On Wednelday laft, a poor black girl, owned by a person at Brooklyn, called (under the pressure of extreme shunger) at a gen leman's house in Pearl-ffreet, to beg a little tood. As she entered the house to receive the food she had solicited. the was observed to e-hibit f mptoms of much pain, and to have femeting concealed under a handkerchief, which she held to the fide of her head. On an exammation of the circumstance, it was found, that, among other nodes of wreaking vengeance, her master had gratified his boutal feelings by hacking off a part of one ear, and cutting a gath in the other, through which he suspended a large iron pallock!! In this ficuation the was left to endure the agony fuch a weight must necessarily have occasioned; and in his condition the croffed the fe ry, and wandered through the flicets, begging for a moissel of bread! As there was no bey as land by which the lock count be opered, nor any other means of releating her from her unsery, this wretched object was conveyed to the Alms-houle, where
