Defence of Simon Wilmer.

" Curst Cows, short borns, great Jove bas wisely Lest they may burt the chosen ones of Heaves!

ADVERTISEMENT, I sincerely regret that my finances are so far below par at present, that I cannot defray the expences of my pamphlet of defence, against the malicious charges which have oblogs sed my character for several months past; and I must therefore bear the mortification of offering it for sale. It is to be recolleded, my friends and fellowcitizens, that the style is dictated by feelings without a critical reference to orthography, and as it has been composed no faster than the printers have furnished me with proof sheets, I hope to escape unfriendly remarks. The manuscript pamphlet I have so long promised for public ptrusal, is entirely superceded by this which contains fact and misfortune-that was composed merely to gratify the spleen of the moment ! And I now presume to recommend my volume of painful events to the husband who loves his wif:, and then let him contrast happiness with To the father who has sons maturing to manhood, in order to fertify the expanding mind against the shifts and hypocricy of great ittle mankind. To the religious, whose piety is at war with the snares of Saran. To the merchant, whose negociations for the convenience of fiendebip subjed him to the suspicion of forgery

To the mechanic, whose labors are unreward ed, by the frozen put cf 'call again." To the shaver who extorts usury in violation of divine and human laws. And lastly, to my brother vidims to shavery in order to know that Mosesee have got the monies, but that law was favorable to the christian

The public's obedient servant, SIMON WILMER.

P. S. If my language against any of my persecutors is considered rash by my readers, I must invite them to embrace those feelings, which have naturally resulted from the most painful scenes, that persocution ever created against a fellow man.
