ISAAC CAUSTEN Respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has lezzed for a term of years, commencing the 11th day of December next, that extensive well known bouse, the Columbian Inn, one door above the corner of Howard in Dalti-mare-street. To those acquainted with the superfer convenience and situation of this valuable property, nothing need be said. To strangers it may be necessary to chierve, that it is situated in the most pleasant and healthy part of the city, and surrounded with respectable mercantile houses, therefore obvious to the convenience of country meichants, travellers, &c.

To this extensive establishment, I. Causten, solicits the patronage of his friends and a generous public, and begs leave to assure them every thing on his part shall be exerted to merit and secure their approbation.

To the Voters of the city and county of Batimore.

HAVING been encouraged by many of my friends in the city at ! county, to offer myself as a candidate to be put in nomination for the office of SHERIFF, at the ensuing election, I hope it will not be deemed improper thus early to signi-Ly my intention, and to solicit the petronage of my friends generally, and the voters of the city and county at large.

Those who have not a personal knowlege of me, will, on enquiry, find that I have been bred to business, and have been conversant in mercantile transactions from early life-Should my fellow-civizens think proper, at the expiration of the time of the present sheriff, to bestow on me the office, I trust my conduct therein will be such as will give satisfaction, if a diligent attention and a faithful discharge of the duties thereof, are capable of doing the same. By Kimber, Conrad & Co. For Publishing by Subscription that Valuable Work, entitled A COMPLETE CONCORDANCE TO THE

Holy Scriptures

OF THE OLD & NEW TESTAMENT;

DICTIONARY & ALPHABETICAL INDEX TO THE BIBLE.

Very useful to all christians who seriously read and study the inspired writings. In two parts-containing,

I. The appeliative or common words, in so full and large a manner, that any verse may be readily found by looking for any material word in it. In this part the various significations of the principal words are given, by which the true meaning of many passages of Scripture is shown -in account of several Jewish customs and ceremonies is also added, which may serve to illustrate many parts of Scripture.

II. Proper names in the Scriptures-To this part is prefixed a table, containing the significations of words in the original languages from which they are derived.

To which is added, A CONCORDANCE TO THE BOOKS CALLED

APOGRYPHA. The whole digested in an easy and regular method; which, t gether with the various significations and other improvements now added, renders it more useful than any book of the kind hitherto published.

BY ALEXANDER CRUDEN, A. M. This excellent work having gone through five editions in England, and never yet been printed in America, the publishers are induced to be lieve, that aming the numerous advocates for the reading and study of those invaluable writings, within the compass of the United States, they will meet with sufficient end largement to warrant their undertaking so large a work. --They have accordingly made arrangements for putting it to preis early he present year; and as they rely upon the patronage of the readers of the Holy Scriptures, the atmost attention shall be given to furnish them with as correct and handsome an index to the Bible, as the best London copy.

The Managers respectfully solicit the aid of the public to accomplish the object of the above Lottery-Considerable exertions for several years having been already made by an association of ladies, for the education of poor orphans of all denominations-Teachers in every part of the city have been paid quarterly for the schooling of children, and in some instances assisted with necessary clothes, from the precarious resources of subscriptions, public and private donations, charity sermons, &c. The legislature of Maryland have been pleased to grant a lottery to raise a fund upon more stable and permanent principles, for the support of this institution; and the mayor and city council, in sanctioning it by an ordinance, have also given a very honorable testimony of their good wishes, by relinquishing the customary tax ... The Managers therefore confidently hope, that the above scheme, as well from the benevolence of its intention, as the principle of ad venture, will be inviting to every citizen, in this of their encouragement. or any other part of the United States. Adventurers in this lottery, while they feel conscientious and consoling reflection of having thereby contributed their mite to the permanent establishment of a Free School, for the education of poor children, male and female, of every denomination; will also in a pecuniary point of view, experience advantages superior to any other scheme heretofore offered.

For the convenience of purchasers, the managers have thought proper to strike off the tickets in halves, leaving it optional with the purchaser to take the whole or half ticket.
