of view, experience advantages superior to any other scheme heretofore offered.

For the convenience of purchasers, the managers have thought proper to strike off the tickets in halves, leaving it optional with the purchaser to take the whole or half ticket.

The managers have given bond for the faithful performance of their trust.

Sixty days after the drawing is finished the prizes will be paid, subject to a deduction of 12 1/2 per cent — if not demanded within 12 months after the drawing is finished, they will be considered as relinquished for the orphans.

N. B. Letters together of the Managers enclosing the cash, post paid, will be duly attended to. — The managers promise to keep a register of all names of adventurers at a distance, and to furnish them with the fate of their tickets, to any part of the continent, when the drawing is finished. May 9

To a Generous and Enlightened Public.

Hopkins's superior Razor-Strop

AND RAZOR PASTE.

THE experience of years, indefatigable attention and unwearied application, having enabled Hopkins to offer a generous public the fruits of his industry, which, perhaps, stands unrivalled by any human invention for the last five hundred years, or at least, since civilization pointed at the savage appearance of bearded man — and brought forward that era when the Razor-Strop and Paste became indispensably necessary in polished society. It is well understood, that the old adage "Experientia docet" is the best criterion to prove the excellence of this strop. — Hopkins is not accustomed to the puffing competition of European charlatans, neither does he claim any merit to himself from the Brilliance of Invention, or the Thousands acquired by his Grand soles; those who personally know him, know too well he is not of that cast of character, to those who he is only professionally known, he respectfully appeals to their generous bosoms for unvaried claim.

Example — On a Kiss under the Mistletoe. — Once under the Mistletoe a fair maiden with her And the cried no, yet she held up her head. The kiss was obtained, yet a grumbling was heard. For Tom's subber check with his own hand. How easy, dear Tom, her voice you might have heard. By the use of Hopkins's wonderful Strop.

The superior Strops for Razors, Penknives, &c. with Paste, are sold wholesale and retail by J. Hopkins & Co. 63, South Third street, opposite the United States Bank, Philadelphia, and on the same terms by his sole agents for Baltimore, W. ARNOLD & HANNA,
No. 37, Market, corner of South Gay-st.
