Preparatory Assembly,

Under the direction of Mr. DUPONT,
The utility of private balls preparatory to the general public assemblies of the city, is so generally acknowledged among polite circles as to require no comment. The desire which Mr. D. feels to deserve and obtain the encouragement of his friends, has induced him to attempt their establishment during the present season, having procured from Paris a regular supply of the most fashionable Cotillions, the more appropriate of which he proposes to introduce into the preparatory assembly, on the following

CONDITIONS:
1 There will be six assemblies to be held once every fortnight, on such evenings as may be agreed upon by the subscribers.
2 On the evening previous to each of the above assemblies, there will be a free practicing night on the newest cotillions, for such as may please to attend.
3 Each subscriber to pay 6 dollars on receiving his ticket of admission, whether he subscribes before or after the first ball, and to have the privilege of obtaining a 1st tier ticket each evening.
4 The managers for each ball to be appointed by the subscribers.
As soon as a sufficient number of subscribers are obtained, a meeting will be called to arrange the rules and regulations of the assemblies.
Subscription books are left at: Mr. Joseph Carr's music store, corner of Market and Gay-streets, and at Mr. Hill's book-store, 104, Market-street, and will remain open till the 1st instant.
